BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) Canonero II's trainer pronounced the Kentucky Derby winner ready today to prove he is more than a one - race horse when he goes to the post in Saturday's running of the $189.900 Preakness Stakes at Pimlico.

The colt's victory at

Churchill Downs still was regarded as a "fluke" by many rival trainers and stories of fever and coughing have circulated throughout the backstretch all week long.

Trainer Juan Arias, and the entire retinue at Pimlico with the horse, merely shrug this off as an unfounded rumor and an ex-

MANY SHOWERS

"I would like to see Canonero put in a couple of good races back to back before I believe him." said Trainer Gerry Lord who hoped the track would be muddy for the second of the Triple Crown classics. His colt, Sound Off, is best on an off track. But although the track was muddy Thursday when the entry box closed and showers persisted throughout the day, clear warm weather and a fast track were expected for Saturday.

But not everybody dis missed Canonero II as a "one shotter". "He looks like a million dollars to me," said Trainer Reggie Cornell when he arrived at Pimlico with Eastern Fleet.

"One thing is sure. he's $145.000 better looking as far as I can see." said George Poole, who trains Impetuosity, referring Cornell and Poole believe they have a good chance to take

LUCKY HORSE

Poole said Impetuosity was lucky he didn't fall in the Kentucky Derby when a tired horse stopped in front of his colt at the threeeighths pole.

"Eric (jockey Eric Guerin) was lucky he didn't go down and a less experienced jockey might have."

Thistle Sets Imp Stakes

CLEVELAND - The fourteenth running of the $7,500 added Imp Stakes is the feature event at Thistledown Saturday.

Leading the list of 15 nominations for the six furlong event is Stoneledge Farm's plucky Spangover, a double stake victor this year. Hot off wins in the Ohio Matron Stake last week at Thistledown and the previous week at Beulah Park's Diana Stake. Spangover owns a total of four purses this year.
