New London boys eke out win in own invite

NEW LONDON — The Wildcats won a dogfight.

New London had just three firsts, but finished with 94 points to slip by Loudonville and Western Reserve for the boys title at the 1999 New London Invitational Saturday.

The Redbirds were second with 91 points and the Riders took third with 90. St. Paul finished fourth overall in the 11-team field with 52 points with South Central in eighth (27), Monroeville in ninth (17) and Plymouth in 10th (10 points).

Sam Roberts led the Wildcats with a first in the 400-meter dash in 53.4 seconds and a second in the 800 in 2:08.4. Marshall Randleman added a first in the long jump with a leap of 19 feet, 11½ inches and Brian Barker won the 300 hurdles in 41.5.

Chad Duchette won the 800 for Western in 2:07.0 and was second to Randleman in the long jump at 19-2¾. He also teamed with Jake Bibb, Mike Podrosky and Aric Wagner to win the 4x800 relay in 8:27.4.

Bibb added a first in the 1600 (4:41.9) and Ray Bibb won the 3200 (10:21.3).

Jay Morrow paced the Flyers by winning the 110 dash in 11.2 and finishing second in the 200 in 23.4.

Mike Howard was a double winner for South Central, taking the title in the shot put (59-1) and the discus (159-1).

Nick Orth led Monroeville with thirds in the 100 (11.3) and the 200 (23.6).

In the girls meet, Buckeye won 10 events and pulled away with 168 points. Dixie Heights was second in the 12-team field with 68 points, followed by St. Paul with 54.

The host Wildcats placed fifth overall with 45 points, South Central was seventh with 33, Monroeville was ninth with 13, Plymouth was 10th with nine points and Western Reserve was 11th with four points.

Erin McFadden of the Flyers and the Trojans' Cassie Palmer led the area participants.

McFadden was a double winner, taking the 1600 run in 5:34.7 and the 3200 in 12:40.5. Palmer won the discus with a toss of 117-5 and was third in the discus at 34-3½.
