Cavs Drop Sixth Straight 110-93

DENVER (UPI) — The Denver Nuggets have made a happy man out of George McGinnis, who said Friday night's 110-93 win over Cleveland reminded him of last season in Philadelphia.

McGinnis, who had 20 points in the Denver win, said the Cavaliers gave the Nuggets a break in defense by taking quick shots.

"I think they started going a little too much one-on-one toward the end," said McGinnis. "That reminds me of what it was like in Philadelphia last year. They say it's easier to play defense against a team that shoots so quickly."

McGinnis, noting Denver's undefeated record at home, predicted a title if the Nuggets kept up the pace at home and play about .500 on the road.

"For me personally, this is utopia," he said. "I'm much happier here in Denver."

Nuggets coach Larry Brown was happy with the game-high, 29-point performance turned in by David Thompson.

"This was David's best gave of the season," Brown said. "I told him before the game that he was still in pre-season form.

"Tommy Boswell gave us a lift in the first half and Dan Issel played well down the stretch," he added.

Boswell scored 12 points in the first half to help the Nuggets to a 47-38 lead at intermission. Issel finished the game with 16 points.

Cleveland coach Bill Fitch, who was ejected with 1:03 left in the game because he kicked the ball into referee Roger McCann, said he got mad because the officials changed a call.

"I wasn't ready for the ball to be put in play so I kicked it," said Fitch. "The discouraging part is I'll get my fine and maybe get suspended but the same problems will continue."

Fitch said he was not discouraged with his team's play, even though it was the sixth straight loss for the Cavaliers. The team was led by Campy Russell and Austin Carr with 18 points each.

"I thought we did everything well enough to win except shoot and we missed a pile of easy layups," he said. "We'll win more games than we'll lose if we play like we did tonight."

Pistons 98 Bulls 93

M.L. Carr scored 24 points and Bob Lanier 22 as Detroit handed Chicago its ninth straight loss.
