Two Schools Tie In League Meet

slip away and had to come back in the last event to tie Crestview for the league crown in the 16th annual Johnny Appleseed Conference boys track and field meet Tuesday. At the same time, Loudonville grabbed the lead from Plymouth with two events to go and hung on to win the first JAC girls meet.

The Warriors, in quest of their 10th consecutive boys league title, built up a commanding 48-26 lead after the afternoon field events. The Cougars fought back to take a 103-93 lead with two events to go, but a first and third in the two-mile run and a second in the mile relay helped Ontario pull out a tie.

Tony Nabors of Crestview had an exceptional day winning four events. In the afternoon he won the long jump (21 feet, 14 inch), the high jump (8-5) and both hurdles events, running the lows in 21.2.

Teammate Ken Lemieux was the only other multiple winner taking the mile and halfmile

Three records were broken. Lexington's Frank Wuchich broke one of the three oldest records in the books when he heaved a shot 54 feet, 10 inches. The old mark was set by Crestview's John Caster of 53-512 in 1967

Steve Chelski of Ontario broke the pole vault standard when he vaulted 13 feet, 314 inches and Jeff Cashell of Lexington won the 440-yard dash in the record time of 51 2.

In the girls meet. Loudonville overtook Plymouth with three events to go as the Redbirds grabbed a first and second in the 880-yard run and a first and fifth in the 220-yard dash to put the victory

All winning times and distances went into the record books.

Jill Fudge sparked Loudonville to victory with firsts in the long jump (15-314) and the 100-yard dash (12.3).

Mary Newman of Crestylew and Kellev Dent of Plymouth were other double winners. Newman won both weight events and Dent won the high jump and 80-vard low hurdles.

Canadiens Victors, 2-1

MONTREAL (AP) - With Guy Lapointe in the penalty box for holding late in the second period of a scoreless Stanley Cup play-off hockey game, the Montreal Canadiens hardly expected to score a goal against the Philadelphia

Philadelphia Netminder Wayne Stephenson had frustrated Montreal all night with some dazzling stops, and after all, the Canadiens were a man down.

That's when Flyers Defenseman Larry Goodenough got the puck in the neutral zone Canadiens Center Jacques Lemaire, helping kill the penalty at the time, tells the rest.

"He was coming up the ice and he lost the puck in his skates," recalled Lemaire. "He put his head down to find it, and as soon as he did that, I went for it.

The puck was Lemaire's and the path to Stephenson was clear. With teammate Jim Roberts to his left and no Philadelphia player - except Stephenson - in sight, it took only a few skating strides and a flick of the wrists before the Canadiens had a short-handed goal, a 1-0 lead and a solid grip on the game they won 2-1 Tuesday night.

Goodenough had committed the cardinal sin. "When you're the last man back with the puck, you should never try to coach Barry Ashbee "It's a hard way to learn, but he'll probably never do it

Philadelphia Defenseman Tom Bladon could have learned from Goodenough's error, but made a similar one in the third period when his pass toward Bill Barber found the stick of Montreal's Guy Lafleur instead This time Defenseman Joe Watson was back, but his retreat screened Stephenson from the 30foot shot Lafleur unleashed

So for the first time since May 1, 1973, the Canadiens have a 2-0 lead in a National Hockey League play-off final. For the fifth time in a row the Flyers have left this city without a victory, a winless string that began during the 1974-75 sea-
