Basketball officiating class

being offered at NCTC/OSU-M

MANSFIELD- The NCTC/OSU-M physical activities center will sponsor an Ohio High School Athletic Association sports of ficiating class in basketball from 6-8 p.m. on consecutive

Wednesdays from Oct. 3 to Dec. 5
The course will be taught by registered OHSAA officials and will include a study of playing rules, rule interpretations and officiating techniques

At the conclusion of each course, students successfully passing the National Federation Rules Examination will receive an OHSAA rating for the current year.

The cost of the class is $25 for all current NCTC and OSU-M students, staff, faculty and their immediate families, and $35 for all others. For more information call Susan Paynter at(419)747-4999, ext. 346.

Eagles turn back Plymouth, 27-14

MONROEVILLE-The Plymouth Big Red dropped a 27-14 decision to unbeaten Monroeville Friday evening in a Firelands Conference battle bet-ween northern and southern division opponents.

The southern division champs from a year ago, Plymouth, jumped to a 7-0 lead with 11:14 showing on the first period clock when Jamie Brown hauled in a 29-yard pass from Troy Keene and Randy Myers' PAT kick was good.

Monroeville then roared back with a pair of touchdown strikes tossed by southpaw Dave Keszei. Keszei's first strike was a 41-yarder to Scott Jones with 2:43 on the first quarter clock and the next came in the second period when Mark Stacey snagged Keszei's attempt from 19-yards out. Both conversion tries failed and Monroeville led 12-7 with 8:52 to play in the first Plymouth took its final lead of the game with 3:35 showing on the clock when Keene scampered 12 yards into the endzone and Myers second suc-cessful PAT kick made it 14-12. Before halftime Keszei launched another scoring strike, this time to Tom Schafer for 13-yards with 10 seconds showing on the timer. Keszei ran in the extra point attempt to give the Eagles a 20-14 lead.

Both teams battled to a scoreless draw during the third period before Keszei once again fired a 9-yard TD pass that went to Dean Wise with 10:24 remaining in the contest. Chris Pifher booted the PAT for the winners final margin.

Monroeville held Plymouth to 105 yards rushing and 68 passing. The Eagles were paced by Roger Smith who accumulated 178 yards rushing. His teammates were held in check as Monroeville totaled only 170 yards rushing. Keszei riddled the Plymouth defense for 167 yards on 14 of 21 attempts.

Plymouth is now 2-3 on the year while Monroeville improves to 5-0.

The Big Red gridders will be in action next Friday when they host Crestview for their annual homecoming game at 8 p.m.

"It's too late now," the operator explained. She was right. Gardner learned that the Kansas City Royals had defeated the host Oakland A's by a 6-5 margin late Friday night. Long distance may not always be the next best thing to be-

Kansas City's victory coupled with the Cleveland Indians' come-from-behind 11-10 victory over the the Twins earlier Friday night clinched the American League West division title for the

'We blew a 10-0 lead and we've lost four straight," he said. "Right away, I felt the end coming. The Royals know they just need a win. (Our) prognosis obviously is not good.

He was right. Gardner said he would relay the Kansas City-Oakland result to his players.

In other words, he notified the next of Twin.
"I want them to know what happens," he said. "You shouldn't go to sleep wondering.

What a thing to happen. First, that Jamie Quirk pinchhits a homer and we lose 4-3 (Thursday night) Now this. It's outrageous."

Tabler opened the ninth with a walk off loser Ron Davis, 7-11, the fourth of five Minnesota pitches. One out later, Davis walked Jerry Willard and was replaced by Ed Hodge, who was greeted by pinch-hitter Mel Hall's single that loaded the bases.

Butler followed with his game-winning drive over the head of centerfielder Kirby Puckett.

"I just wanted to get good contact," said Butler. "It feels good to be a spoiler.'

Tom Waddell, the fifth Cleveland pitcher, pitched hitless ball and struck out three over the final three innings to improve to 7-4. Cleveland rallied from the 10-run deficit on Joe Carter's tworun homer in the third, a sevenrun sixth highlighted by Andre Thornton's three RBI and Carter's solo blast with two out in the eighth.

"Carter's second homer really chilled us," said shortstop Ron Washington, who had four RBI but was guilty of a base-running lapse in the first inning that may have cost Minnesota a run.

"We tried our best. Really. It just wasn't enough, and that's Cleveland manager Pat Corrales relished his club's spoiler

"Call us 'Chicago Cubs East," he said. "I'm glad the Twins are enjoying their stay here.

"Maybe they should swim in Lake Erie. We came back from having out butts kicked early in the game.
