LAKESIDE — Craig Coe scored a pair of touchdowns and Norwalk St. Paul defeated Danbury for the third time in four years Friday night, 27-0.

The Flyers, 5-4 overall, scored a touchdown in each quarter.

Coe reached paydirt in the middle periods, going in from two yards out in the second period and going in from three yards in the third. It was his seventh and eighth touchdowns of the year and he leads the Flyers in scoring with 48 points.

St. Paul, which closes out the season at Western Reserve Friday, got on the board in the first period on a four-yard run by Brad Dials, his first touchdown of the season. Coach Joe Widman's squad got its final score of the game in the fourth period as Mike Davis notched his seventh touchdown of the season, grabbing a 32-yard pass from quarterback Greg Rogers.
