

Buckeye tracksters topple Plymouth, South Central

NEW WASHINGTON — Kristin Keaton prevailed in three individual events and one relay for the Plymouth girls track team Thursday afternoon during a triangular meet at Buckeye Central.

The PHS speedster swept the 100-meter low hurdles (17.1), 300-meter low hurdles (49.6) and 200-meter dash (29.2) before she teamed up with Ashlee Weekley, Emily Perry and Megan Hedeon to capture the 4 x 400-meter relay (4:44.0).

The host Buckettes won the meet with 76 points to outdistance the Big Red (61) and South Central (23). On the boys side, South Central was first with 56 points and followed by Buckeye Central (49½) and Plymouth (46½).

Additional wins for the PHS girls were courtesy of Hedeon in the high jump (4-6), Ariel Collins in the 800-meter run (2:55.0) and Nicole Riedlinger in the 3,200-meter run (15:02.0).

For the Big Red boys, Mike McKenzie was a double winner with triumphs in the 110-meter high hurdles (16.7) and 300-meter intermediate hurdles (45.2). Teammate Skylar Branstool won the 1,600-meter run (5:09.0).

Plymouth runs Saturday at the Shelby Invitational.
