Chargers win rematch with Big Red, 14-0

Prep football

MILAN — It was a rematch of last season's Firelands Conference championship game.

But, it was just reversed this time around as Edison came up with a 14-0 blanking of Plymouth.

Last November, the Big Red handled Edison in the title scrap, 13-6.

Now, both teams are battling for survival in their respective divisions.

Edison, in moving to 3-1 in the FC North and 3-4 overall, made an early score by Jeff Garlock hold up until the waning minutes when Rick Reinbolt rambled in from 45 yards away to ice the decision.

Garlock's score climaxed a 53-yard drive by the Chargers which began following a Plymouth fumble at the Edison 47. During the eight-play drive, the Chargers got a key run from Reinbolt who picked up a first down when they were facing a fourth-and-two at the Plymouth 28. Three plays later, they scored.

"It was a tough game and we needed it. Both teams hit hard and played tough defense the second half. We were able to stop their fullback from the second quarter on," added Edison head coach Paul Mentis.

Scott Ryman, the Plymouth fullback, was held to 18 yards the second half after picking up 70 during the first 24 minutes of the game.

Plymouth led in every offensive category including rushing (127-70), passing (111-62) and total offense (238-132).

But, the Big Red was plagued by three lost fumbles and a pair of interceptions while Edison turned the ball over just once.

Plymouth is now 1-3 in the FC South and 3-4 overall.

Port Clinton 13
St. Joe 7

FREMONT — Port Clinton rallied in the final minutes to overtake Fremont St. Joe, 13-7, in Sandusky Bay Conference play.

St. Joe, 1-3 in the conference and 2-4-1 overall, had taken a 7-6 lead after a one-yard plunge to paydirt by Jim Foos and Mark Miller's conversion.

That touchdown came with 9:44 left in the game.

With just under four minutes to play, Port Clinton gained possession at its own 36.

But, keyed by three pass completions for 51 yards from Franz Messner, the Redskins were able to drive downfield in eight plays with Dennis Voss climaxing the drive with a plunge over the goalline from one yard away with just 34 seconds left in the contest.

Prior to the final drive, Messner had completed just one pass.

Port Clinton, which climbed to 3-4 overall and 2-2 in the SBC, had opened the scoring in the game with a Voss touchdown from the one yard line just nine minutes into the game.

New London 21
St. Paul 13

NORWALK — Norwalk St. Paul saw a three-game winning streak come to an end Saturday at Whitney Field with a 21-13 defeat to Firelands Conference North rival New London.

The Flyers dropped to 4-3 overall and 3-1 in the North division, while New London raised its marks to 3-4 and 2-2.

The key play of the game may have been New London's tiebreaking touchdown in the second period. After the Flyers had tied the score 7-7 on a 36-yard touchdown pass from Charlie Meyer to Matt Spriggs, the Wildcats Shawn Tappel returned the Flyer kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown.

New London scored first in the game, with quarterback Steve Kozel hitting Bret Cook on a 10-yard scoring pass. Kozel added the extra point kick.

St. Paul struck back with the touchdown pass, and Brad Alge, the former starting quarterback who suffered a shoulder injury in the first game, kicked the extra point. Alge is not playing on offense or defense.

Tappel's return gave the Wildcats a 14-7 halftime lead, and New London expanded that to 21-7 when Ken Ross scored on a two-yard run in the third period.

The Flyers scored in the fourth period when Meyer passed to Matt Camp for a 25-yard touchdown pass. A run for two-points failed.

"We stopped ourselves tonight," St. Paul coach Wally Zanotti said. "We didn't have the spirit tonight we have shown in the previous games."

The Flyers had 255 yards of total offense to New London's 196, and had two turnovers, one interception and one fumble. The Flyers had 14 first downs to New London's 11, but the Wildcats picked up nine first downs rushing and gained 174 yards on the ground.

Panthers 3rd at sectional

Golf

LIMA — St. Mary's Central Catholic finished third among 12 schools in the Class A district golf tournament Friday, but missed a state berth by 5 strokes.

The Panthers had 330 strokes in the event at Hawthorne Country Club. Van Buren was champion with 322 points and Old Fort claimed the other state bid with 325. New London ranked 10th with 354 points.

Jim Crooks paced the Panthers woith 38-41—79, while Jeff Sennish added 39-41—80 and Scott Kieffer 40-41—81. Steve Ruthsatz added 46-44—90 and Steve Fitzpatrick 48-43—91.

Doug Martin, Van Buren, was medalist with 36-34—70 and Matt Hiestand, Old Fort, was runnerup with 37-36—73. Only the top two teams and the individuals with the top two scores gained state nods.

Robby Ulm topped New London with 43-39—82, while Steve Kershner added 41-45—87 and Tim Barker chipped in with 45-45—90. Mike Bailey followed with 43-51—95.

3 area teams qualify 'AA'

Cross country

CLYDE — Bellevue, Norwalk and Margaretta finished in the top three Saturday, qualifying them for next week's girls cross country district tournament in Tiffin.

The Bellevue girls won with 59 points, while Norwalk was second with 80 and Margaretta third with 94 in the sectional meet held at Green Hills golf course.

The top three teams, and the top nine individuals of the other teams all qualify for the district meet, held next Saturday morning.

Other area teams included Perkins, fifth, 121; Willard, seventh, 194; Huron, ninth, 220; Western Reserve, tenth, 329; and Clyde, 12th, with 341. St. Mary's Central Catholic started the meet with a full team, but didn't finish the race with the full compliment.

Tracy Meyer of Norwalk finished first with a 19:03, while Brenda King, Huron, was second with a 19:43, while Lara Knapp of Margaretta was third with a 19:47.

Rounding out the top 10 was Maria Penager, Lexington, 19:51; Penny McClusky, Perkins, 19:56; Cindy Woods, Edison, 20:01; Aaltsje Vandervee, Bellevue, 20:01; Deb Delong, Lexington, 20:05; Kim Gillette, Bellevue, 20:11; Tanja Arbogast, Norwalk, 20:26.

Other members of the Margaretta team who will advance are Kelly Hartsook, 13th, 20:44; Andrea Bath, 16th, 21:00; Marcia Werner, 27th, 21:36; and Lisa Birmingham, 35th. 22:18.

Perkins runner Kendra Camp also qualified, finishing 18th.
