GENOA - Scoring on nearly every possession in the first half helped Genoa take charge early en route to a 46-6 win over Port Clinton, spoiling the debut of Pete Moore as head coach of the

The Comets scored twice in the first period and added 3 more scores in the second quarter for a 33-0 advantage by intermission.

Steve Smith, who rambled for 122 yards on 15 carries, scored twice in the first half and came back with just 55 seconds left in the game to reach the end zone on an 88-yard kickoff return.

The Redskins, who totaled just 111 yards offense, avoided the shutout with 1:08 remaining in the game when Eric George scored on a 5-yard run.

Otherwise, it was all Genoa as the hosts piled up 241 yards on the ground and went over 300 yards total offense.

W. Reserve 20 Columbia 19

COLUMBIA STATION Dane Burke bolted 29 yards for a touchdown and Brad Eungard added the two-point conversion to lift Western Reserve past Columbia in the opener for both schools.

Burke, who rushed for 105 yards, opened the scoring with a five-yard reception from Eungard in the second quarter.

The Raiders answered with a 42-yard touchdown run from Dave Smith, and after a successful onside kick, Ron Stavincky galloped 52 yards to put Columbia on top by a 12-6 margin.

Burke tied the score in the third quarter with a 12-yard scoring run, but Stavnicky raced 39 yards for a touchdown later in the period to regain the lead for the Raiders.

John Eavenson added the point after to give Columbia a 19-12 advantage and setting up the heroics of Burke and Eungard in the fourth stanza.
