

Blocking specialist

Left guard Kevin Robertson(63) motors to his left and readies himself to provide blocking for a Whippet runningback. Also blocking is fullback Ron Roberts(23). Robertson and the rest of his 'friends' on the offensive line provided gaping holes for the backs that collected 272 yards in rushing against Bellevue.

Mapleton blasts Plymouth

PLYMOUTH—Plymouth ended the 1984 season on a sour note, losing 26-12 to Mapleton Friday evening in the Firelands Conference finale for both schools at Mary Fate Park.

Mapleton jumped to a 26-0 lead late in the third period before Plymouth lit up the scoreboard in the fourth quarter with a pair of touchdowns.

With 11:53 remaining in the game Plymouth quarterback Troy Keene hooked up with Steve Hall on a 36-yard pass to cut the gap to 26-6 with the extra point kick failing.

Scott Ryman scored six for the Big Red on a two-yard burst with 6:30 left in the contest for the final score. The extra point pass play failed.

With 9:49 remaining in the first half, Mapleton's Darrel Young scored on a one-yard run. Then with 1:40 on the second quarter clock Ken Hickey raced to paydirt from two yards out. Hickey also ran in the PAT for a 14-0 Mapleton lead at the half.

Greg Forbass caught a 13-yard pass from Young with 3:03 on the clock in the third period to lift Mapleton to a 19-0 lead.

Brian Mohrman tallied the final score for the Mounties on a 55-yard run with 33 seconds remaining in the third period.

Plymouth gained 274 total yards, with 167 through the airways. Mapleton ran for 224 yards and passed for 49.

Scott Ryman led Plymouth with 38 yards rushing on 16 carries. Mohrman had 102 yards on only eight carries.

Plymouth ends the campaign with a record of 3-7 overall and 2-5 in the southern division of the Firelands Conference. Mapleton completes the year with a 4-6 mark and 3-4 slate in the same division.

Next Friday at Norwalk, Western Reserve (9-0, 6-0) plays Black River (5-5, 4-3) for the Fireland grid championship. Both teams were winners of the two divisions that make up the league.

Plymouth was last year's champion, nipping Edison 13-6 in a snowstorm.

Cunningham notches 400th coaching victory

By United Press International

Maybe Billy Cunningham should have bet on the fourth race at Keystone racetrack Friday.

Four was definitely the Philadelphia coach's lucky number last night as the 76ers' four-point victory gave them a 4-0 record and Cunningham his 400th career victory.

Moses Malone scored 26 points and Philadelphia held off a late rally to down the Dallas Mavericks 107-103.

"It's not really that important to me," Cunningham said. "It's hard to believe I've lasted this long."

Cunningham, 41, assumed the 76ers coaching reins Nov. 4, 1977, after retiring as a player just before the start of the 1976-77 season.

"I've been very fortunate to stay in one city and over the years. I've been involved with some very top quality people like Julius Erving, Caldwell Jones, Maurice Cheeks, Bobby Jones and many others," Cunningham said.

Philadelphia led 74-54 early in the third quarter, and held an 86-73 edge after three periods, but Dallas then outscored the 76ers 22-11 to close within 97-95 on a 3-point shot by Dale Ellis with 4:30 remaining.

"I was very pleased with the comeback but I wasn't pleased with the first half," said Dallas coach Dick Motta. "We wound up with 13 turnovers in the first half and we've only been averaging 14 a game."

"At halftime, I took out my ruler and slapped them on the hands and said, 'Don't do that again,'" he said.

A jump shot by Julius Erving gave Philadelphia a 105-99 advantage with 91 seconds left but a jumper by Mark Aguirre made it 105-101 and Jay Vincent's layup with 19 seconds left brought Dallas to within 105-103.

However, Andrew Toney and Erving made insurance free throws to ice the 76ers' victory.

Erving finished with 24 points. Aguirre had 30 and Vincent added 22 for the Mavericks.

Cunningham improved his career record to 400-172. He has reached the 400-victory mark faster than any other coach in NBA history.

In other NBA games, Milwaukee beat Washington 102-96, Boston edged Detroit 127-116, Indiana defeated Cleveland 116-109, Los Angeles stopped San Antonio 119-100

SHS offering special sports ticket for winter athletics

Shelby Senior High is offering a special winter sports ticket for boys and girls varsity basketball and wrestling, according to athletic business manager Emile John.

Starting Nov. 12, the winter sports ticket will be sold. Each ticket is good for ten admissions.

More than one person can be admitted on one ticket, and the ticket can be used for any of the above named home sports. The ticket will be punched once for each person for each admission.

A ten-admission adult ticket will be sold for $20 and a student ticket will be sold for $10. This is a saving of $5 for each adult or student ticket purchased.

Tickets will be available throughout the winter sports season at the principal's office of both the junior and senior high schools, at Oliver's Men's Store, and at every home winter sports event.
