Madison hammers Shelby in opener, 27-3

By CHUCK RIDENOUR Globe staff reporter

After looking back on the 27-3 lashing administered by Madison in Friday's high school season opener, Shelby coach Ron Stepsis was at a loss for

"I truely believe we're a better team than we showed tonight," said Stepsis "Hopefully we'll show we are better next week and the weeks to follow '

The Whippets scored the first points of the game, but the Rams responded by scoring the final 27 in a row with power foot-ball in the second half that chewed up the clock.

Ram signal caller Tom Moore scored the game winner for Madison with a one-yard run plunge on a quarerback sneak with 9.06 remaining in the first half Brett Pauley split the uprights on the PAT kick to make the score 7-3.

The Whippets went on the march, looking for the go-ahead points by Chuck Bradley step-ped in front of a Randy Fagg pass at the Madison 14-yard line to snuff out the drive with 5 00 showing on the first half clock The series started at Shelby's own 28

"The interception by Bradley was one of the turning points in the game because Shelby was picking us apart at that time," said Madison's first year boss, Dana Woodring

Madison was unable to move the ball and Dean Kehres blocked Doug Kelly's punt to give Shelby the ball at the Ram 18-yard line

Following three incomplete passes the Whippets were forced to try a field goal and Beighley's attempt was off to the left and the score remained at 7-3 at

The Rams offense turned in a time consumer throughout the final two periods and with 5 47 showing on the third quarter clock, Madison punched in another six points on a two-yard plunge over right guard by Bradley with Pauley following up with a successful PAT kick The drive covered 57 yards and lasted 10 plays

Following a Shelby miscue that gave the visitors the ball at the Shelby 34 Bradley ripped away 25 stripes on a quick hitter up the middle to put the ball at 14 and four plays later Mike Armstrong rambled into paydirt from three yards away at 2:48.

Things continued to go awry for the Whippets when Joe Gies raced 57 yards to the Madison 18 with a kick-off return, but the runback was negated on a clipping call that put the ball clear back to Shelby's own 10-yard line. A fine punt return of 28 yards by Reid Lederer was called back against the Whippets on a clipping call in the first quarter Both penalties cost SHS 105 yards in field position

Madison got the ball back after a punt and ran the final play to end the third period Eleven plays into the final stanza it was Bradley completing the scoring on a six-yard sprint with 6 26 on the clock Pauley's third boot made the final count 27-3

"We had some good things happen to us with a few breaks early in the game and didn't take advantage of the situation," said Stepsis "We made some mistakes and Madison was not to be denied in the second half That was the ball game '

With the Rams chewing up much of the clock in the second half Shelby was held to 52 yards offense and to a pair of first downs by passing in the final quarter

.e took it to them in the second half," Woodring "Shelby had us on the ropes in the first half and in the second half we took the battle to them

The Rams tallied an additional 67 yards passing on 5-of-7 completions to go with their 144 rushing yards on 50 trips The Whippet had 70 yards rushing on 23 carries while passing for another 71 yards on 7-of-23 attempts Doug Noblet led the Whippets with 39 yards rushing while Kevin Noel hauled in three passes for 51 yards Starting quarterback Randy Fagg was 3-of-13 for 34 yards and back-up Steve Ousley was 4-of-10 for 37 yards Each threw an interception Bradley led the Rams with 71 yards running while Jerry Chicaloni hauled in four aerials for 41 yards Madison piled up 16 first downs to Shelby's eight

"We never had any field position in the second half," noted Stepsis. All their drives in the second half started at their own 33, 34, 10, 43 and 47 yard lines

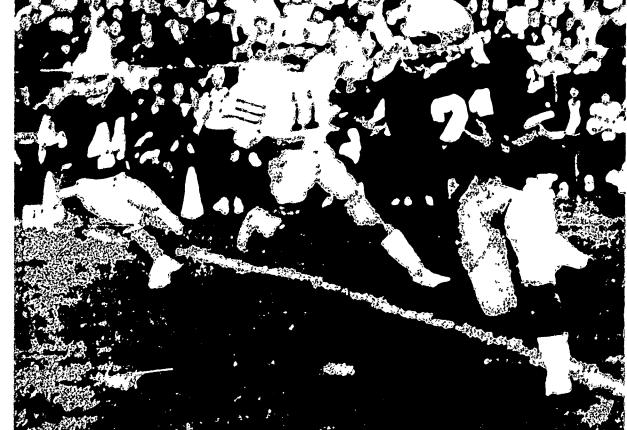

"Madison ran power offense in four down territory and chewed the clock up," Stepsis remarked

"You have to give Madison credit because they hung tough throughout the game and did what they had to down order to win the game. We just came up short," replied Stepsis

This has happened to us before, but deep inside I feel we have the quality men who will bounce back and continue to strive for success," closed Stepsis

Buckeye Central coach Bill Pierce 'bought' some break time

Buckeye uses OT to drop Seneca East after regulation after he had to Tigers bounced back but we blew many opportunities explain to the officials how the before the half with an 8-yard, with penalties and poor execuovertime period was to be run pass to Brian Steinhauser from tion," said Pierce. Normally, the two teams flip the coin and take three minutes for a break before resuming play We had 10 minutes to rest because the officials didn't have a rule book with them and didn't how to run the overtime The 10 minute session gave the kids a breather and they rose to the occasion in overtime," said

Buckeye's Kris Walter was one tired player, seeing action for 48 minutes on offense and defense Walter gobbled up 220 yards on 37 carries, scoring two touchdowns for the victors.

Walter put the Bucks up 6-0 in the first period on a three-yard run and early in the second stanza he raced into the endzone from 34-yards out and tacked on the PAT for a 14-0 lead

Majors Both teams were scoreless during the third

Buckeye Central tallied 260 yards rushing passed for another eight stripes Seneca East piled up 53 yards rushing, but Majors completed 12-of-27 passes for 200 yards with one interception

Penatties killed the Bucks for the most part as BC was flagged 14 times for 123 yards

"In the second half we didn't do much but kill ourselves with penalties We'd get a drive going and then get a 15-yard penalty. At one time we had a second-and-48 situation," said Pierce.

"We didn't play well It could have easily been 24-0 and we could have broke open the game,

Boston Red Sox are better off being on the road after all

After playing 31-of-40 games on the road since the All-Star break, the Red Sox brought their road show back to Fenway Park Friday night and, as in most of the other, home games this season, the Red Sox were outhomered and dropped a 7-3 decision to the Cleveland Indians.

The loss sliced the Red Sox' lead to 31/2 games over the second-place Toronto Blue Jays, who edged past the Minnesota Twins, 6-5.

"We've been challanged before," said Red Sox pitcher Joe Sambito. "Toronto's hot and that's not going to last forever. We're cold and that won't last forever either." forever either.

But the Red Sox are facing a power shortage. Boston pitching has now allowed 67 home runs at home while the Red Sox offensehas supplied 41. On the road, the Red Sox have given up 73 and hit

With 22 of their remaining 34 games in Fenway, the Red Sox will have to start hitting well at home to survive atop the AL

Joe Carter was the main stumbling block in Boston's pennant chase Friday. The Indians' rightfielder capped a 5-for-5 performance with three home runs while rookie Cory Snyder added a solo blast.

"I love to hit at Fenway Park," said Carter "I just hit the ball on the line tonight and things worked out for me

Tom Candiotti was the beneficiary of Carter's outburst The Cleveland righthander scattered six hits in posting his 12th complete game of the season.

With the way we hit the ball, if you keep the other team down for at least four or five innings you might find yourself up by a few runs," said Candiotti, who raised his record to 13-9.
