SHI-NOPSIS

1953

Dedication

SHI-NOPSIS

We dedicate this, our 1953 Shi-Nopsis, to Mr. W. W. Pittenger who has supervised our day trips, and to Mrs. Ava Arnold who has worked so diligently with us to complete our annual, and to make our class plays a success.

Co. Supt. Dale B. Kinney

School Board

First Row: Wallace Harnly, Earl Huston, Ronald Howard.
Second Row: Raymond Wolford, Dr. C. O. Butner, Supt. C. D. Moore.

The untiring efforts of these men are responsible for our successful school year. The student body is grateful to these public spirited men who are willing to spend their time and energy for the betterment of the youth of our community.

The officers for 1953 are Wallace Harnly (president), Dr. C. O. Butner (vice-president), and Ronald Howard (clerk).

QUALITY COAL CO. Sponsored by SAM FOX JEWELER

Class History

It was September 1949, and we had just completed our rocket '53. After selecting our crew, we started our journey. Our crew was as follows:

Captain-Tom Miller
Co-Captain-Richard Pennell
Gunner-Bev Dent
Radioman-Lila Dininger

Mrs. Edith Huston was in the control room and the cadets were as follows:

Martha Porter
Martha Steele
Edna Cole
Grace Lightfoot
Freda Frontz
Wilma Million
Margene Cole
Shirley Reynolds
Shirley Wallace
Donna Jacobs
Helen McQuate
Sarah Cantrell
Jane Blackford
Mary Kilgore
Dorajane Malone
Mable Clagg
Edward Ballitch
Richard Koker
Roger Moser
Earl Roberts
Jack Bard
Willard Clagg
Foster Leaply
Charles Miller
Bob Sutter
Norman Wolf
Eugene White
Kenneth Beck

As we were just starting our journey, we received our initiation from the big guns----but surprisingly enough we all lived through it.

There were two one-act plays given at Christmas time, "The Green Christmas" and "The Tree."

We had a bake sale in order to make money to refuel our rocket. When we landed in the spring of 1950, to refuel and check the ship, we found that we had gained one member, Bob Rakestraw. We came down to earth for three months before taking another step towards the completion of our mission.

In the fall of 1950 we continued our journey toward success. The cadets chose a new crew, which was as follows:

Captain-Tom Miller
Co-Captain-Richard Pennell
Gunner-Bev Dent
Radioman-Wilma Million

This time Miss June Campbell and Mrs. Robert Waldbauer were in the control room.

During our journey through space we lost the following cadets:

Margene Cole, Richard Koker, and Edna Cole

Several new cadets were enrolled in the ship's log: Pat Brown, George Doyle, Cloyce Lake, Robert Mitchell, and Emory Thornton. Later Pat Brown and George Doyle left.

During the year the cadets purchased a popcorn machine. We had popcorn shot from guns----shot into the mouths of all our lower classmen!!

We decided to leave until the first of September and then take up our mission through the tough Junior year, when we were to report back.

In the fall of 1951, after refueling and taking on more supplies, we took off on the third leg of our journey. After checking the cadets we found that several were missing: Grace Lightfoot, Martha Porter, and Roger Moser. Mr. Richard Gross was chosen for the control room, and the following were chosen for the crew:

Captain-Eugene White
Co-Captain-Edward Ballitch
Gunner-Bob Rakestraw
Radioman-Wilma Million

Tom Miller left the rocket to join the Army. We went into the candy business which was a success. The highlights of our journey were the class play, "One Foot In Heaven," and our very enjoyable Junior-Senior Banquet. We lost one of our cadets, Kenneth Beck.

By May most of us were victims of "battle" and a leave had been well earned, so we left, vowing to return the following September.

In the fall of '52 we were ready for the home stretch. Mr. C. D. Moore was in the control room with the following crew:

Captain-Eugene White
Co-Captain-Edward Ballitch
Gunner-Mary Kilgore
Radioman-Shirley Reynolds.

The main happenings of this last year of our journey were: our class play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," which was presented two nights so that more people might participate; and several educational trips.

The following cadets will complete the journey:

Wilma Million
Bev Dent
Helen McQuate
Mary Kilgore
Shirley Reynolds
Jane Blackford
Shirley Wallace
Mable Clagg
Dorajane Malone
Freda Frontz
Lila Dininger
Donna Jacobs
Sarah Cantrell
Martha Steele
Jack Bard
Bob Rakestraw
Charles Miller
Edward Ballitch
Richard Pennell
Willard Clagg
Earl Roberts
Bob Sutter
Norman Wolf
Foster Leaply
Cloyce Lake
Bob Mitchell
Emory Thornton
Eugene White

Class Prophecy

With nothing else to do, I thought I would take a ride among the planets in my space rocket to see some of my old chums. While going past Mars, I spotted my old friend, Bob Rakestraw taking Bev Dent a ride in his new flying saucer. The saucer wasn't quite broken in yet; Bob said it would only go about 1,500 miles per hour. After talking to them for a while, I flew on to the moon, where my rocket ran out of fuel. I radioed in to Bob Sutter's rocket station. His assistant, Bob Mitchell, brought me some fuel in his ancient jet. After I fueled up I headed for Mercury. On the way I sighted an object which looked to me like a meteor. Being of curious nature, I decided to investigate, and to my amazement I found Jack Bard in his hopped-up rocket. Jack was on his way to pick up Wilma Million to take her to the big Universal series, which was between the Mercury Cadets and Pluto Aces. It was supposed to be a great pitching duel between the Ace's southpaw, Foster Leapley, Jr., and Richard Pennell, Jr., otherwise known as the kid from Mercury. Moving on through space, I decided to stop to grab a bite to eat at a swanky space restaurant, the Drivinette, now under management of a trio of girls we all know, Lila Dininger, Freda Frontz, and Dora-jane Malone. They were doing a good business with the drivinette and were planning to make a chain of restaurants later on.

After a delicious meal of hot chili and sandwiches I continued my journey to earth. I landed on earth a few miles from Shiloh on the Ballitch estate. I talked to our schoolmate, Ed Ballitch, on his way to town, as he wanted to confer with his bookkeeper, Charles Miller. Chuck also has a sideline of studying medicine. He still has his problems.

I wanted to see how the town was getting along so I stopped in at the mayor's office. I was much surprised to see Jane Blackford behind the desk. She told me that the town was advancing in many ways. For instance, Eugene White had founded a new business in a fast rising field, rocket engineering. His secretary, Mary Kilgore, had been a big help in getting the business underway.

Sarah Cantrell, another classmate, who was always trying to help people, is still in that business. She has the largest lonely hearts club in the country. Keep up the good work Sarah!

Helen McQuate, well known music composer, is doing very well. She has a large estate close to Ontario. Some of her hit tunes are "Beautiful Steamer", "Don't Fence Me Out", and "Floating Down the Blackfork".

Willard Clagg has developed into one of the greatest wrestlers in the universe. Everyone knows him as "Killer Will."

Mabel Clagg, Will's sister, has a booming business at the east end of Shiloh, called Mabel's Diner. She always was a good cook.

Shirley Wallace, our classmate who always had a longing for the movies, now has the first theater of Shiloh.

Donna Jacobs has her own newspaper, The Shiloh Astonisher. It covers everything, I guess! Donna was just preparing a scoop she had gotten off the wire. Reverend Norman Wolf was to give a talk next Sunday evening before he started on his mission to Neptune. (Norman surprised all of us.) Donna also told me about an absent-minded professor who had lost his spectacles. I was surprised to learn it was my old friend Cloyce Lake. I visited Cloyce to see if he had recovered his glasses. He told me he had the greatest detective in the universe on the trail--Sherlock Emory Thornton, our old school chum.

After leaving Cloyce and his mysterious case of the missing spectacles, I noticed a sign on a large building near Superior and Main, "MARTHA'S BEAUTY SHOP"--Martha Steele, Proprietress. I guess Martha's doing a big business in the beauty field with her slogan, "Recondition your face at Martha's Place."

Before starting home, I stopped at Dr. Shirley Reynold's office and found that everyone was so healthy that she was going to change her profession.

Well, to really come down to earth on things, I think each one of the '53 graduates will succeed and make a good place in our world of tomorrow.

Earl Roberts

Class Will

We the Senior Class of 1953, being of sound mind and strong body do hereby will and bequeath the following:

To the Junior Class we bequeath the privilege of being Seniors in '54.

Edward Ballitch leaves his basketball ability to Lionel Wells.
Jack Bard leaves his short-cut to Mansfield to Bob Pittenger.
Jane Blackford leaves her basketball ability to Janet Russell. Start practing Janet!
Mabel Clagg leaves her cafeteria ability to Bill Reynolds.
Willard Clagg leaves his absent excuses to Arley Brooks.
Bev Dent leaves the reflection of her brown eyes to Dorothy Kilgore.
Lila Dininger leaves.....through the nearest exit.
Freda Frontz leaves her yelling at basketball games to Tex.
Donna Jacobs leaves her apples to Jean Hamman.
Mary Kilgore leaves her ability to read 500 words a minute in shorthand to anybody who can make the tongue go that fast.
Cloyce Lake leaves the front fender of his '37 Ford hanging on a telephone post in Jill's backyard.
Foster Leapley leaves his Plymouth to Joby.
Dorajane Malone leaves her devilishness to Sarah Hughes. That is if she thinks her friends can stand it like Janie's had to.
Helen McQuate leaves her temper to Mary Kessy.
Charles Miller leaves his working ability to Charles Clagg.
Wilma Million leaves her leg biting to Pat Blackford.
Robert Mitchell leaves his curly hair to Kermit Noble.
Richard Pennell leaves his Ford to anyone who can afford to run it.
Robert Raskestraw leaves his long blond hair to George Miller.
Shirley Reynolds leaves her ability to go through nurse's training to anyone that can stand the sight of blood.
Earl Roberts leaves his brain to Larry Rader.
Martha Steele leaves her American Government book to W.W.P.
Bob Sutter leaves his Ford to anyone with money enough to put oil in it.
Emory Thornton leaves his ability to sass Mrs. Kinsel to Terry Russell.
Shirley Wallace leaves her charleston to Mr. Moore.
Eugene White leaves his music ability to Glen Brook.
Norman Wolf leaves his baritone to anyone with money enough to buy it.
Sarah Cantrell leaves.....all the faculty scream with joy.

We do sign off this seventeenth day of May to enter the work of the world.

Seniors of '53

Class Poem

Robert Rakestraw will lead off for me
The startling class of '53.
He's tall and handsome as we all know;
And to college someday, he wants to go.
He has a butch, and that isn't all;
His favorite sport is basketball.

Donna Jacobs, a girl with a smile;
She's five-foot-five and always in style.
Our class reporter for many a year,
And when it comes to studies, she has nothing to fear.
She's very popular and has good taste;
Not a minute of time will you see her waste.

Norman Wolf is a farmer lad,
And for a friend, he's the best to be had.
His ambition in life: he isn't just sure;
But life on the farm right now is a lure.
Basketball is his favorite sport,
But he likes athletics of any sort.

Beverly Dent is now under the light;
She keeps herself busy from morning till night.
She is bright, cheerful, and full of fun,
And keeps the blues moving on the run.
To be a nurse is her aim in life,
But I think she will also be somebody's wife.

Eugene White, our very good pal,
Is on the look out for some lucky gal.
With his school books he sure is a whiz,
And his baritone's the best there is.
He seldom does worry, he moves in a hurry,
He's got a good mind, never gets in a fury.

Helen McQuate, she's smart, that's sure;
For every problem she has a cure.
She likes Ontario, I think I know why--
His name we all know, and he's kinda shy.
She likes to learn; her subjects vary.
Her ambition is to be a secretary.

Emory Thornton, tall and spry;
Different kinds of work he did make a try,
Until a painter he decided to be.
So if you want something painted, he's the guy to see.
A hard baseball he does like to throw,
And he can catch, as we all know.

Shirley Wallace, sweet and shy,
Just waiting for the right man to go by.
She goes through the day
And has little to say;
But when there's laughter in the air,
You can be sure she'll be there.

Richard Pennell, our pitching ace,
Seldom lets you get to a base.
Six foot tall and likes to hunt coon;
He hunts all night, right under the moon.
He has a Ford that seldom runs as it should;
For you see, he likes to work under the hood.

Jane Blackford is next in rhyme;
As an athletic instructor she will be fine.
In all sports she's one of the best,
And she never fails when put up to the test.
Attendant for our class this year,
The choice of the seniors she did appear.

Robert Sutter, polite and quiet,
When out with the crowd, he's quite a riot.
And when he's out of school he will travel afar
With his '41 Ford and hopped-up guitar.
Girls hardly faze him, I'll never know why--
We will hear more from Bob as the days go by.

Jack Bard is a likable guy;
Has a blue Ford which he trys to make fly.
Short and snappy; he's right up to date.
He sleeps all day, so he can stay out late.
When he plays basketball, he dumps them in,
Although he's short, he helps us win.

Foster Leapley is next in flight;
Hunting and fishing are his delight.
A Southpaw pitcher for our school team,
And one who is usually on the beam.
With him a girl sets off an alarm,
And someday he might settle with one on a farm.

Earl Roberts, short and trim,
Not too fat and not too slim.
Trouble is his pastime pleasure;
He cannot dodge it at any measure.
The kind of guy who is on the ball;
He does things right or not at all.

Sarah Cantrell, now she's the kind
Who never could make up her mind
Between George and Wallace and Kenneth and Bill--
And it looks as if she never will.
She likes a good joke, and takes it in stride,
In our school she shows much pride.

Martha Steele, now she's the shy type;
You won't catch her dreaming in broad day light.
I think she plans to be a secretary,
And then someday she will probably marry.
She's gentle and kind and always in line.
She has docile ways and gets along fine.

Mary Kilgore is next in line;
Study comprises much of her time.
She's smart, ambitious, and pretty too--
To be a secretary is what she wants to do.
She is a girl who is never through,
Until she gets done what she started to do.

Shirley Reynolds, a nurse to be,
One whom the guys will be glad to see.
She likes to study, so it appears,
And she's ready for a test whenever it nears.
The treasurer of our class is she,
The money she handles with honesty.

Cloyce Lake is next and has he got charm!
He always has a girl on his arm.
Tall and lanky, likes athletics too,
The type of a guy who will find something to do.
He goes to school to work and play,
And has his fun all through the day.

Mabel Clagg is friendly to all.
You'll never see her loitering in the hall.
She studies hard and reads many books,
And she also likes to help the cooks.
She's very quiet and listens real good
To the teacher who's talking, just as she should.

Charles Miller is a friend to all;
Not too short and not too tall.
He's not very bashful,
And talks all the time;
Just listen to him and he'll give you a line.
And anything he thinks of will do just fine.

Robert Mitchell, stout and strong;
He never tries to do things wrong.
Boxing and wrestling are his favorite sports,
And he's good at them, from all reports.
He takes life in its easy stride,
And never a challenge has he defied.

Willard Clagg is a well-behaved lad.
A quieter boy we've never had.
Reading is his pastime pleasure,
And he enjoys it to its fullest measure.
He always has a book in his arm,
And we all know he lives on a farm.

Wilma Million, shy, and pretty, too--
That's why she was queen of '52.
She seldom gets time to sit and relax;
She has many talents, and one is a Sax.
She doesn't worry, troubles do not effect her;
She will go to college to be a music director.

Lila Dininger, quaint and coy,
Always on the lookout for a real nice boy.
She gets things done, when she makes up her mind.
This kind of girl is hard to find.
School gives her no trouble, her grades are all high;
She will have all the answers when she finds her guy.

Freda Frontz, now she has a way
Of keeping things rolling and making them gay.
She's the curious type, and likes to explore,
And she's also employed at a Shelby drug store.
She's very ambitious, as I've already said—
We all know that Freda will finish ahead.

Dorajane Malone is a girl who will try
To be a good housewife by and by.
Her man leads the Army life, and when he gets back
Their plans will start moving right down the track.
We know Dorajane will be a sensation,
'Cause Janie and Dave are a good combination.

Edward Ballitch, the last of '53,
To be successful he'll try to be.
He's not very tall and rather shy,
But he'll get over it by and by.
When out of school he will follow the rest
Over this nation to keep it the best.

Faculty

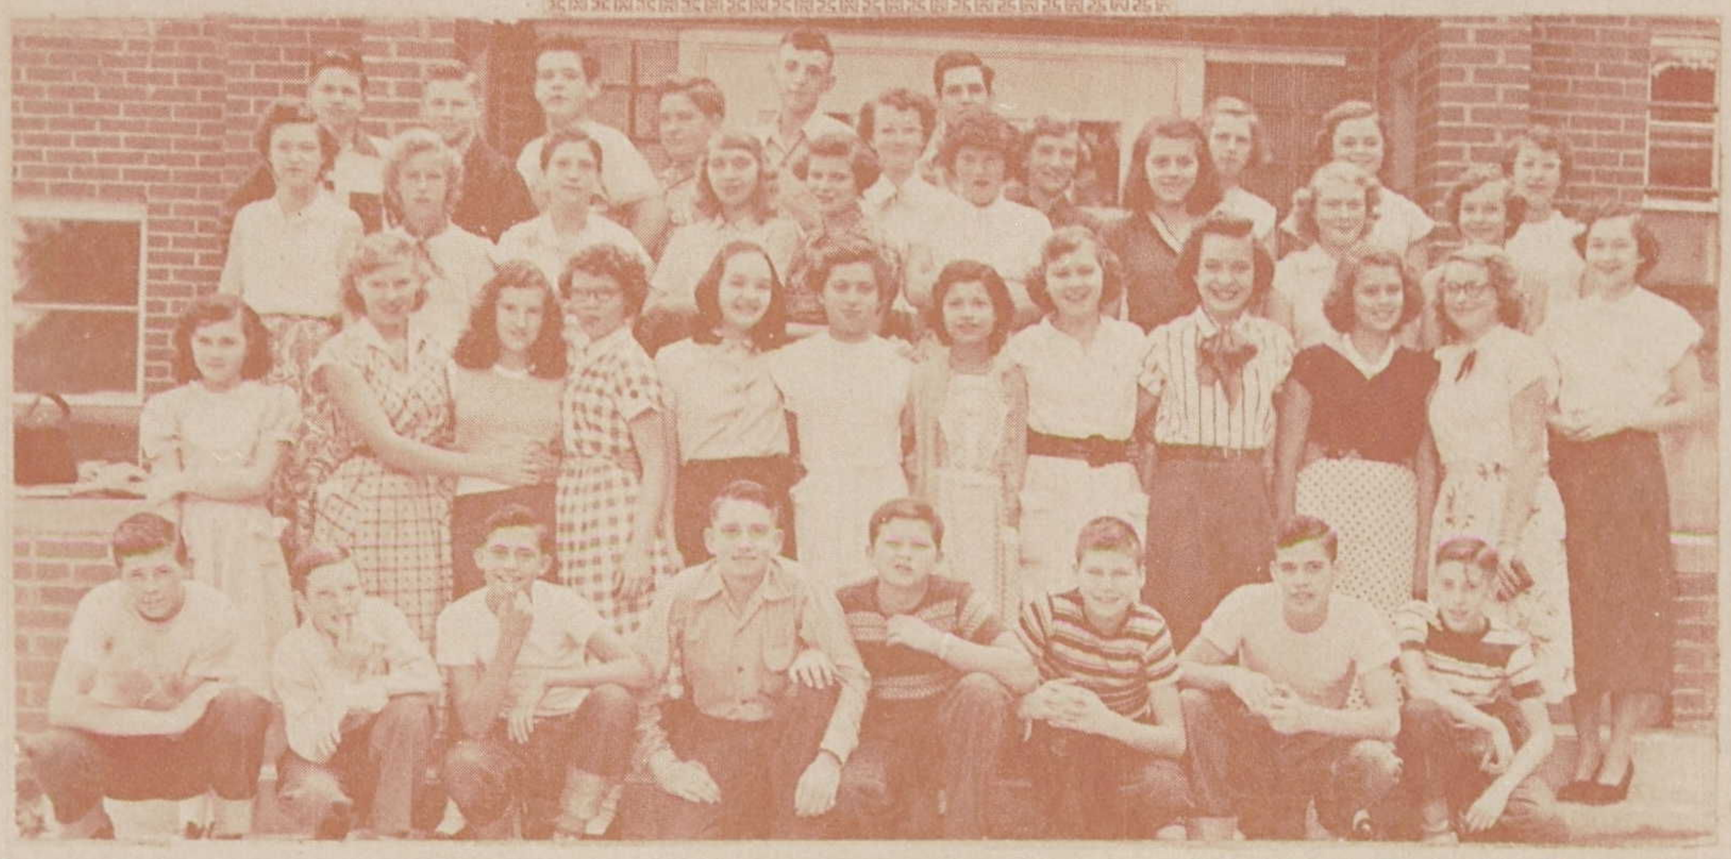

Eleven Religious Education classes were taught each week with 330 students enrolled. Through more knowledge of God it is hoped that the children will not only be more conscious of God but will realize a real need for a personal relationship with Him. We trust the instruction has developed a real appitite for God's work.

We, the Senior Class, wish to thank our play director, Mrs. Ava Arnold, who has helped us in many ways to make our plays a success.

Boys' and Girls' State

Edward Balitch, Wilma Million, Bob Rakestraw

Buckeye Girls' State was held June 21-29, 1952 on the campus of Capital University. Five hundred girls assembled there, each having been sent by their local American Legion Auxiliary.

We were assigned a city, a county, and a party (nationalists and federalists). In these organizations and the state we ran for offices and had our vote.

The government of the Girls' State was run on the regular two party system; thus we learned the actual procedures of our Ohio Government.

Besides learning and practicing government, we had an orchestra, choral group, talent night, city party, a tour to governmental points of interest in Columbus, and a tea at the Governor's mansion.

Girls' State is a wonderful experience and I am truly thankful for my oppoutunity to share it.

Buckeye Boys' State was not held this year because Camp Perry on Lake Erie, the usual site of Boys' State,was washed out by a flood of the Lake.

SECOND ROW: K. Williams, J. Russell, J. Wolford, M. Dent.
B. Dent is absent from the picture.

Those participating at the Methodist Church were Jean Hamman, Janice Wolford, Janet Russell, and Patricia Million.

We went to practice weekly. The week before we delivered our speeches we went daily. We had a fine time and a great experience under the guidance of Reverend Smith.

On the night of the big event Jean was the winner and Janice was second. Jean placed second in the county contest.

In the Lutheran Contest there were five entrants: Beverly Dent, Mary Ellen Kaylor, Karen Williams, Mary Kilgore, and Marylyn Dent.

Reverend Lubold worked with us once a week. Then on December 9, 1952, the local contest was held at the church. Bev won first and Mary placed second.

Bev won the County Contest at Mansfield and the District Contest at Wooster. At the semi-finals at Columbus she failed to place. I am sure we are all proud of her for her accomplishments.

BAND

First Row: D. Moore, H. McQuate, M. Butner, M. Butner, M. Kaylow, E. Rhinehart, P. Gutherie, J. Heyde, G. Miller, B. Reynolds, J. Banks, T. Kranz, C. Hunter, J. Russell, M. Daup, J. Hawthorne.

The Shiloh High School forty-three piece band has had a big year in 52-53. In the fall they were privileged to march in three parades and a football game.

Around Thanksgiving the band gave a "Pop Concert" in the High School Auditorium. They played light novelty numbers which delighted the audience.

Since the whole band was too large to play at the basketball games, a pep band was organized from the brass section. Their playing lent "snap" to the home games.

Future activities of the band will be: the Band Mother's Variety Show; the whole band entering a contest March 14; and members of the band in the solo and ensemble contest March 21; marching at Shiloh on Decoration Day; and a Spring Concert.

The Girl's Glee Club sang at the Women's Club Federation meeting at Shiloh, and both the Glee Club and Mixed Chorus gave a Christmas Concert. It was a very colorful program enjoyed by all. February 7, 1953, representatives from the Mixed Chorus sang in a State-wide representative group at Delaware. The Choruses will participate in the County Music Festival in the spring and the annual Easter Services.

Team Dope Sheet

Bob Rakestraw, 5'11", Senior forward. He is a two-letter player and likes his hook shot around the key-hole. He made all-county second team in league and tournament play. He was captain of our team and an all around good player.

Earl "Buster" Roberts, 5'6", Senior guard. He is a two-letter man who was out of action the first semester because of conditions beyond our control. He is dead on one hand shot and knows how to handle the ball.

Cloyce Lake, 5'11", Senior center. He is also a two-letter man and a good help in controlling the backboards. His favorite shot is the corner set shot, which accounted for most of his points.

Charlie Miller, 5'10", Senior forward. He is another two-letter man who likes to drive in for his shot. He is a good offensive and defensive player. His team work was valuable for the games.

Jack Bard, 5'5", Senior guard. He is a one-letter man. He has a jump shot from the side and is also a good ball handler. Jack was a big help in the 52-53 outing.

Larry Rader, 5'11", Junior guard. He is a one-letter player. He likes his one handed set shot and is equally dead on his one hand jump shot.

Fred Rader, 5'9", Sophomore guard. Fred had a good season with his smooth faking jump shot and will be a big factor in the Shiloh basketball future.

Charlie "Joby" Hughes, 6'1", Sophomore forward. He is a good team player. He likes the jump shot in the key-hole which accounted for most of his points. He will be a valuable player to the team in the next two years to come.

George Miller and Kermit Noble did not play much varsity ball this year, but they will help out in the future.

C O A C H D A U P

We are very proud of our new coach, Mr. Harold Daup, who worked hard to make our team a success in the 52-53 outing. Good going, coach!

JOKES

TRUTH

The editors may dig and toil
Till their finger tips are sore,
But some poor fish is sure to say,
"Seems I've heard that joke before."

We read that for every dollar
Spent on books twenty-seven
Dollars are spent on chewing Gum. No doubt, but you must
Remember that you can borrow
Books.

College bred is made of the flower of youth and dad's dough.

Bob M: "My cow died yesterday of bangs disease."
Mr. Seymour: "Too bad. Was she very sick?"
Bob: "No, she felt fine until some hunter shot her."

Mrs. Huston: "This outline will do half of your work for you!"
Buster: "That's fine; make me two."

Bev: "There's something dove-like about that child."
Bob: "Sure, he's pigeontoed."

Mr. Jacobs: "You can't marry her without permission."
Dick: "Why not?"
Mr. J: "Because she's a minor."
Dick: "You mean I've got to ask John L. Lewis?"

Peggy: "I'll bet you $50 that I'll never marry you."
Lester: "I'll take you."
Peggy: "Will you really? Then I won't bet after all!"

Mrs. Kinsel: (Right after she was married) "You musn't expect me to give up my girlhood ways all at once."
Casey: "That's all right, honey. You go right on taking an allowance from your father."

Freda: "Who gave the bride away?"
Dorajane: "Her little nephew. He stood right up during the ceremony and shouted, 'Hurrah, Lila, you've got him at last.'"

Mr. Pittenger: "Why does a man's hair turn gray quicker than his mustache?"
Jack Bard: "'Cause it had a twenty year start."

Rosemary: "I spent $1,500 to learn to sing."
Jim: "You must meet my brother."
Rosemary: "Is he a critic?"
Jim: "No, he is a lawyer. He'll help you get your money back."

Generally it's best to begin at the bottom, except when learning to swim or digging a well.

Ain't We Cute?
