Cuff Stuff
By Fred Thompson

"BETTER baseball in years to come." That's the by-product of junior baseball clinics such as the one which will open at Madison High School Gymnasium tomorrow afternoon. . . . Jimmy Lymper was discussing merits of the clinic today. . . . An All-Big Ten infielder three years ago, Lymper is now a professional in the St. Louis Cardinals chain and later a coach and scout. Lymper is well qualified to talk baseball. . . . Clinics such as the one planned for Mansfield give the kids a chance to learn correct techniques from men who've been in organized ball," he said. "The kids can watch these former pros perform and then 'copy' to a degree what they've seen. As a result they will be able to play better ball. Information passed on to the younger kids is bound to produce a more intelligent, better rounded ballplayer in years to come."

LYMPER, too, believes that area high school players and coaches should attend the clinic if at all possible. . . . He feels that the scholastic players would be better grounded in the game as they would pick up additional information from the qualified men who will instruct at the clinic. . . . And they can benefit from the motion pictures which will cover the many techniques of our national pastime. . . . He said, "If the time devoted to baseball equaled that devoted to the other sports and activities in the schools, and the correct quality of leadership and coaching was available the United States could produce an over-abundance of good ballplayers. Then it would be no longer necessary to follow the present trend to draw major league players from Cuba, Panama, Mexico, Puerto Rico and Venezuela."

Memory Trail . . .
Chuck Peters, star ball-carrier at Penn State from 1938-40, set an NCAA football record that still stands. An artist at returning kickoffs, Peters averaged 52.2 yards with kick runbacks in 1940 for a mark still on the books. In 1938, Penn State set four pass defense records while compiling a 3-4-1 record. The next two years, Peters helped the Nittany Lions to a record of 11-2-3.

Whatever happened to Chuck Peters?
He now is athletic director at Shamokin, Pa., High School which completed its most successful athletic year in history in 1958 by winning the Keystone football championship, wrestling and basketball titles in district No. 4 of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Collegians Look Sharp In Tourney

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The College All-Stars, based on their initial showing, should breeze through the Pan-American games basketball trials without taking a deep breath.
With Oscar Robertson and Jumping Johnny Green showing the way, the collegians turned back the Phillips Oilers, 89-83, Thursday night after the Wichita Vickers rolled to an 89-73 triumph over the Armed Forces All-Stars in the opening games of the round-robin tournament.
In tonight's games, the College All-Stars play the Armed Forces representatives and the Oilers meet the Vickers. The winner of the three-night tournament will place from five to seven men on the U. S. team that will compete in this year's Pan-Am Games at Chicago.

Golfer Gets Two Birdies

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A member of the Marshall College golf team got his "birds" Thursday at Guyan Country Club, but they were of the feathered variety.
Buddy Graham's tee shot on the 200-yard 8th hole struck two sparrows in flight, killing both. And to make matters worse, he had a double-bogey five on the par three hole.

Only Four Manage To Break Par

By LEO H. PETERSEN

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Canadian Stan Leonard, who will only own up to 44 years but probably is closer to 50, led the field into the second round of the Masters golf tournament today — the first foreign player ever to do so.
His three-under-par 69 Thursday over the rain-soaked, windswept Augusta National Golf Club course was two strokes better than anyone else as the 68 professionals and 19 amateurs generally found the elements too tough for them.

TRIO BREAK PAR

Only three players outside of Leonard, a six-time Canadian PGA champion who has been a playing pro for 22 years, broke par.
They were defending champion Arnold Palmer, Jackie Burke and the veteran Chandler Harper, all of whom came in with one-under-par 71's. There were only five players at par.

The smiling Canadian played the wind as though he owned it. He took only 30 putts and had six one-putt greens, as he carded three birdies and 15 pars. It was the second-best round he ever has played in six Masters.
At even par were Jay Hebert, Gene Littler, U. S. Open champion Tommy Bolt and two other foreign threats — Peter Thomson of Australia and Angel Miguel, the Spaniard who won the individual championship in the Canada Cup matches last year.

SNEAD AT 74

The pre-tournament betting favorite, three-time Masters champion Sam Snead, tied with 13 other players at 74. Among those who came to grief on the treacherous back nine was the 48-year-old Jimmy Demaret, who went out in 34, two under par, and then soared to a 44 when he went into the water on three consecutive holes, starting with the 11th. That gave him a 78.
Ben Hogan, Art Wall, Mike Souchak and Gary Player, the little South African, were in the 73 bracket, which included a total of nine players.

AMATEURS TIE

Among them were the first round amateur leaders — Chuck Kocis and Bill Hyndman. U. S. amateur champion Charley Coe was in the 74 group.
Ken Venturi, second choice to Snead, was one of 12 players who carded 75's. Also in the group were Julius Boros, Billy Joe Patton and Porky Oliver. PGA champion Doug Finsterwald had a big 79, taking 42 on the back nine.

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—The 56th American Bowling Congress tournament today. The Steubenville, O., southpaw won the individual crown in Rochester, N. Y., three years ago with a 744 series.
Orlie Grable and Hal LeMunyon will lead a six-man contingent from Mansfield, Ohio. They rolled the top doubles score ever to come out of Mansfield when they finished fourth in the 1956 meet at Rochester with 1,244. LeMunyon hit a 643 and Grable, 641.
They are members of the Zahn's Construction team which also includes Nick Weber, Frank Stranki, Fred Zahn and Lou Zahn. Weber and Lou Zahn and Stranki and Fred Zahn are the other doubles units.
Stranki is rolling for Fred Willis, who is out with a bad leg.

Methodist 5 Wins Title

Franklin Methodist employed "one step ahead" tactics to outlast Mt. Calvary and grab the Mansfield YMCA Class A Church League basketball crown last night by a 60-56 margin.
In consolation play, First English Lutheran dumped Crestline, 47-36.

Hornung Signs

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—Paul Hornung, leading ground-gamer and scorer for the Green Bay Packers last season, has signed his 1959 contract.

GOAL TO GO—Winningest pitcher in the major leagues, Early Wynn (right) of the White Sox will be aiming at victory No. 250 of his career in his first start this season. Wynn, one of the aces of the Chisox staff, accents his goal with star infielder Nellie Fox helping with the props.
