Pacers set mark with 82-80 win

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mark Jackson says he won't be satisfied with anything less than an NBA title. But getting 53 wins in a season is nice too.

"It's OK to be a little bit harsh and say negative things about us, but the whole picture says we have won 53 games," Jackson said after Indiana's 82-80 victory over Cleveland Tuesday night in a possible first-round playoff preview. "We have had a great season."

Jackson played for two teams last season — Denver and Indiana — that combined for 60 victories. The Pacers went 39-43 under Larry Brown and failed to make the playoffs.

Indiana's 53rd win Tuesday was the franchise's most victories since entering the NBA.

"That's something to be awfully proud of, especially with what we had done last year," Jackson said. "Let's take time to smell the roses."

Reggie Miller's 22-footer with 8.8 seconds left gave Indiana the lead for good at 82-80.

Miller, who finished with 15 points, did in the Cavaliers for the second time this season. He hit two 3-pointers in the final 29 seconds on Jan. 30 as Indiana beat Cleveland 89-83.

"We had a defensive breakdown," said Cavaliers coach Mike Fratello, who watched Carl Thomas follow Chris Mullin off a screen instead of following Miller to the left-wing.

Thomas then missed a wide-open 20-footer at the buzzer.

Thomas hit the back of the rim with the final shot of the game.

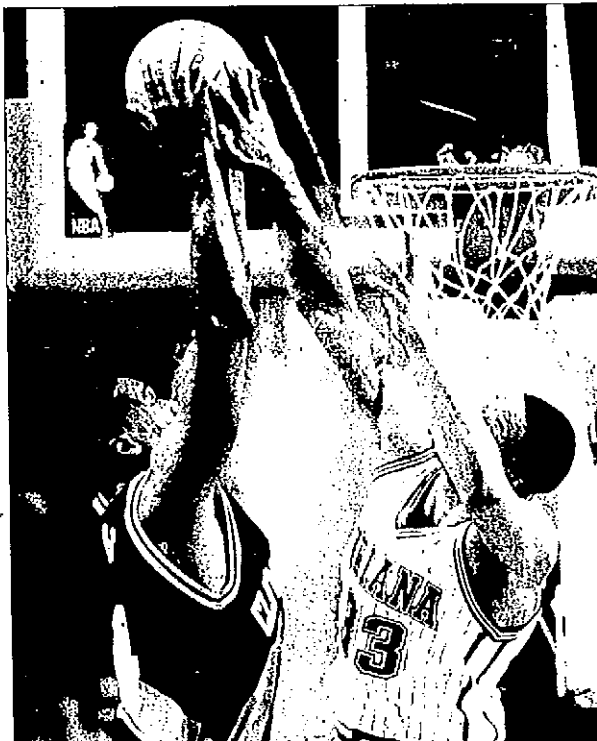

"That's a shot I normally make in my sleep," he said.

Cleveland rallied from a 76-68 deficit to take a 78-76 lead with 3:08 remaining. Thomas and Wesley Person, who led the Cavaliers with 18 points, sparked the 10-0 run with back-to-back 3-pointers.

Antonio Davis, who finished with 19 points and 15 rebounds, ended a 6:43 scoring drought for Indiana, hitting two free throws to tie the game at 78-78 with 1:10 to go.

Shawn Kemp finished with 16 points and 11 rebounds after missing five of his first six shots. He also provided his home-state crowd with a huge scare.

Kemp was carted off on a stretcher with 2:44 left in the second quarter after he was inadvertently elbowed in the chin by Derrick McKey. He returned to start the second half and tied the game at 80-80 by hitting two free throws with 26.2 seconds left.

"I didn't really even ask what happened," said Kemp, who slumped to the floor unconscious. "That's what the game is about. You get hit and you've got to bounce back and take it and just go on," he said.

Injuries taking toll on undefeated Tribe

■ Enrique Wilson put on disabled list with injured thumb.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians, undefeated in 5 1/2 games this season, have mounting injury problems which kept three players out of the lineup in their latest game.

That last game, Monday night at Oakland, was suspended after repeated rain delays with the Indians leading 6-5 after eight innings. It will be completed before this afternoon's regularly scheduled game at Oakland.

The Indians played the Athletics without starting shortstop Omar Vizquel (bruised right finger), second baseman Shawn Dunston (bruised right biceps) and catcher Sandy Alomar (strained left groin).

Meanwhile, backup infielder Enrique Wilson — who would have normally relieved Vizquel or Dunston — was put on the disabled list Monday with a torn ligament in his left thumb.

"I don't expect him back until July," manager Mike Hargrove said. Joiberto Cabrera was brought up from Class AAA Buffalo to take Wilson's place.

The injuries meant third baseman Travis Fryman had to move to shortstop while Jeff Branson handled second base against Oakland.

Hargrove said Alomar, who hurt his groin in spring training, and Dunston, who collided with Brian Giles going after a fly ball on Sunday against Anaheim, likely would be back in the lineup this afternoon.

Both Vizquel and Wilson hurt their fingers sliding head-first into a base.

Base-running coach Al Bumbry said he prefers players to slide feet-first. He said that allows runners to jump up and advance more quickly if there's a bad throw. He also thinks there's more risk of injury sliding head-first.

Hargrove disagreed.

"People have been sliding that way for a lot of years," Hargrove said. "I'm not going to tell Omar Vizquel or Kenny Lofton to change. You can go in feet-first and tear up an ankle. I've seen some had injuries doing it that way, too."

Monday night's game was suspended at 1:22 a.m. PDT Tuesday. The Indians and A's played eight innings while enduring 3 1/2 hours of two rain delays.

The game was suspended because of the AL curfew rule that says no inning may start after 1 a.m. local time.

Norwalk's Josh Lesch fires a pitch Tuesday against Bellevue.

Falknor, Lesch hook up in NOL pitchers' duel

NORWALK — Josh Lesch and David Falknor hooked up in a real pitchers' duel Tuesday afternoon to kick off 1998 Northern Ohio League baseball action for Norwalk and Bellevue.

And it was Falknor and his Bellevue teammates who won the battle, 4-2 over the Truckers at Baines Park.

Falknor went the distance and pitched a three-hitter, while striking out 12 Truckers. Lesch went the distance for Norwalk and allowed four earned runs on seven hits with four walks and eight strikeouts.
