FOREWORD

Just as a light shines in darkness, students at Plymouth High School grow to "shine" also, through academic achievements, social consciousness, and physical competency.

We have grown through the work, the play, the laughter, the tears, the failures and the triumphs we have experienced here at P.H.S. Each phase of our school life in the past year has given us something special to remember.

The formation of a National Honor Society highlighted the academic portion of our year; the Student Council's Computer Dance added a new dimension to our social lives; and the Big Red basketball team made history by winning the first Johnny Appleseed Conference Championship Plymouth High School has ever won. All these and many other highpoints of the school year have made our lives at P.H.S. full and rich. Most important, they have helped us in our growth toward the future.

The presentation of "My Fair Lady," the J.A.C. basketball championship, participation in Big Red athletics, and the junior-senior prom all resulted in triumphs for the students at P. H. S.

Activities Never

Cease at P.H.S.

A banquet to honor the J.A.C. champs; Majorettes lead the Noise Parade; Excitement mounts in tournament; The weary Havamal staff takes a break.

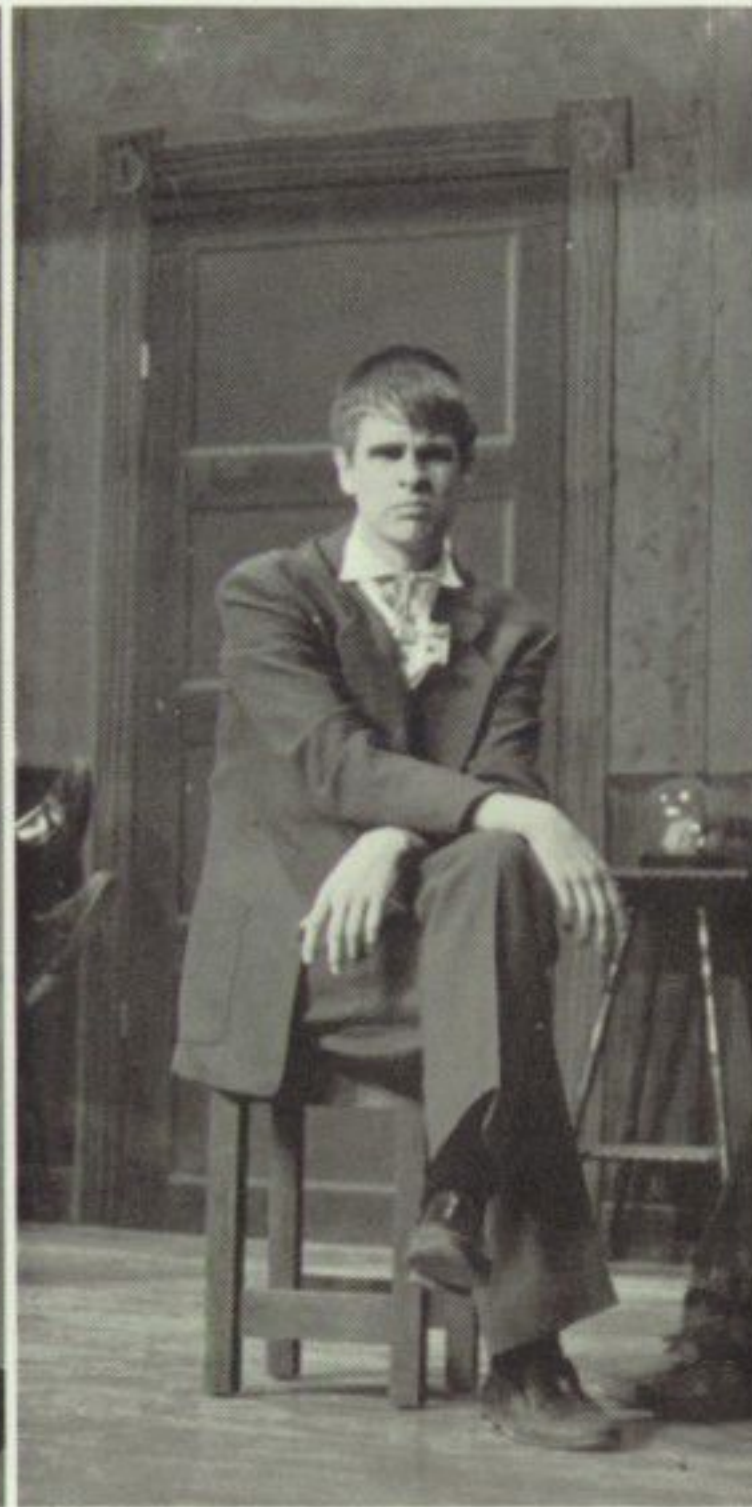

"Jolly Jon" Daup, "Mighty Mark" Ream, and "Tiny Tim" Rook serenade the student body; Graduation Day--our journey's end; The "Senior Citizens" formed their own Big Red cheering section.

SENIORS

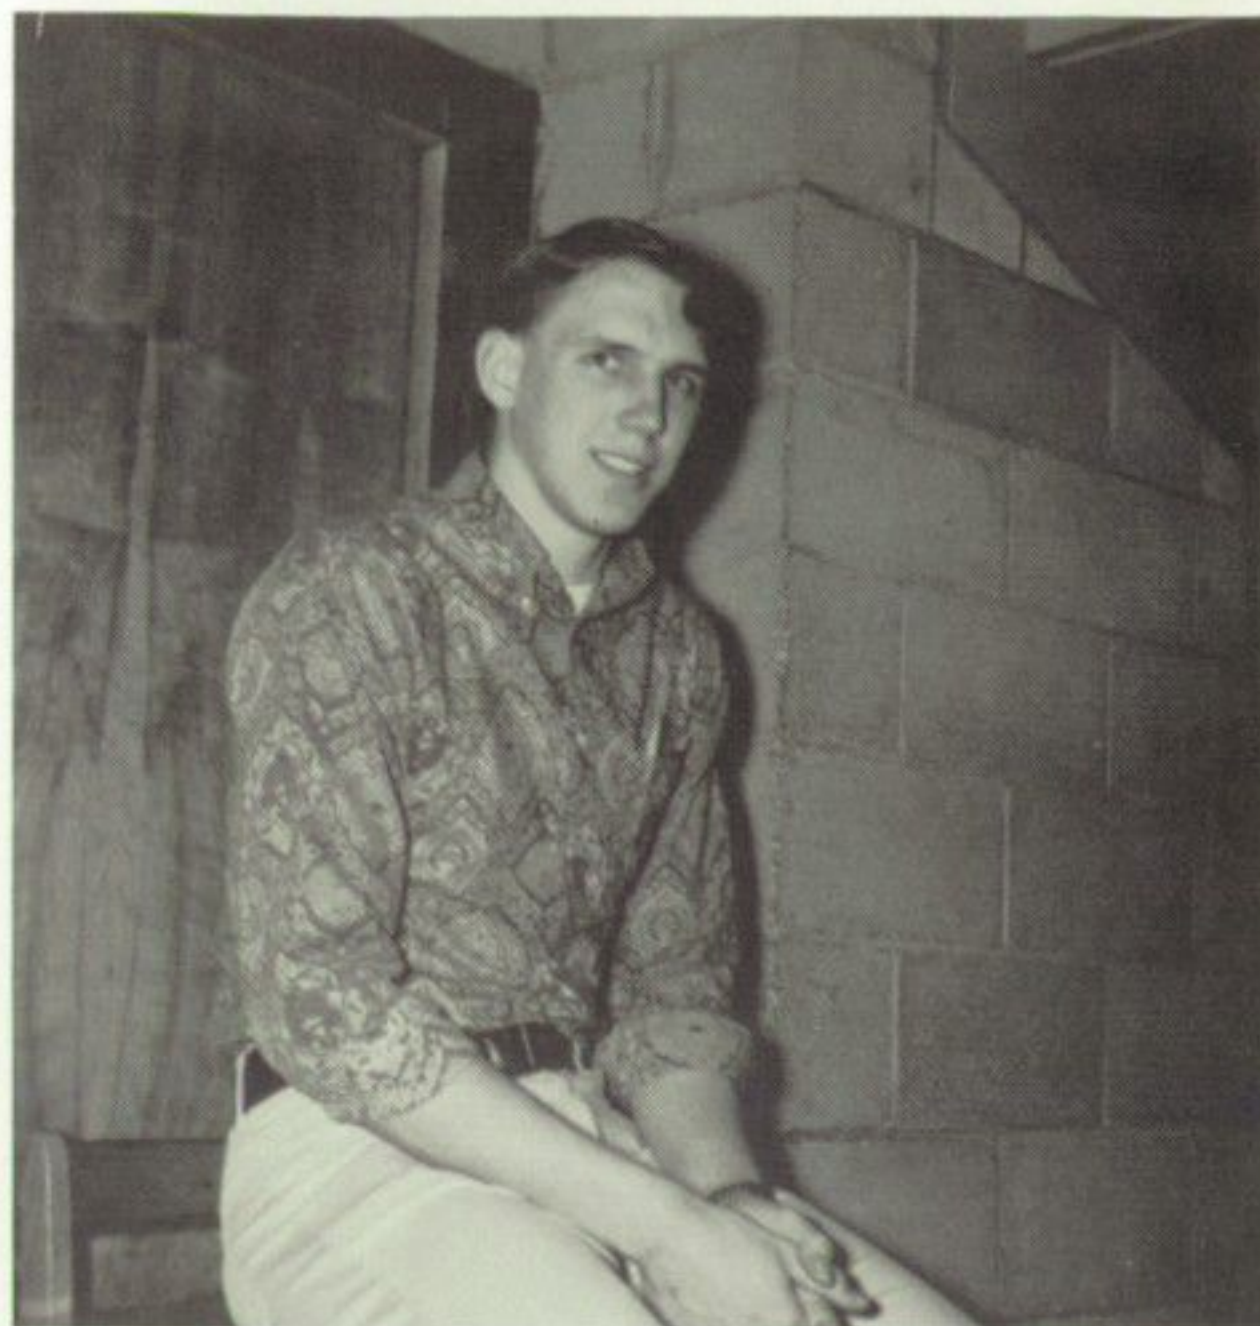

"The truth exists for those who seek it."

As seniors, our search for the truth has only begun. It will lead us to new lives in college, jobs, and the armed forces. The experiences we have known here at P.H.S. have aided in preparing us to face these new lives and the challenges they will bring. Are we ready to meet them?

Vice-President--Gene Kok

Officers Direct Class of '68

Treasurer--Nikki Gira

The Senior class of 1968 took its final step toward graduation with great preparation. The presiding officers (elected in the spring of 1967), with the aid of the class advisors, helped to direct in final decisions. The Seniors chose white and dartmouth green as their class colors, and, correspondingly, the white carnation tipped in green for their flower. The Senior dance, Homecoming, Senior party, Junior-Senior prom, and most of all, the class motto and graduation exercises will long be remembered from the 1967-1968 school year for the Seniors.

Class Advisors--Mrs. Brown, Mr. Migge, Mrs. Strine.

Secretary--Barb Wagner.

Historian--Jerelyn Ebersole

In December, the Senior personality poll was taken. Each Senior selected a boy and a girl that has proved outstanding in each specified category. The final votes were counted and the winners announced.

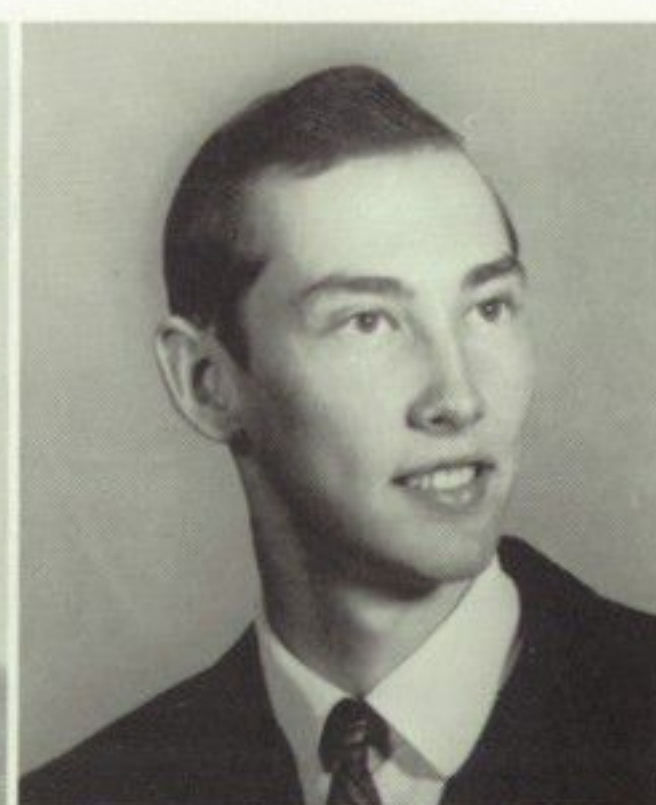

Susie Root and Gene Kok, selected as best all around Seniors, chat between classes.

On the evening of June 5, 1968, the Seniors of the Class of 1968 gathered in Mary Fate Park for Commencement exercises. Alumni, friends, and relatives were present to witness the finale of this class's high school career. The warmth of the night was added to by warmth created by tears, unsure feelings, but also smiles. The recessional was the final act as a group as they walked to receive their friends, the world, and their future yet to come.

FACULTY AND

ADMINISTRATION

Our academic, physical, and social growth was greatly aided this year through the tireless efforts of our faculty and administration. Whether we were performing a classroom experiment, playing on the athletic field, or participating in a class project, our teachers, coaches, and advisors were always there to give us the instruction, criticism, help, and encouragement we needed in order to succeed.

Because of these countless hours of extra time and the patient help so willingly given, our teachers and administrators have enabled our educations to continue far beyond the regular hours of the school day.

The active and efficient school board is the backbone of the school system. They meet to discuss issues and to act upon reports and recommendations. They see to the needs and the problems of PHS, and act accordingly to promote her well-planned growth.

Tact and diplomacy, are personal traits found in Superintendent John Fazzini. Besides co-ordinating the work of the faculty, he works with various committees to further understanding within our community.

Mr. Fazzini

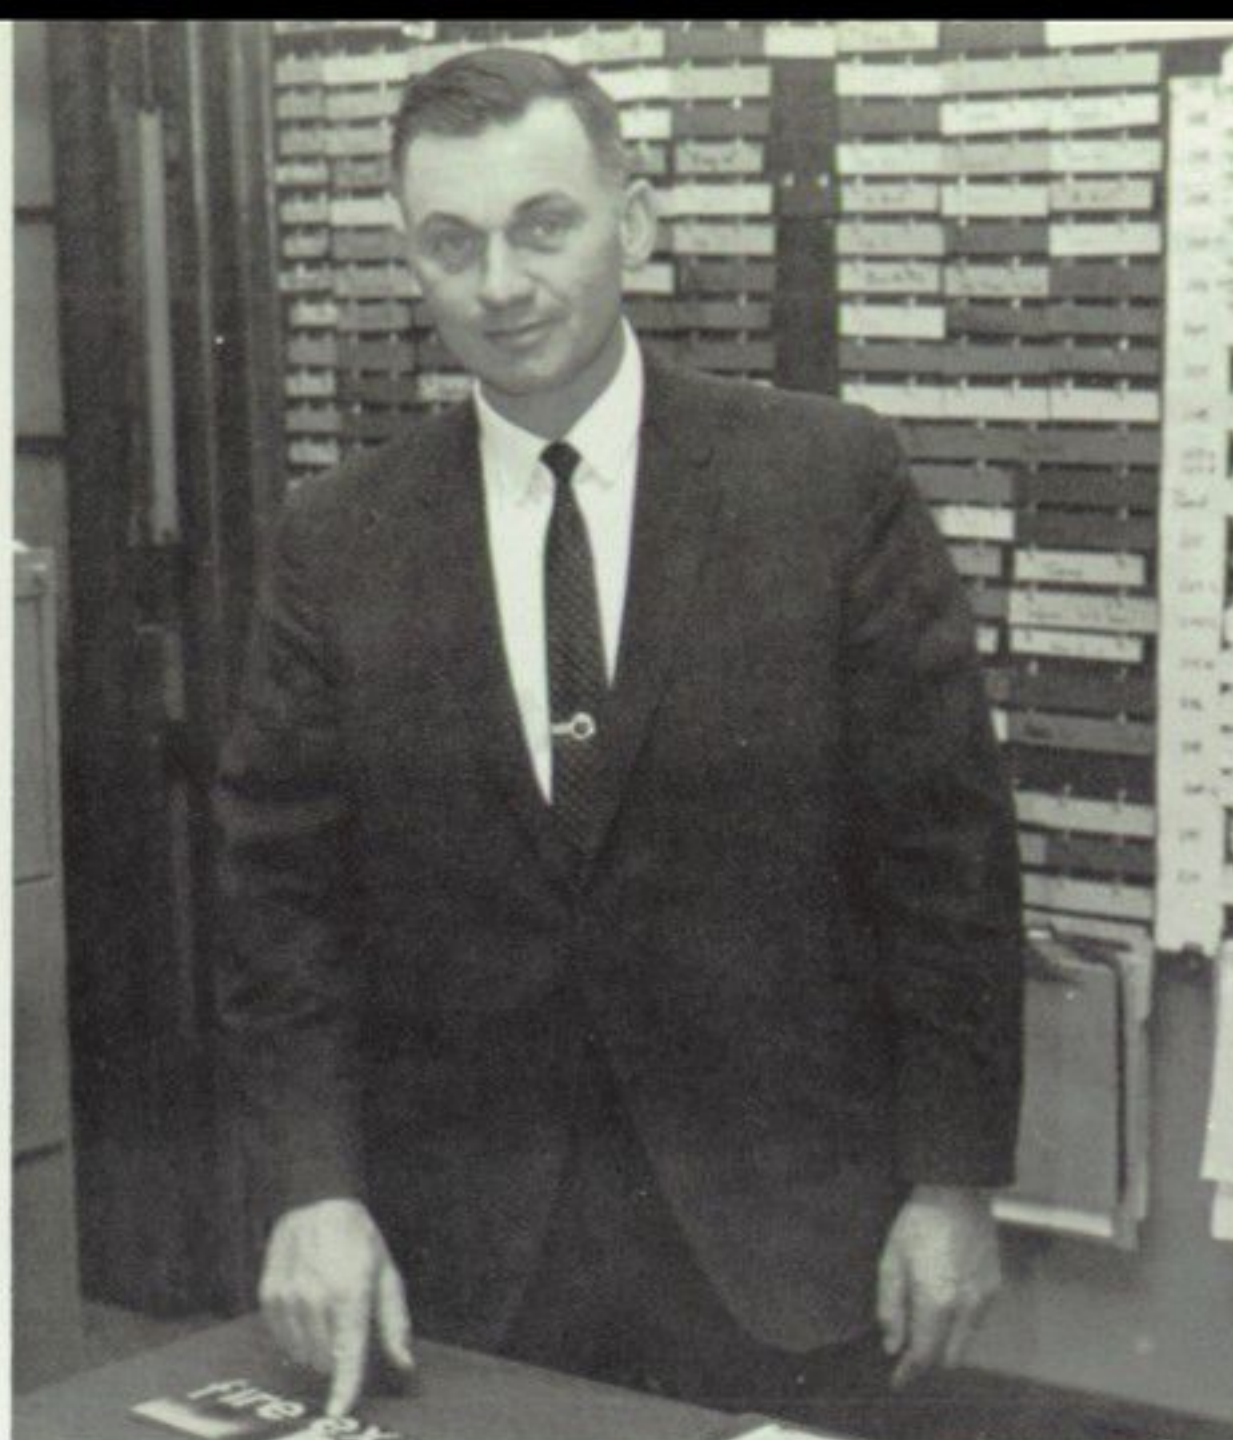

School Board, Administrators

L. to R. Mr. Richard Fackler, Mrs. Norma Myers, Mrs. Jane Spiger, Mr. John Swartz, Mr. William Rook, Mr. Thomas Root.

As principal, Mr. Edward Kinsel must cope with daily problems of students and teachers.

He is responsible for discipline and organization within the high school, and the scheduling of the students and their classes. Besides being principal he is also the Transportation Supervisor for the School District.

Mr. Kinsel

Keep School Running

Secretarial duties to Mr. Fazzini are held by Mrs. Jean Rish. Her many duties make her job an important one.

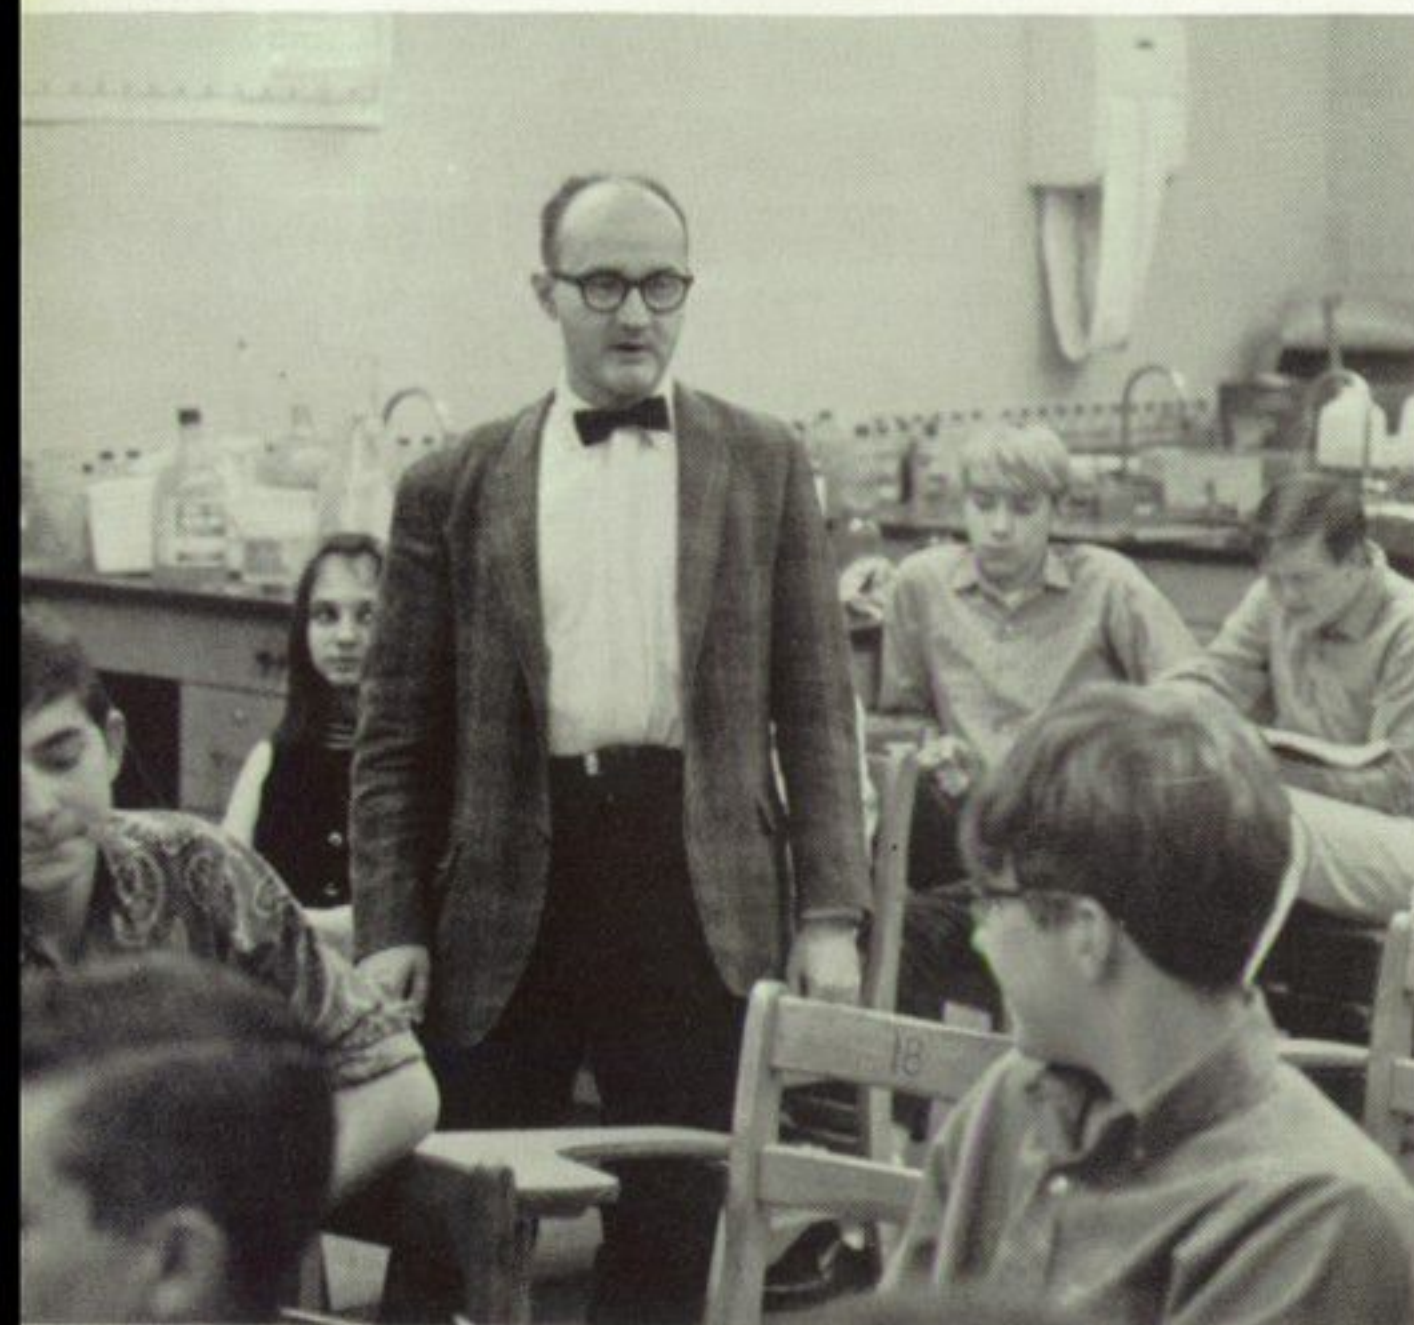

Mrs. Rish

As Mr. Kinsel's Secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Williamson has a very busy day. Besides her regular duties of filing and typing, she takes care of the many little things that arise from the faculty and the students.

Mrs. Williamson

Mr. Jerry Bishop is in charge of the Science Dept. at PHS. He teaches General Science, Chemistry, and Physics.

Mr. Bishop

Students Learn Fundamentals

Miss Fitch

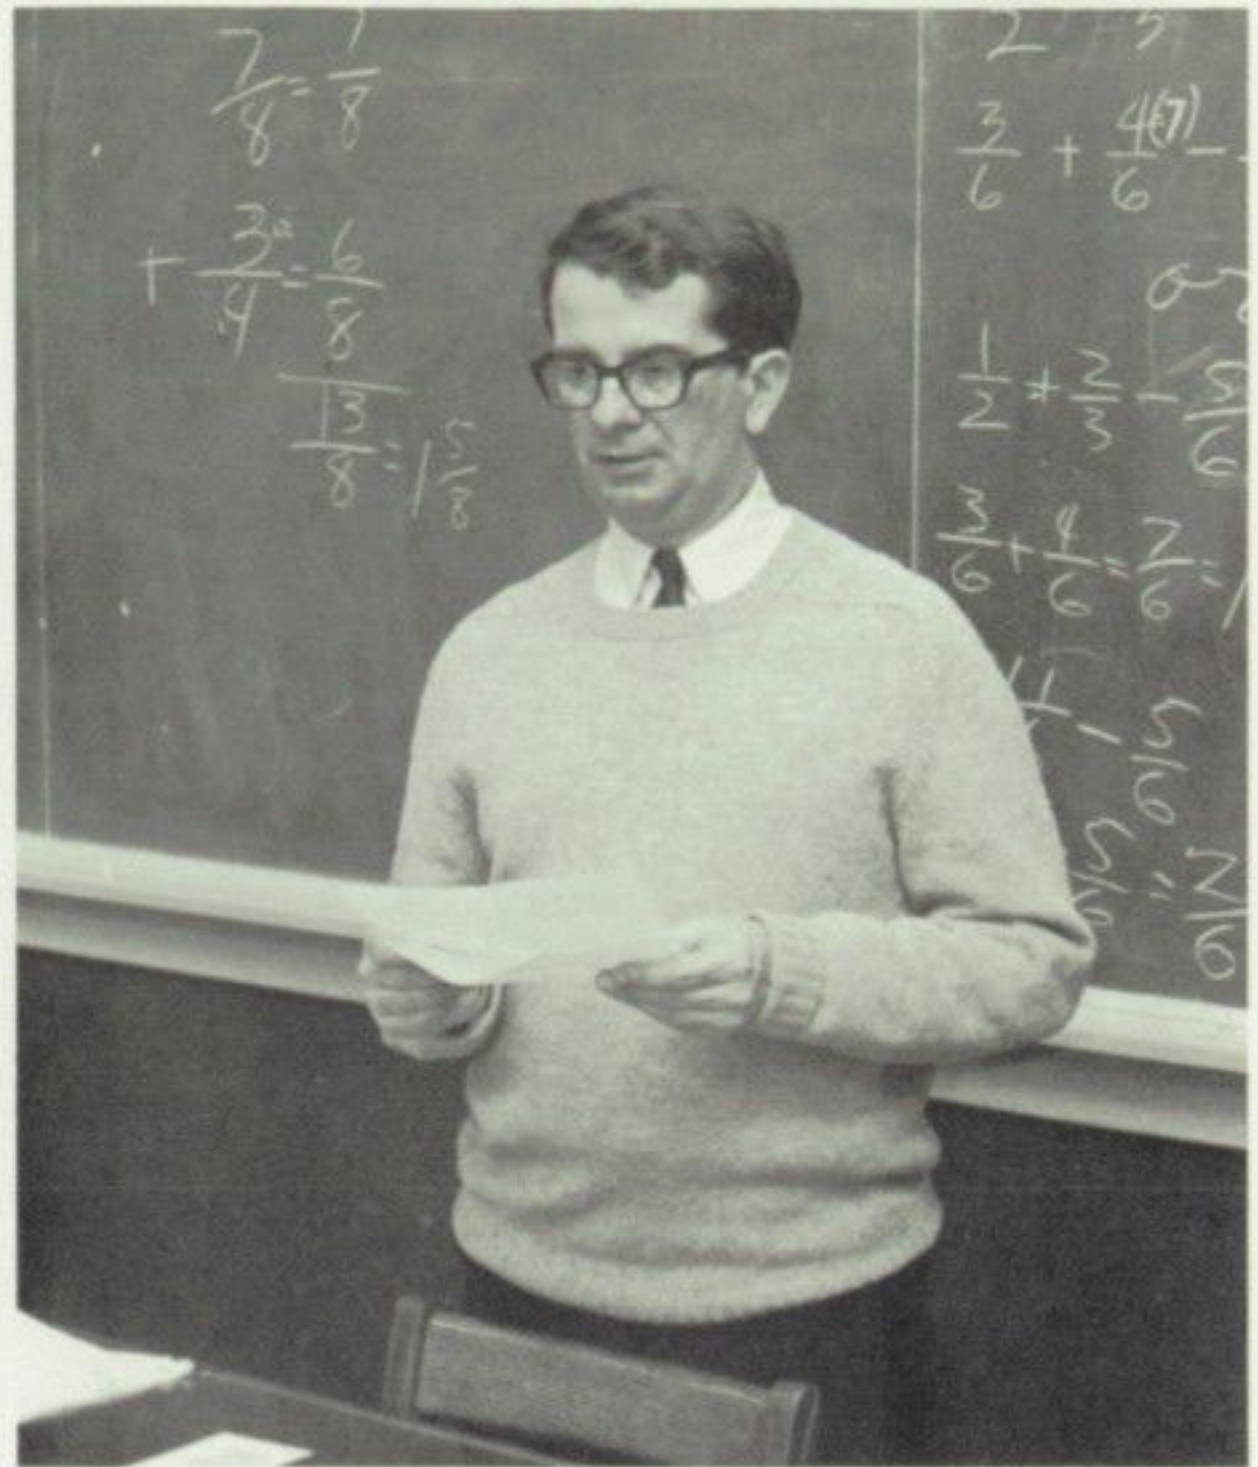

Students learn basic concepts of Algebra I and II, Plane Geometry, and Trig. and Calculus from the Math teacher, Miss Betty Fitch.

Mr. John Hughes, who teaches Sociology, has many interesting discussions in his classes. He also teaches English 9 and Economics.

Mr. Hughes

English Plays Important Part of PHS

Miss Easterday

Miss Estella Easterday has contributed much to PHS. She began the Art classes and now has a full schedule of Art other than one class of Senior English.

Mrs. Smith

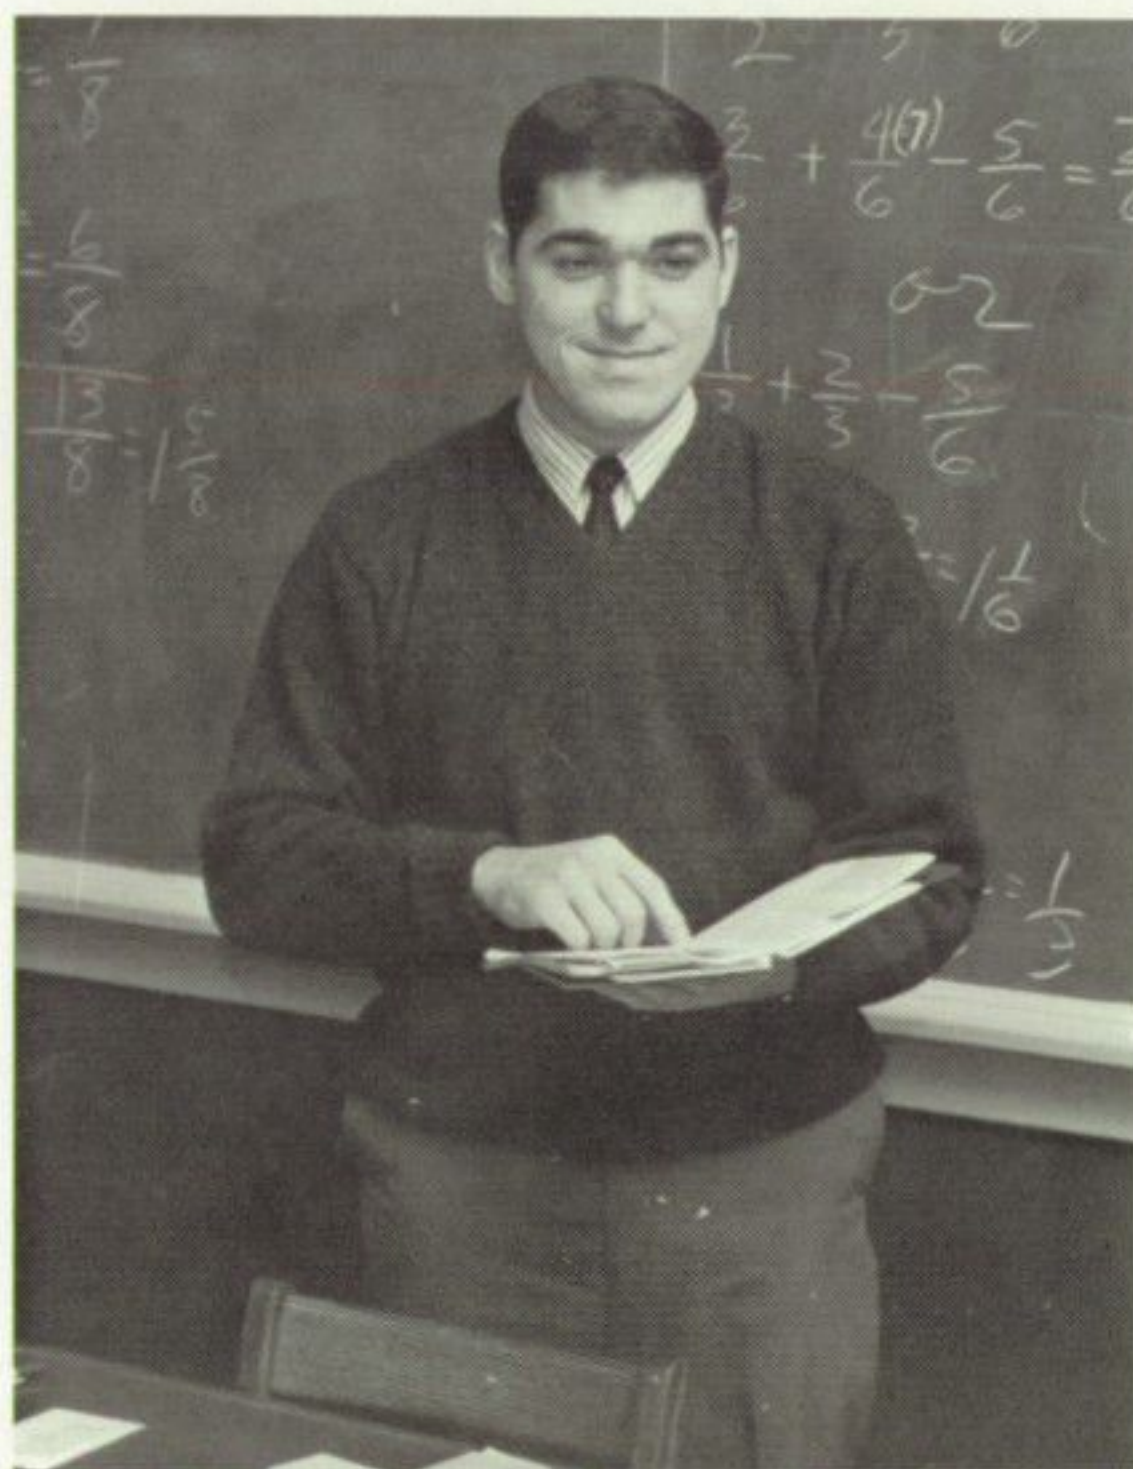

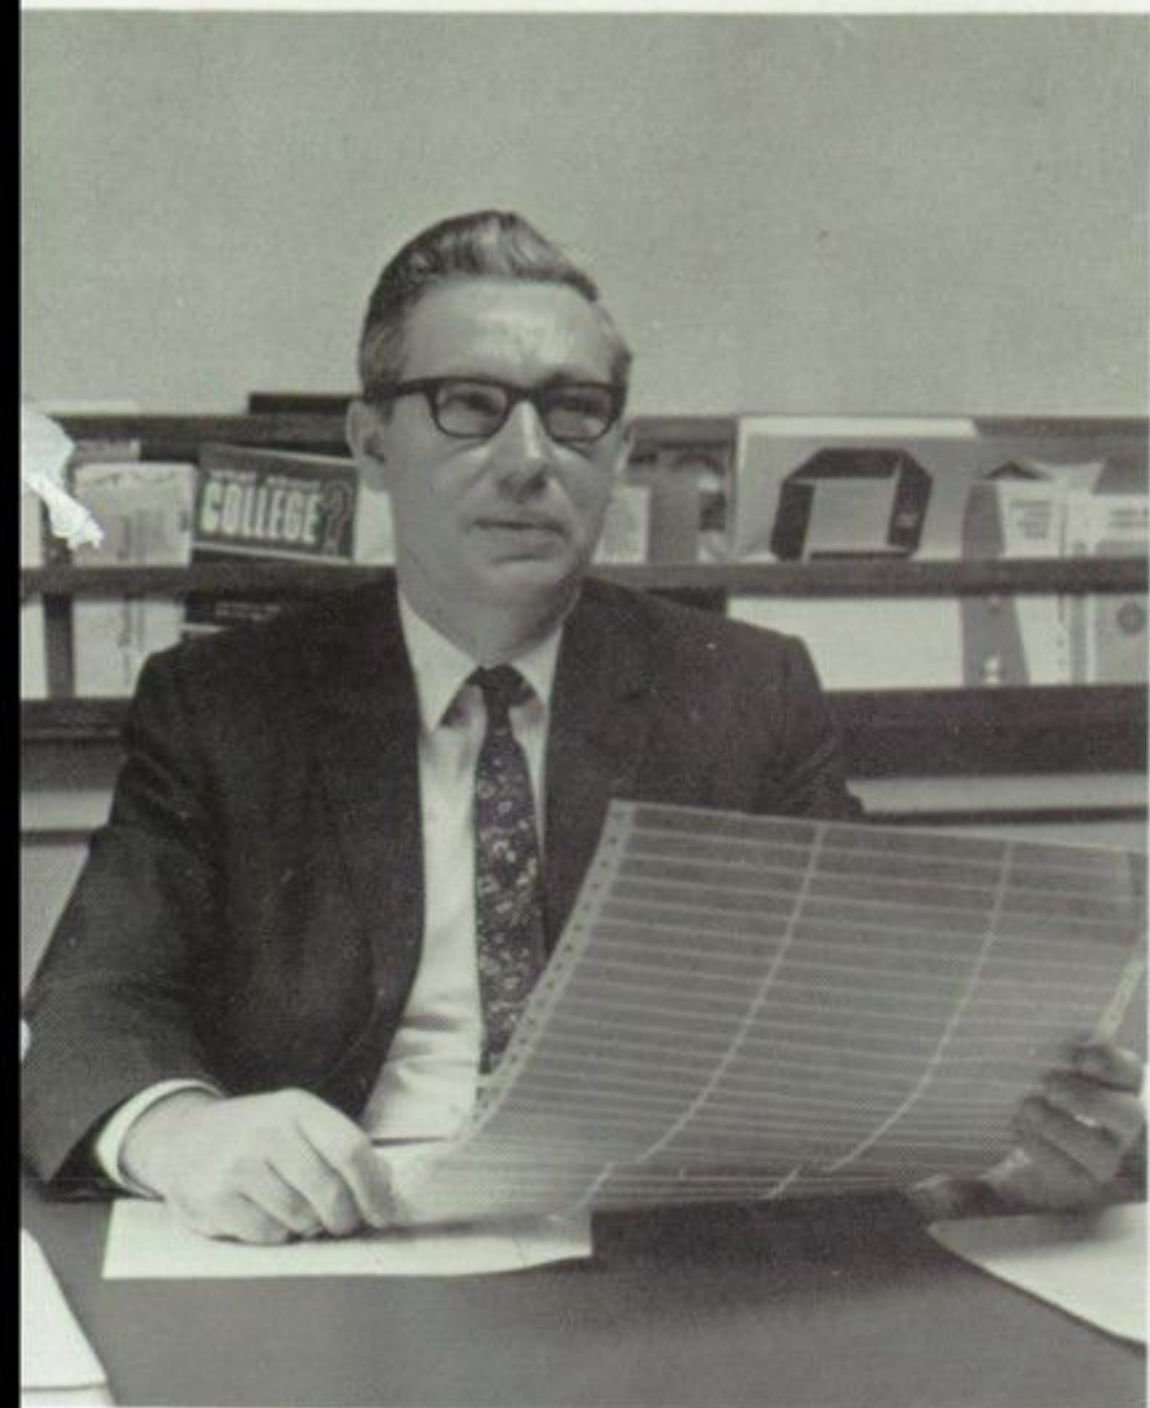

Mrs. Marjorie Smith instructs pupils in office procedures. She teaches Typing, Shorthand I and II, and Office Practice.

Preparing for the Business World

Mr. Migge

Students learn how to manage the financial part of business through Mr. Tom Migge's classes of General Math, Bookkeeping, Business Arithmetic, and Senior Business Arithmetic.

Mr. Smith

Mr. Paul Smith, the Guidance Counselor, helped the underclassmen plan their schedules for the upcoming year and the seniors with their future plans.

Extra Services Offered at P.H.S.

Mrs. Strine

Mrs. Agatha Strine has been the P.H.S. librarian for two years. The students enjoyed the varied selection of paperbacks from the bookstore operated by the librarians.

Mr. Risner

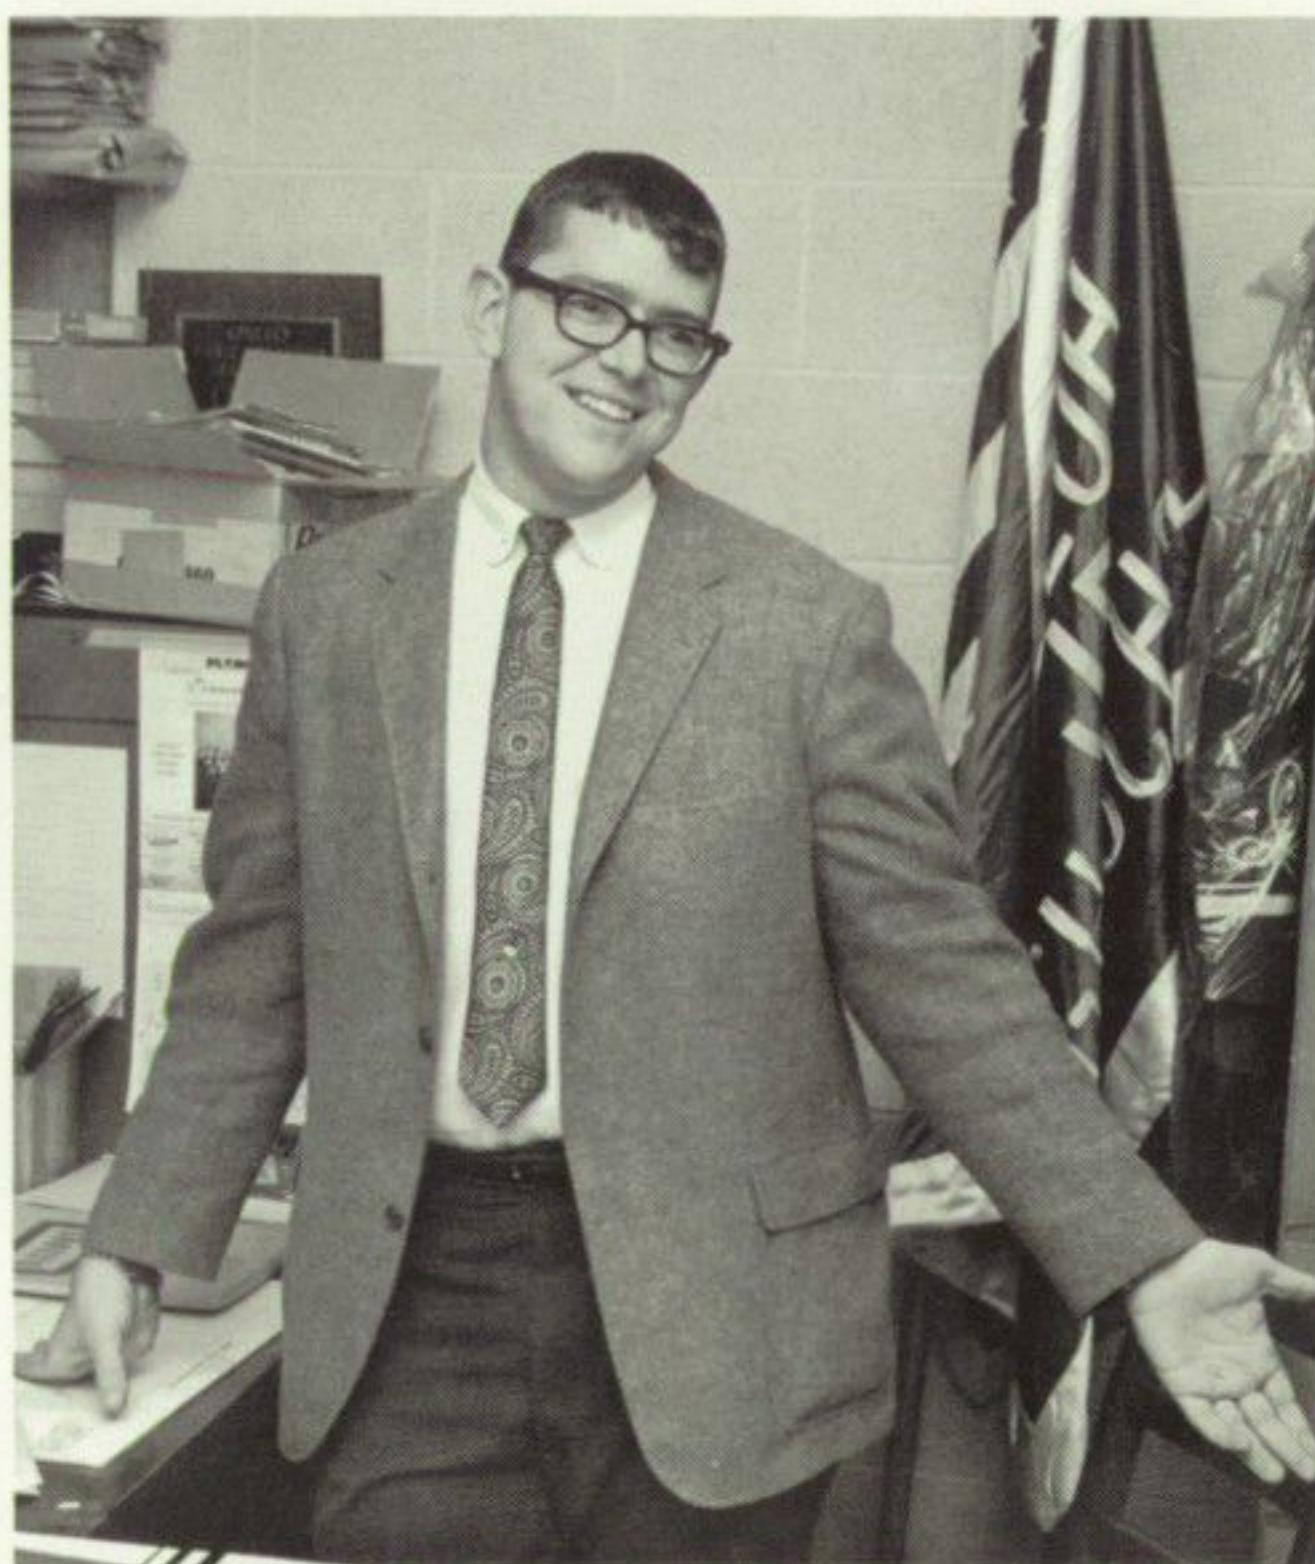

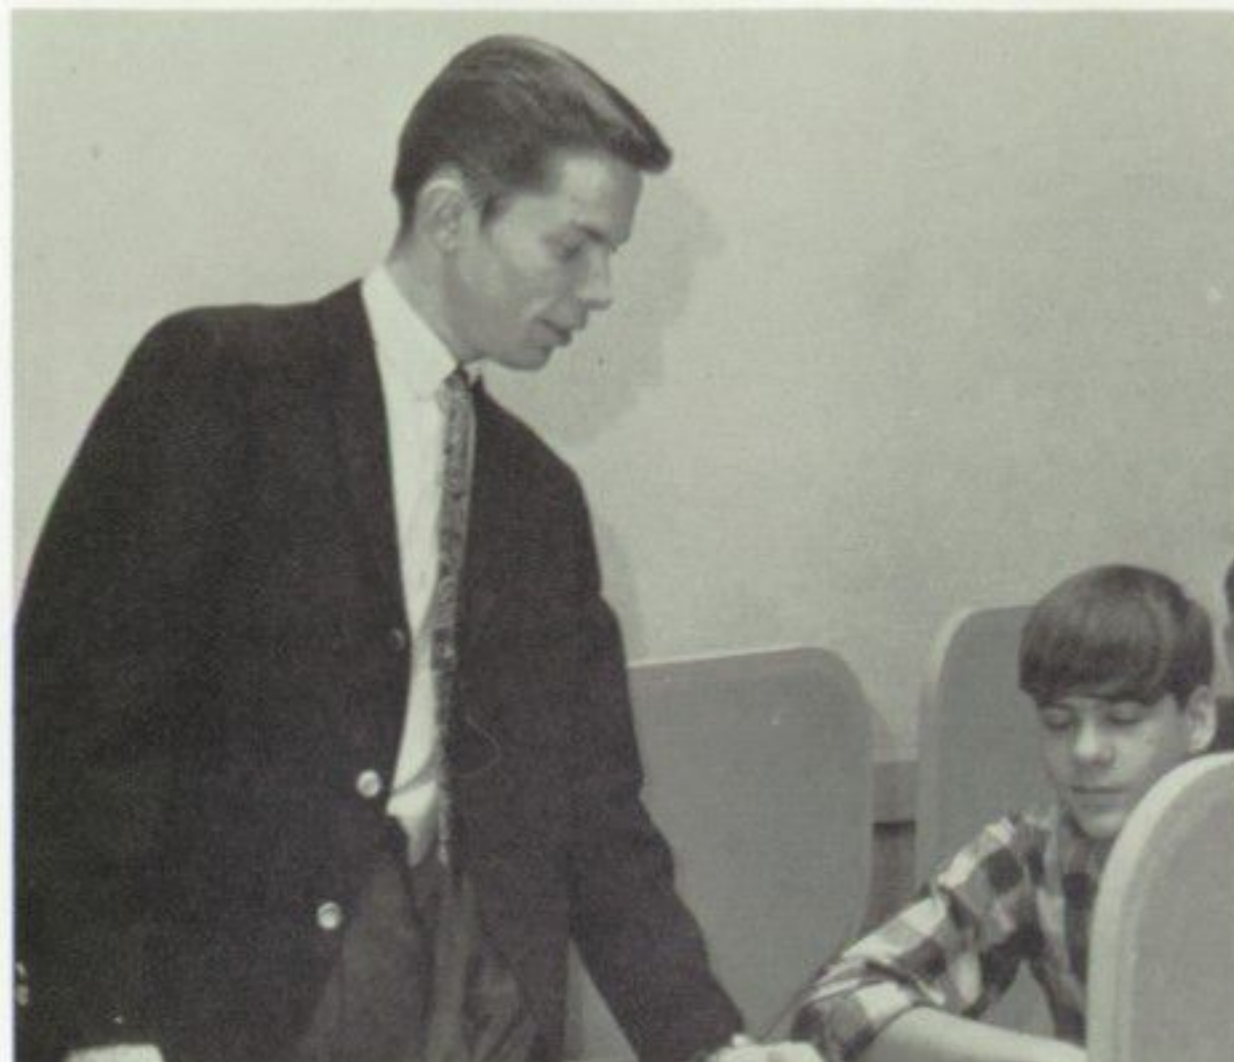

Mr. Jeffrey Risner directs the entertaining Broadway musicals, and instructs the High School choir, and teaches speech.

Musical Activities Enlighten PHS

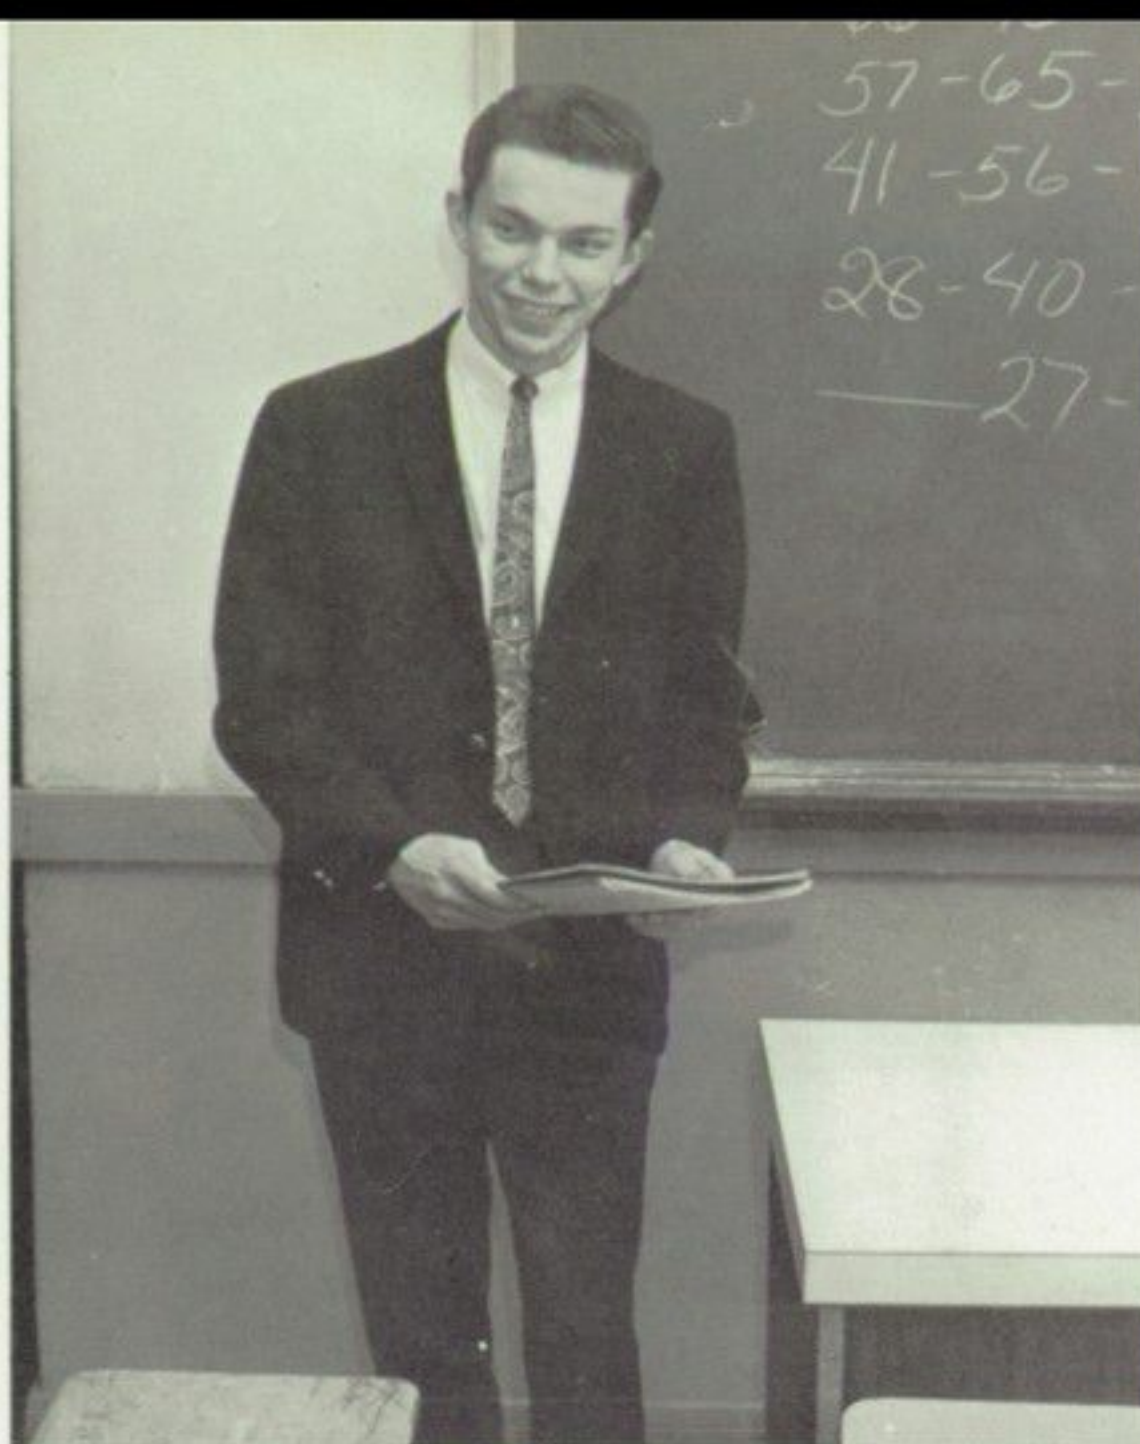

Mr. Mock

Mr. Warren Mock conducts the Plymouth High School Marching and Concert band. He is also advisor for the school newspaper, the Viking Lore.

This is Mr. John Fogt's first year at P.H.S. He has a complete schedule teaching German I,II, and III and Spanish I and II.

Mr. Fogt

Students Learn Foreign Languages

Mrs. Eleanor Brown teaches English 10 the second semester.

Mr. Charles Dalieri taught English 10 and Spanish I and II the first semester.

History and Government at PHS

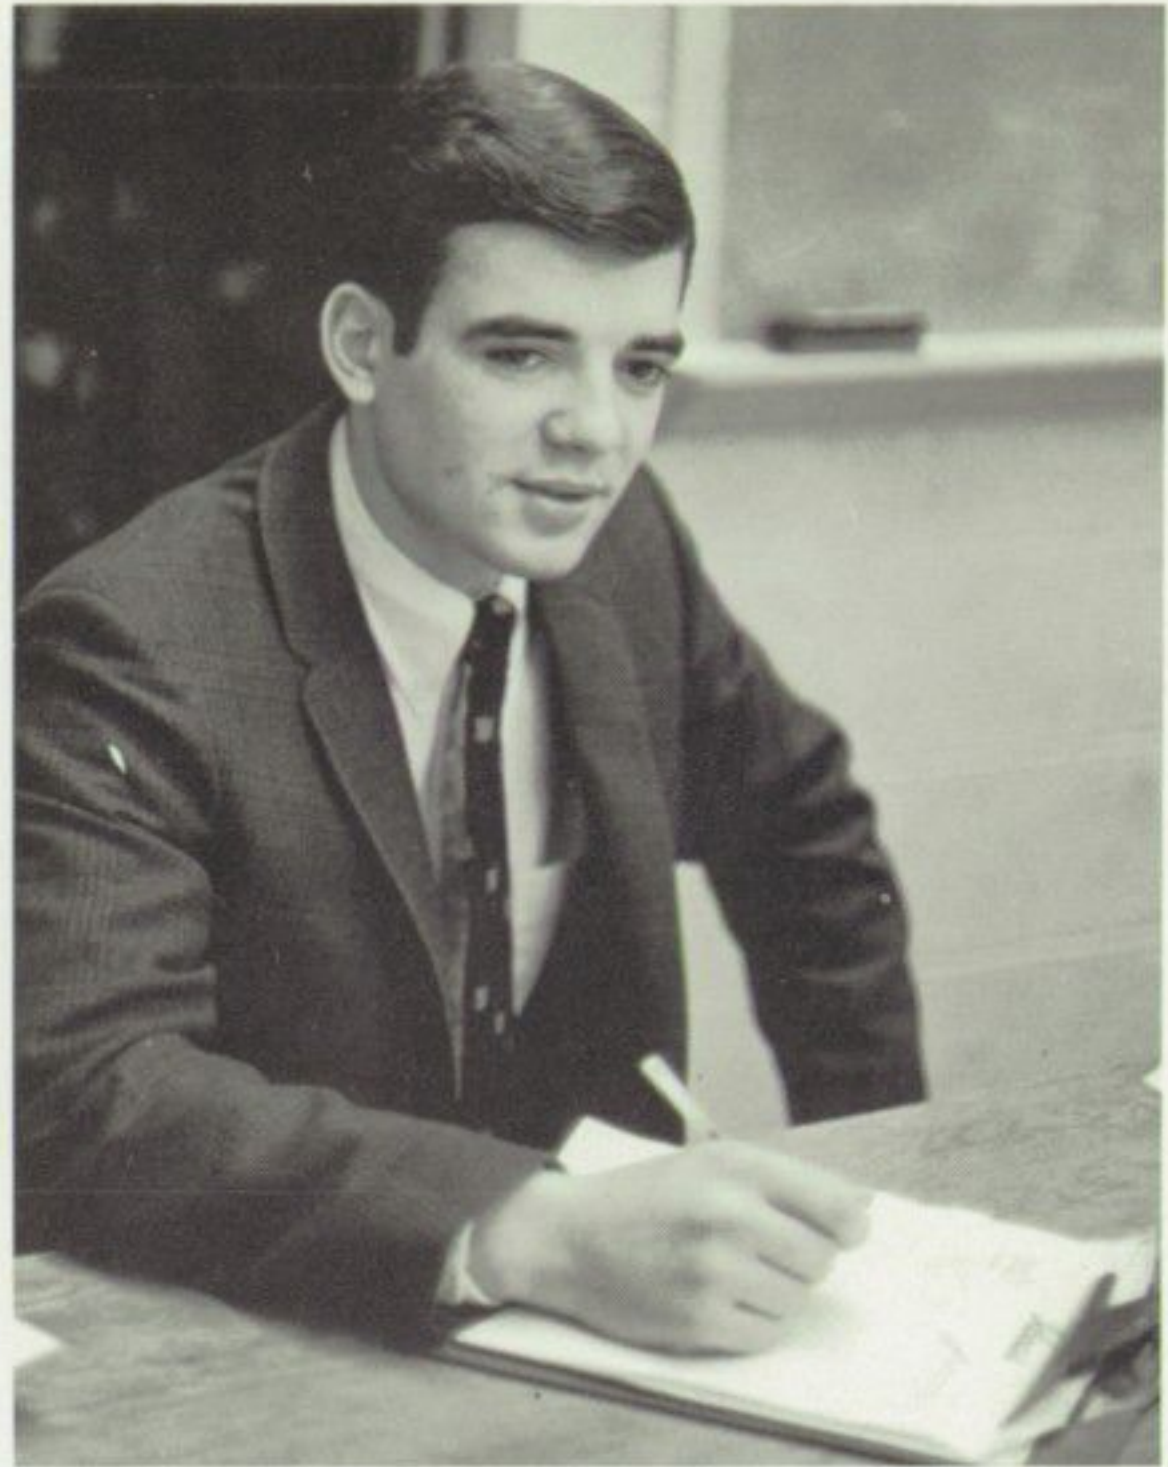

Mr. Hostler

Seniors look forward to Problems of Democracy class with Mr. Ronald Hostler. Biology I and II are also classes of his.

Rev. Harper

Mr. Wolgemuth

Substitutes Devote Their Time

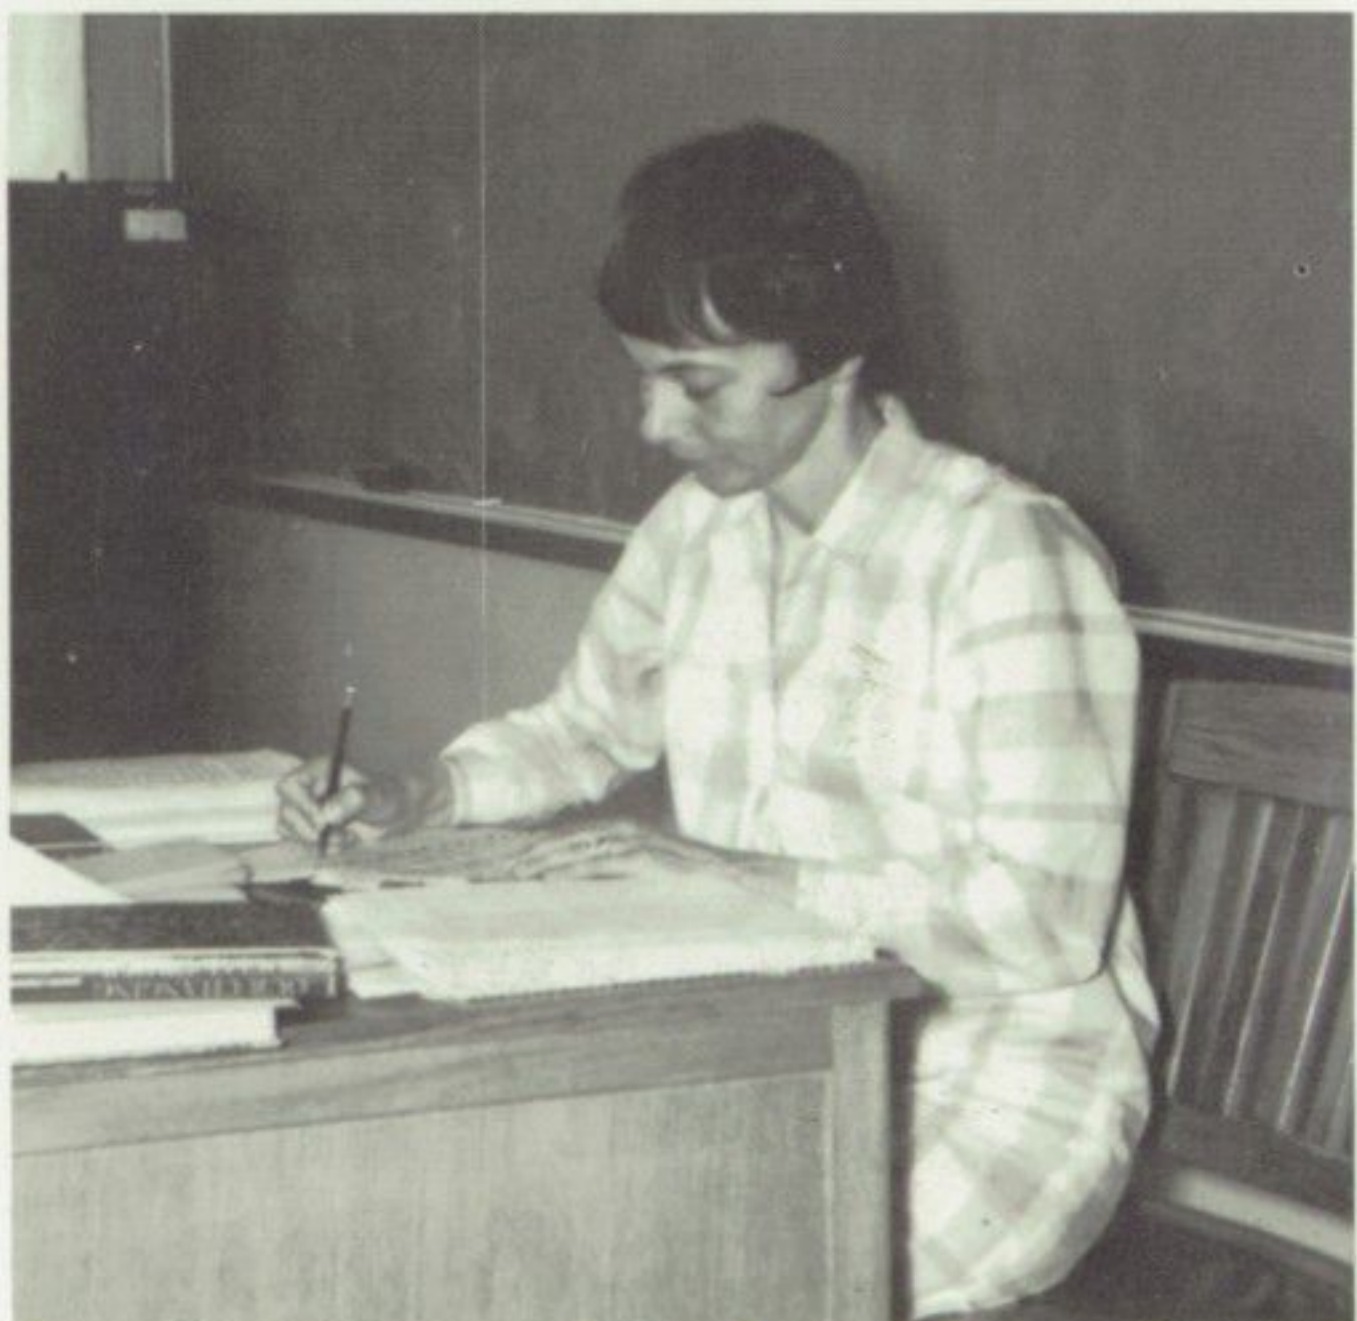

Mrs. Yost

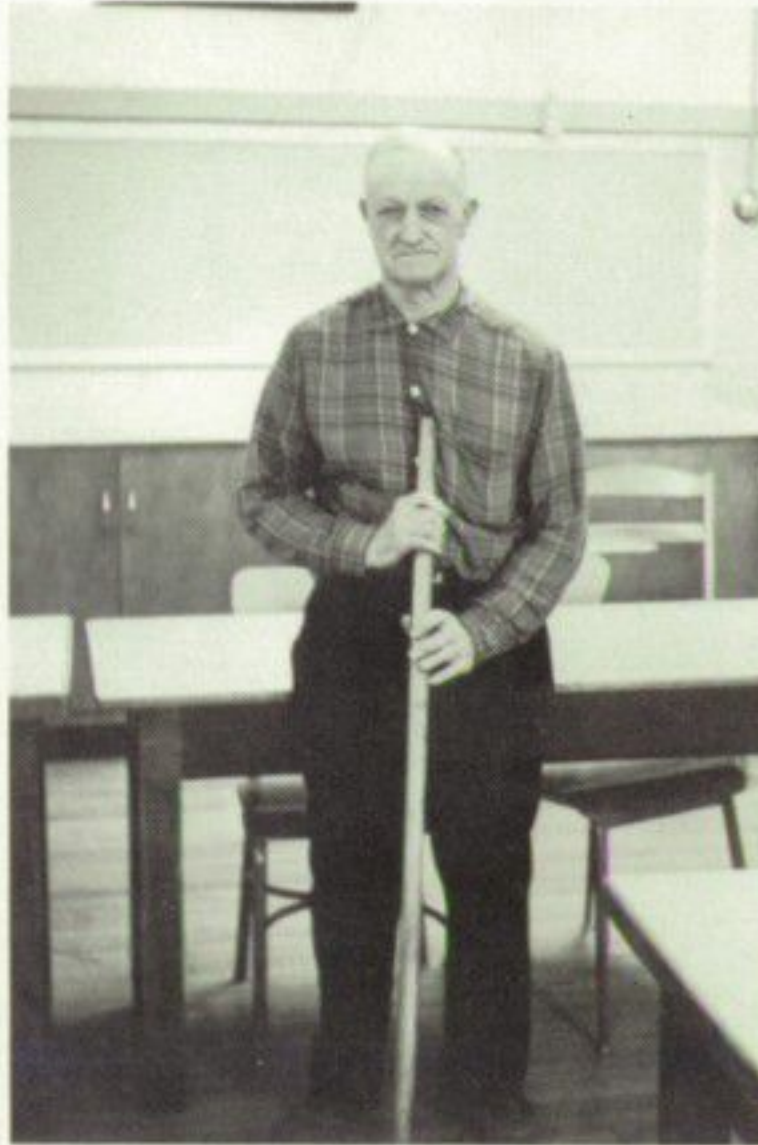

With the need for more and more teachers, substitutes have been in important demand. And so is the case at PHS.

This year many substitutes were needed. Rev. Harper is really a man of all talents.

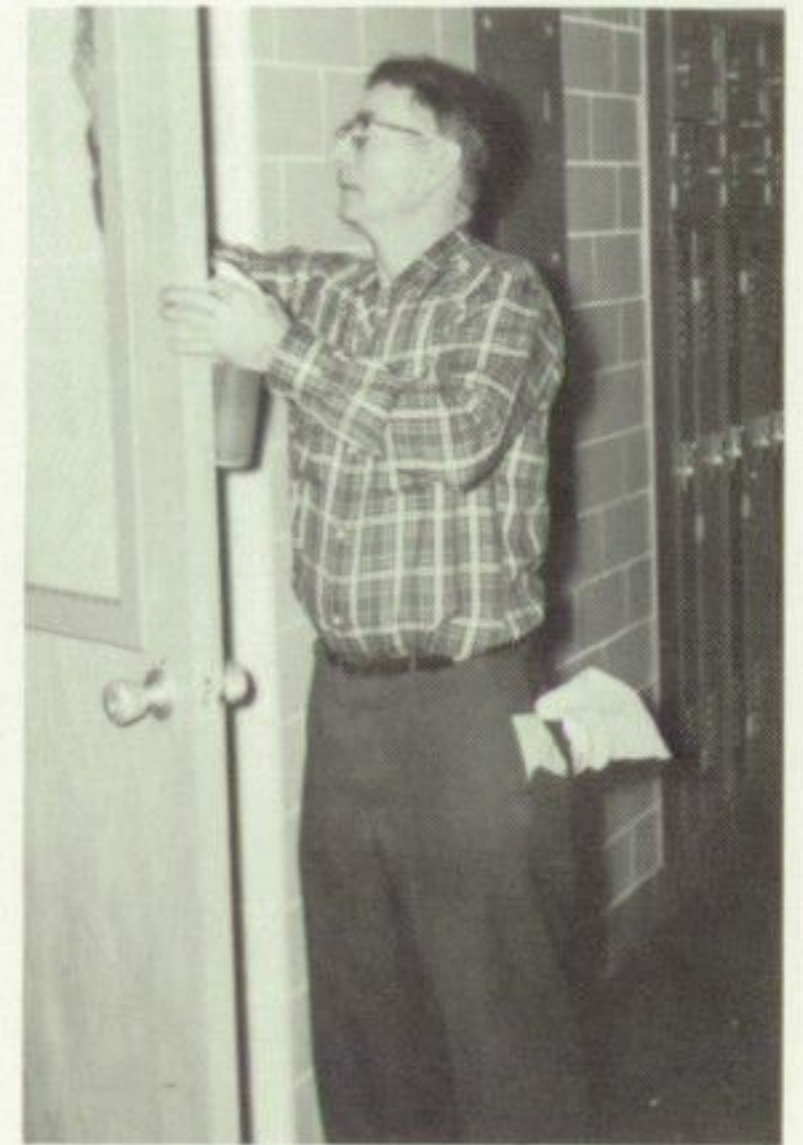

Mr. Wolgemuth was hired to replace one of our teachers that took a month's leave of absense.

Mrs. Yost was hired to replace one of our teachers that resigned toward the end of the year.

Chet Bloom

Harry Aumend

Mr. Bloom and Mr. Aumend are the custodians at the school.

School Depends on Able Workers

Coming to and from school or going on field trips, students are in safe hands with our bus drivers. They are head bus driver Mr. O. Burch, Mr. P. Kranz, Mr. H. Sloan, Mr. B. Van Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wagner, Mr. P. Egner, Mrs. M. Laser, Mrs. B. McGregor, and Mrs. B. Sheller.

Mr. Burch

Cooks at the Elementary cafeteria are Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Vanasdale, Mrs. Walker, and Mrs. Hass.

Mr. Larry Root has time for "40 winks" between classes.

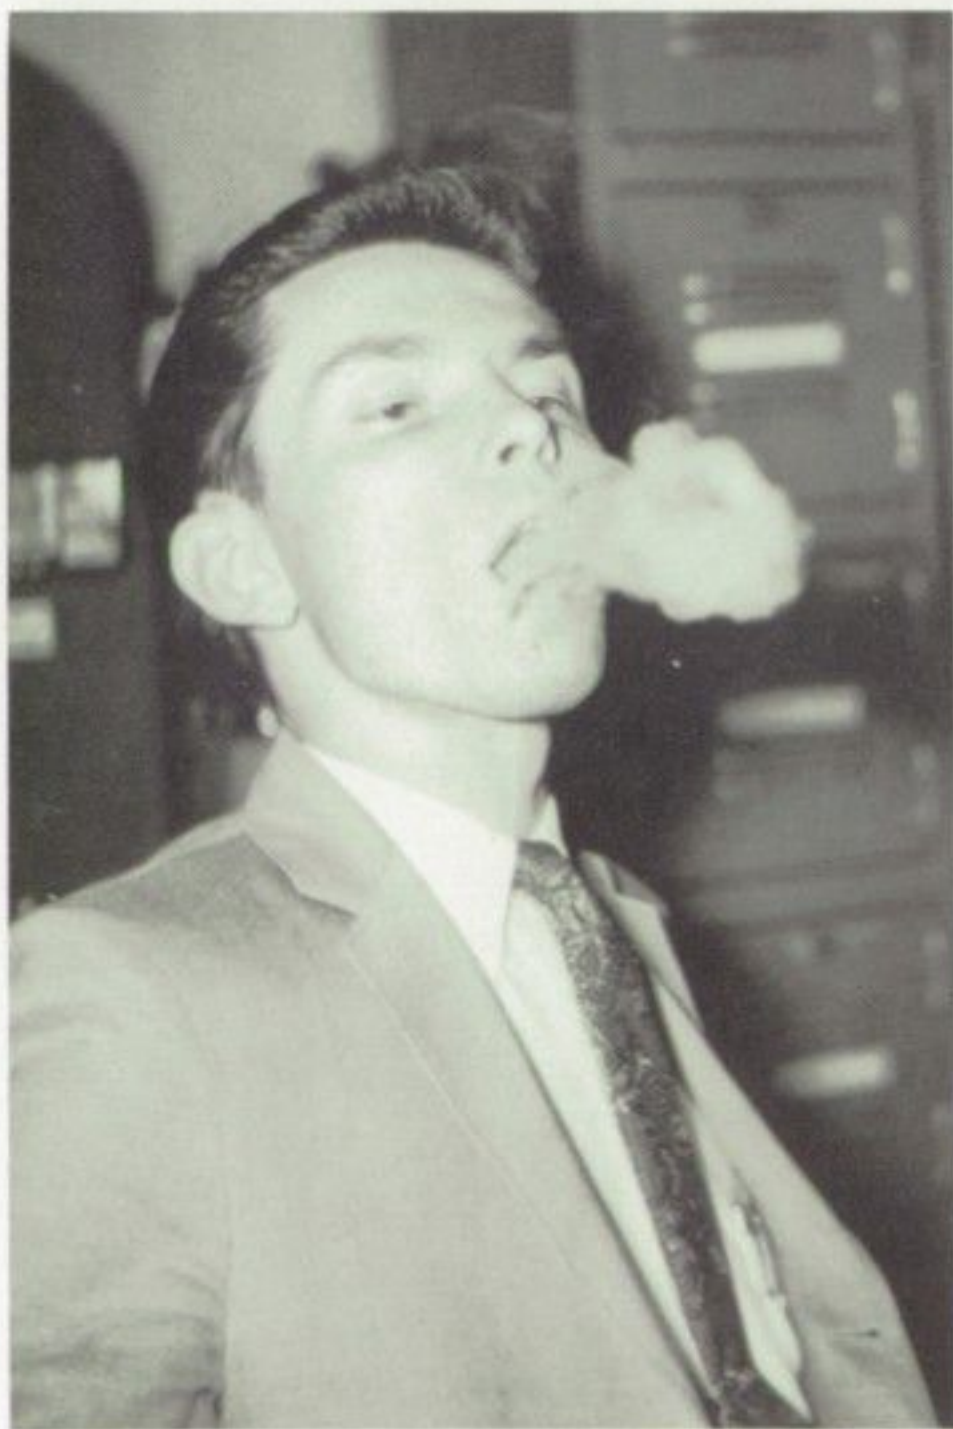

Mr. Edward Kinsel is getting ready to "blast off!"

Faculty Is Human, Too

Getting into the act is Mrs. Maxine Lillo and Mr. John Hughes.

Doing one of his "magic tricks" is Mr. John Fogt.

Mr. Jerry Bishop takes time to "look over" the situation.

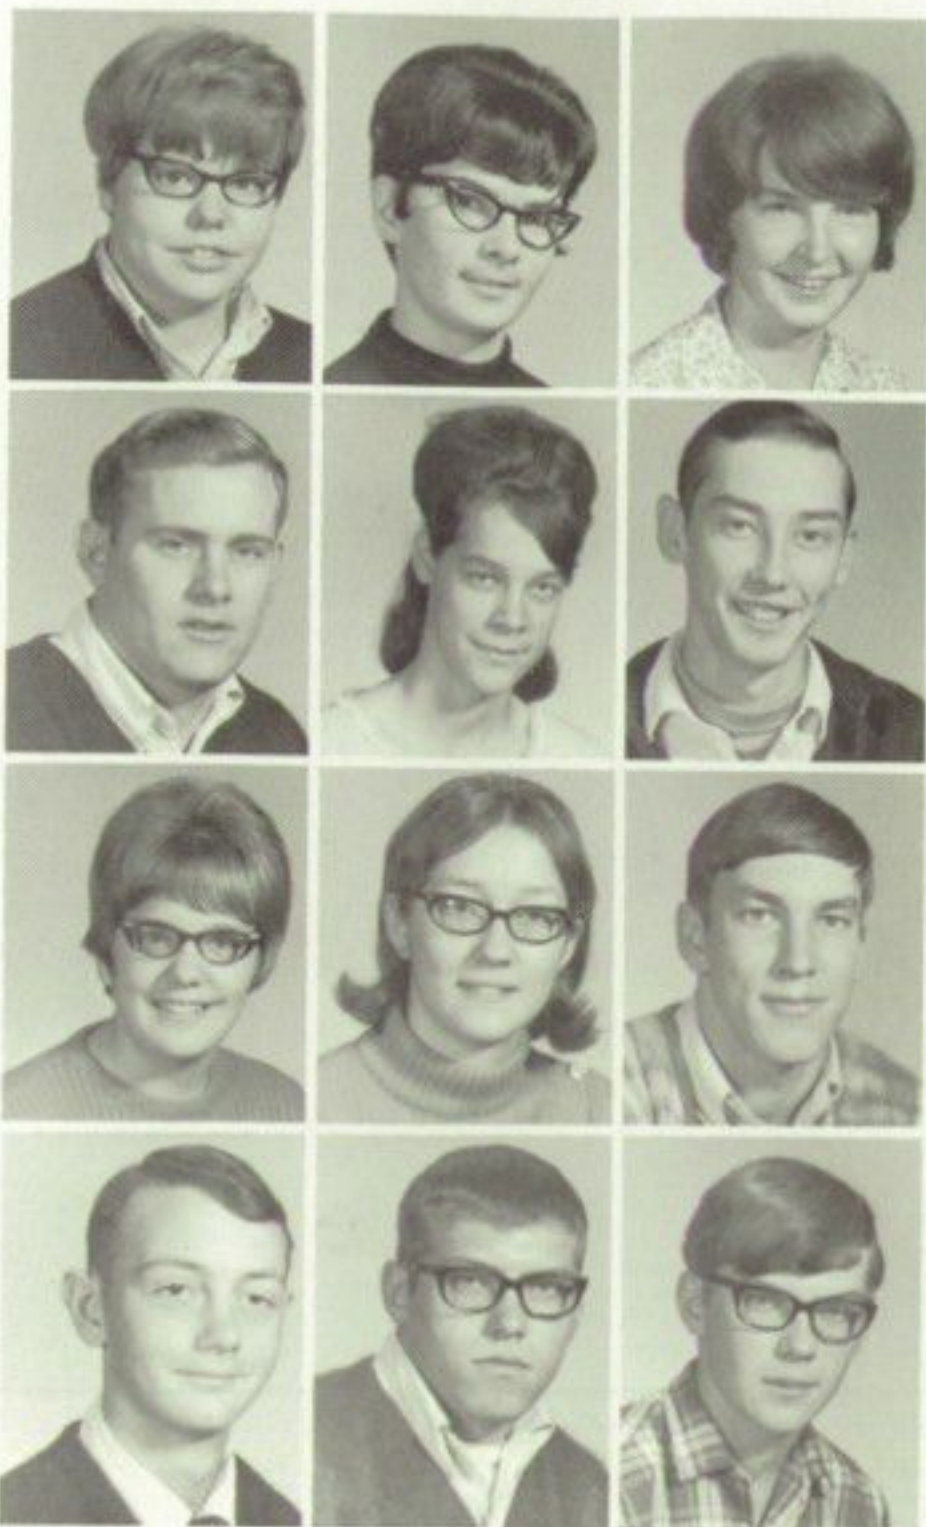

UNDERCLASSMEN

Underclassmen, eager to grow, furthered the excellence of Plymouth High School during the 1967-68 school year. They displayed their talents in athletics, music, and academics, and proved their leadership abilities when many "assistant" jobs and positions became their full responsibilities on the completion of the year.

ORGANIZATIONS AND

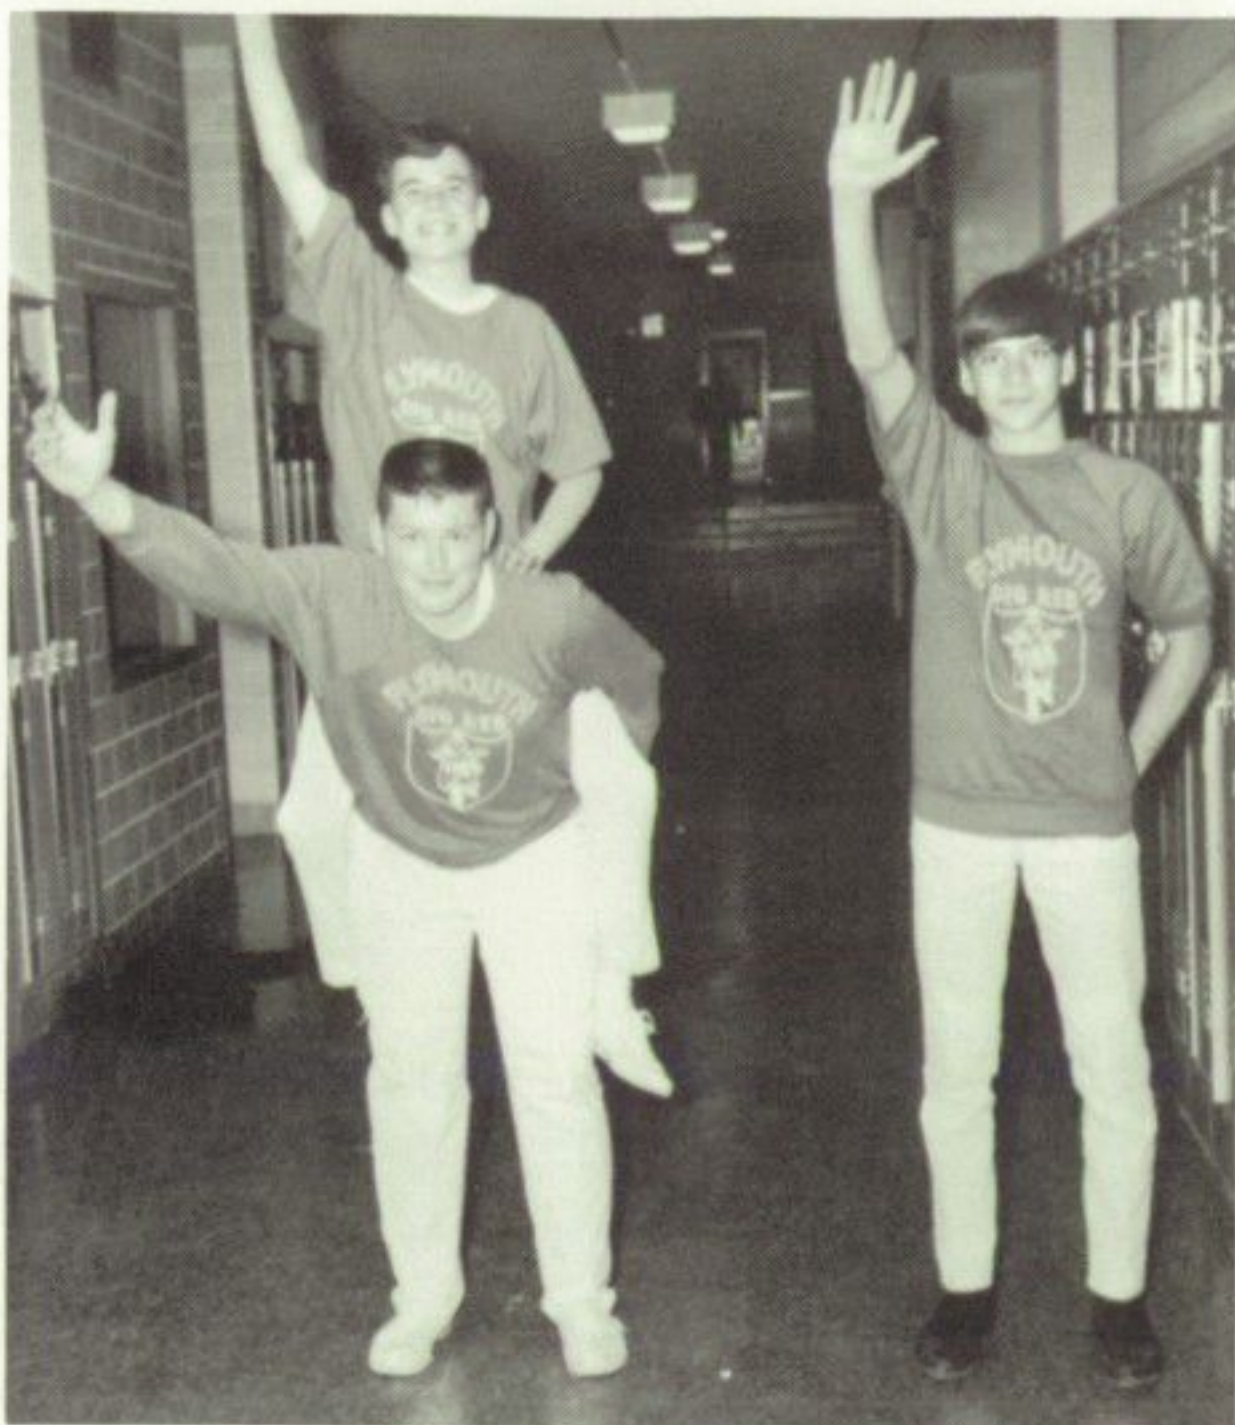

ACTIVITIES

This year, we taught the proverbial "old dog a new trick" by introducing new dimensions to our social lives. Among these were a computer dance, organized intramural basketball, and a National Honor Society, thus broadening the already wide scope of extra-curriculars at P.H.S.

Within this diverse world of clubs and activities, each student discovers his own interests and continues in an eternity of growth preparing himself for his future.

Cheerleaders Eddie Hunter, Perry McKenzie, and Jim Collins demonstrate a formation.

Members of the Court are presented to the student body. From left to right: T. Willet, M. Ream, Mr. Mock--band director, T. Rook, and J. Ebersole.

Girls Win Football Game

Mark Ream gives the line-up for the game.

On October 22, 1967, the Band sponsored a powder puff football game between the girls of the Band and the WKYC VIP's. A King and Court were chosen by the girls of the Band. The King was Erv Howard and the Court consisted of Sr., Mark Ream; Jr., Tim Willet; Soph., Jim Ebersole; and Fr., Ted Rook.

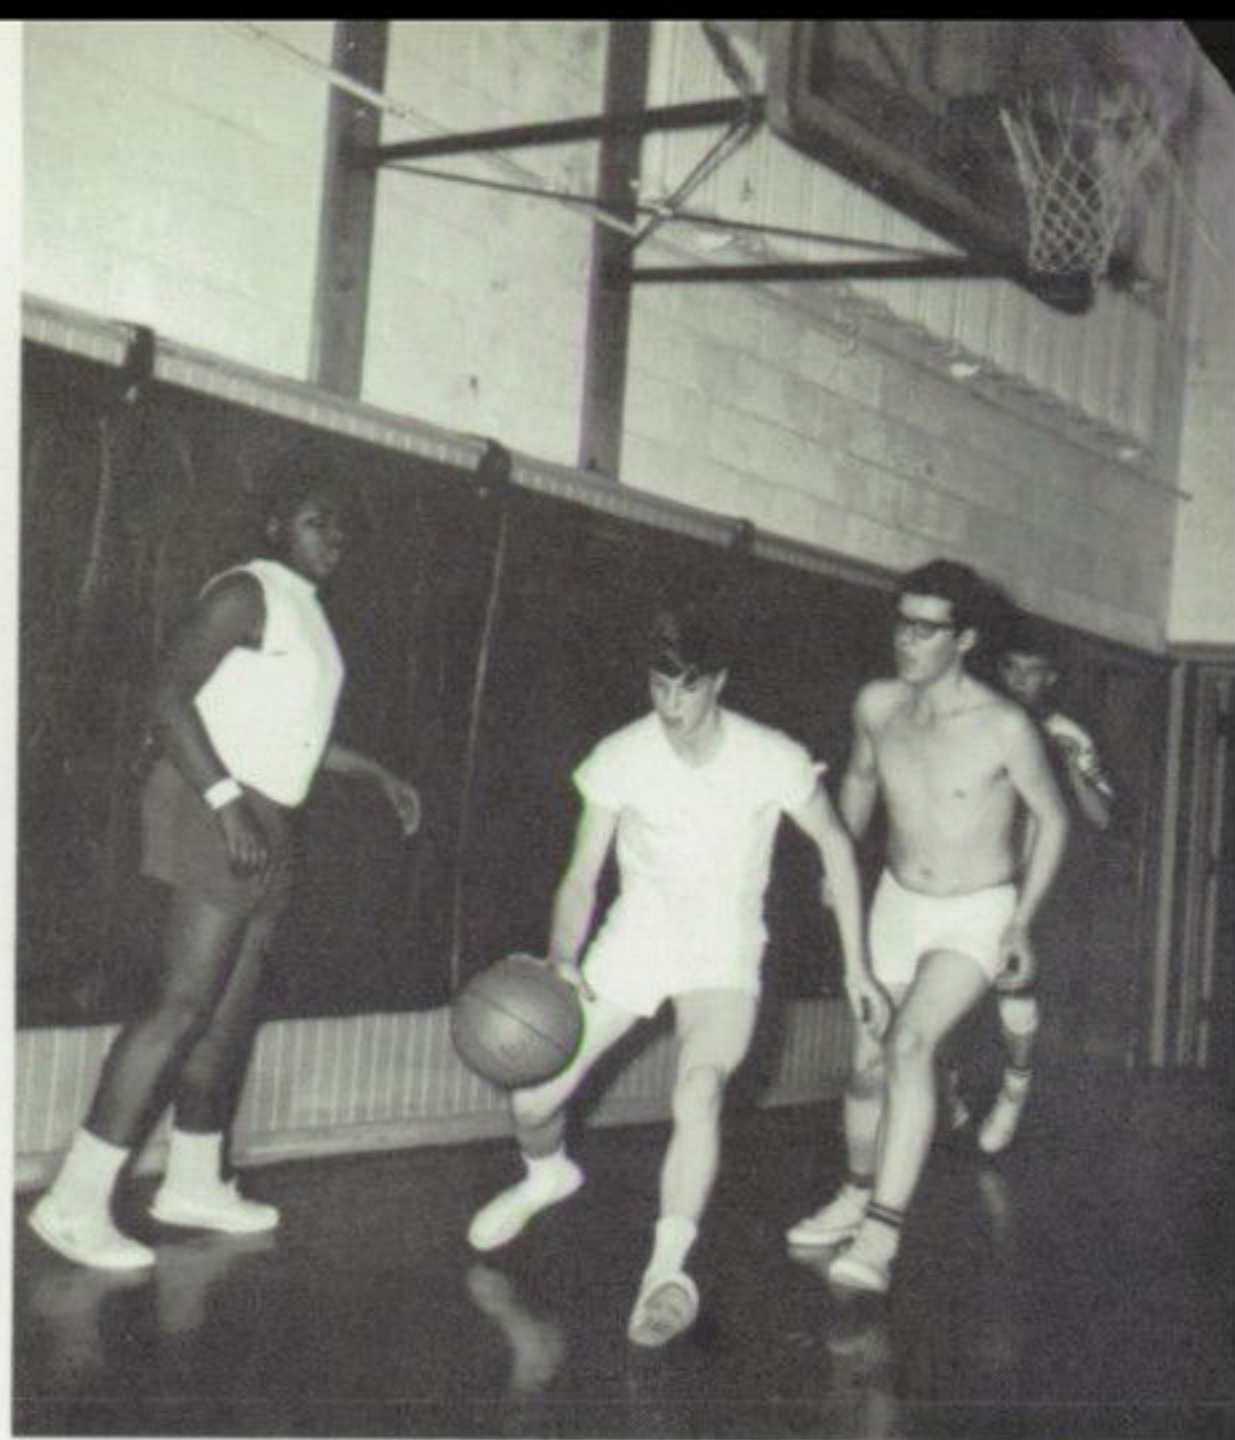

Carolyn Seymour carries the ball while others block.

Mr. Hostler and Alan Trauger go for the tip-off.

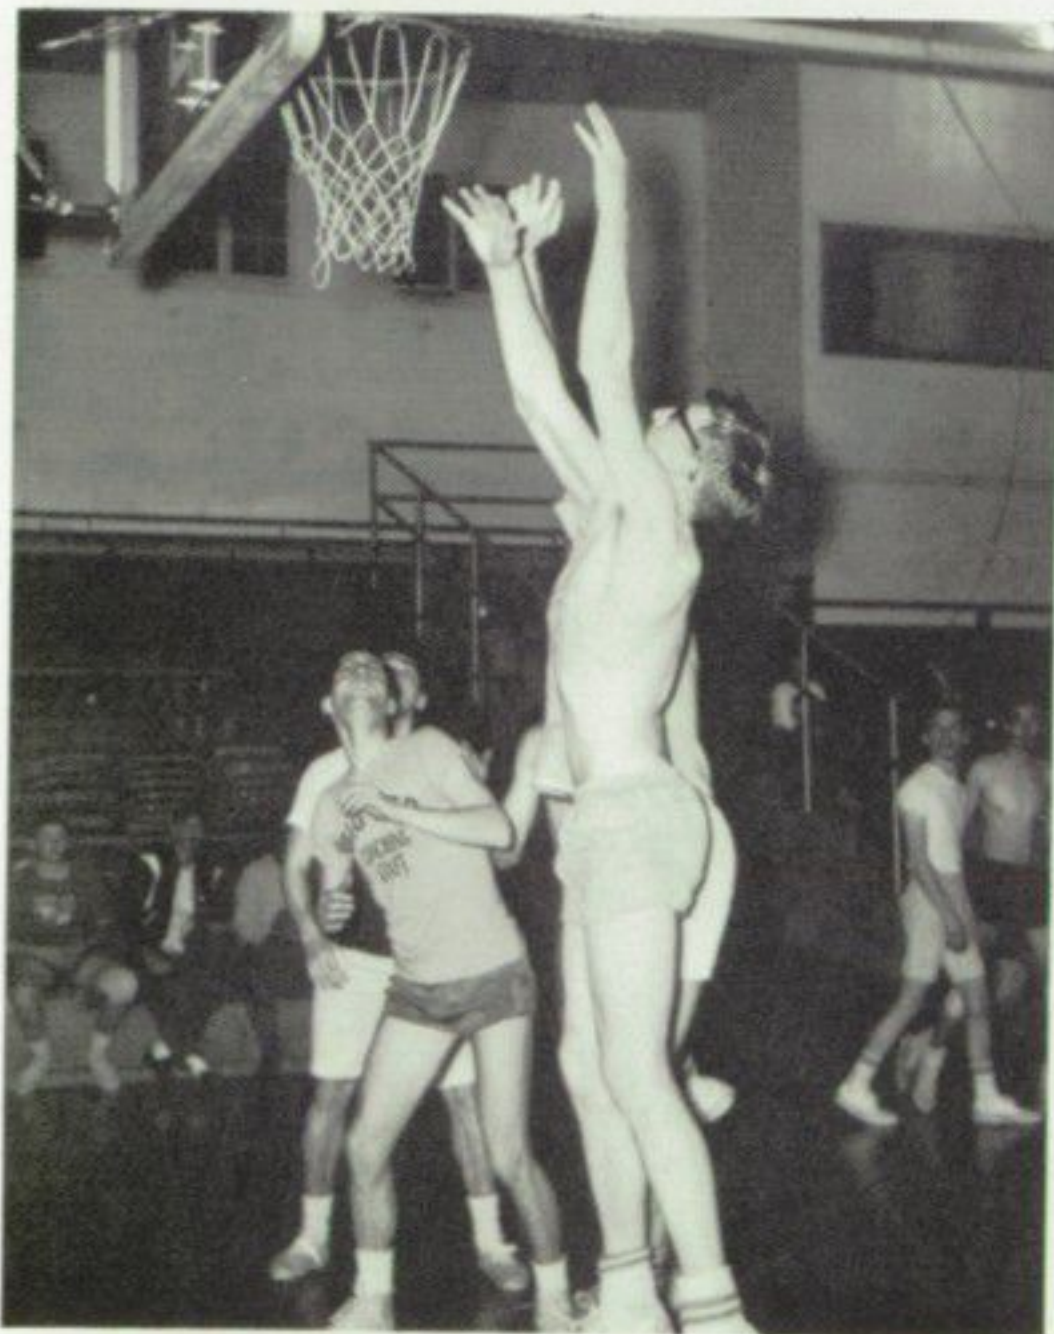

This year intramural basketball games were introduced at the high school. A tournament was held and the team consisting of members of the POD classes won. Other teams competing were: Art, Shop, Faculty, German, Band, Vo. Ag. I, and Vo. Ag. II.

Football Team Chooses Susie Root as Homecoming Queen

Homecoming was the highlight of the 1967 Football Season at P.H.S. Queen Susie and her attendants reigned over festivities held October 5, 6, and 7. Queen Susie Root was escorted by Erv Howard; Barb Wagner, by Jack Hoffman; Beth Ross, by Randy Kimble; Janet Broderick, by Dwayne Kok; and Sharon Powers, by Mike Beard. The Student Council was in charge of the bonfire on Thursday night held on the school grounds. Honors were won by the Senior Class for the "Most Spirit" and "Best Float" went to the Sophomores. The Big Red dropped a close game to Lexington, Friday night, by the score of 20--12. The cheerleaders chose "Moon River" for Saturday night's Coronation Dance.

Each year the Athletic Association undertakes several projects to raise money for the athletic program. This year emphasis was on the spring sports program. From sales projects, the Turkey Trot, and profits from the concessions at the home basketball and football games, a good deal of money was raised. The entire sum went toward the betterment of spring sports.

Throughout the year, they had several interesting speakers, who talked on a variety of subjects. On March 16, they held their annual dance, featuring "The Other Kind." The dance began with the crowning of the FHA Queen and her court. Altogether, the FHA had a very successful and interesting year.

Art Goes Mod

The Art Club added a great deal to the events of Plymouth High School. It worked many long hard hours on various projects such as "My Fair Lady," Sadie Hawkins Day and Homecoming. Every week the club decorated the bulletin boards for the games and for special holidays, such as Christmas. It also sponsored a psychedelic dance and the second annual Art Show. This year as a special project the Art students designed the front of the scorekeepers' desk in the gymnasium.

Freddie comes to the Higgins' house to ask the housekeeper about Eliza.

“My Fair Lady”

"My Fair Lady" was the story of Eliza Doolittle, a Cockney girl in England, transformed into a lady by Henry Higgins. Eliza was played by Judy Fenner; Prof. Henry Higgins, Tim Rook; Col. Pickering, Tim Willet, Alfred P. Doolittle, Jon Daup; Mrs. Higgins, Cathy Moore; Freddy Eynsford-Hill, David Williamson; and Mrs. Pearce, Beth Ross.

ATHLETICS

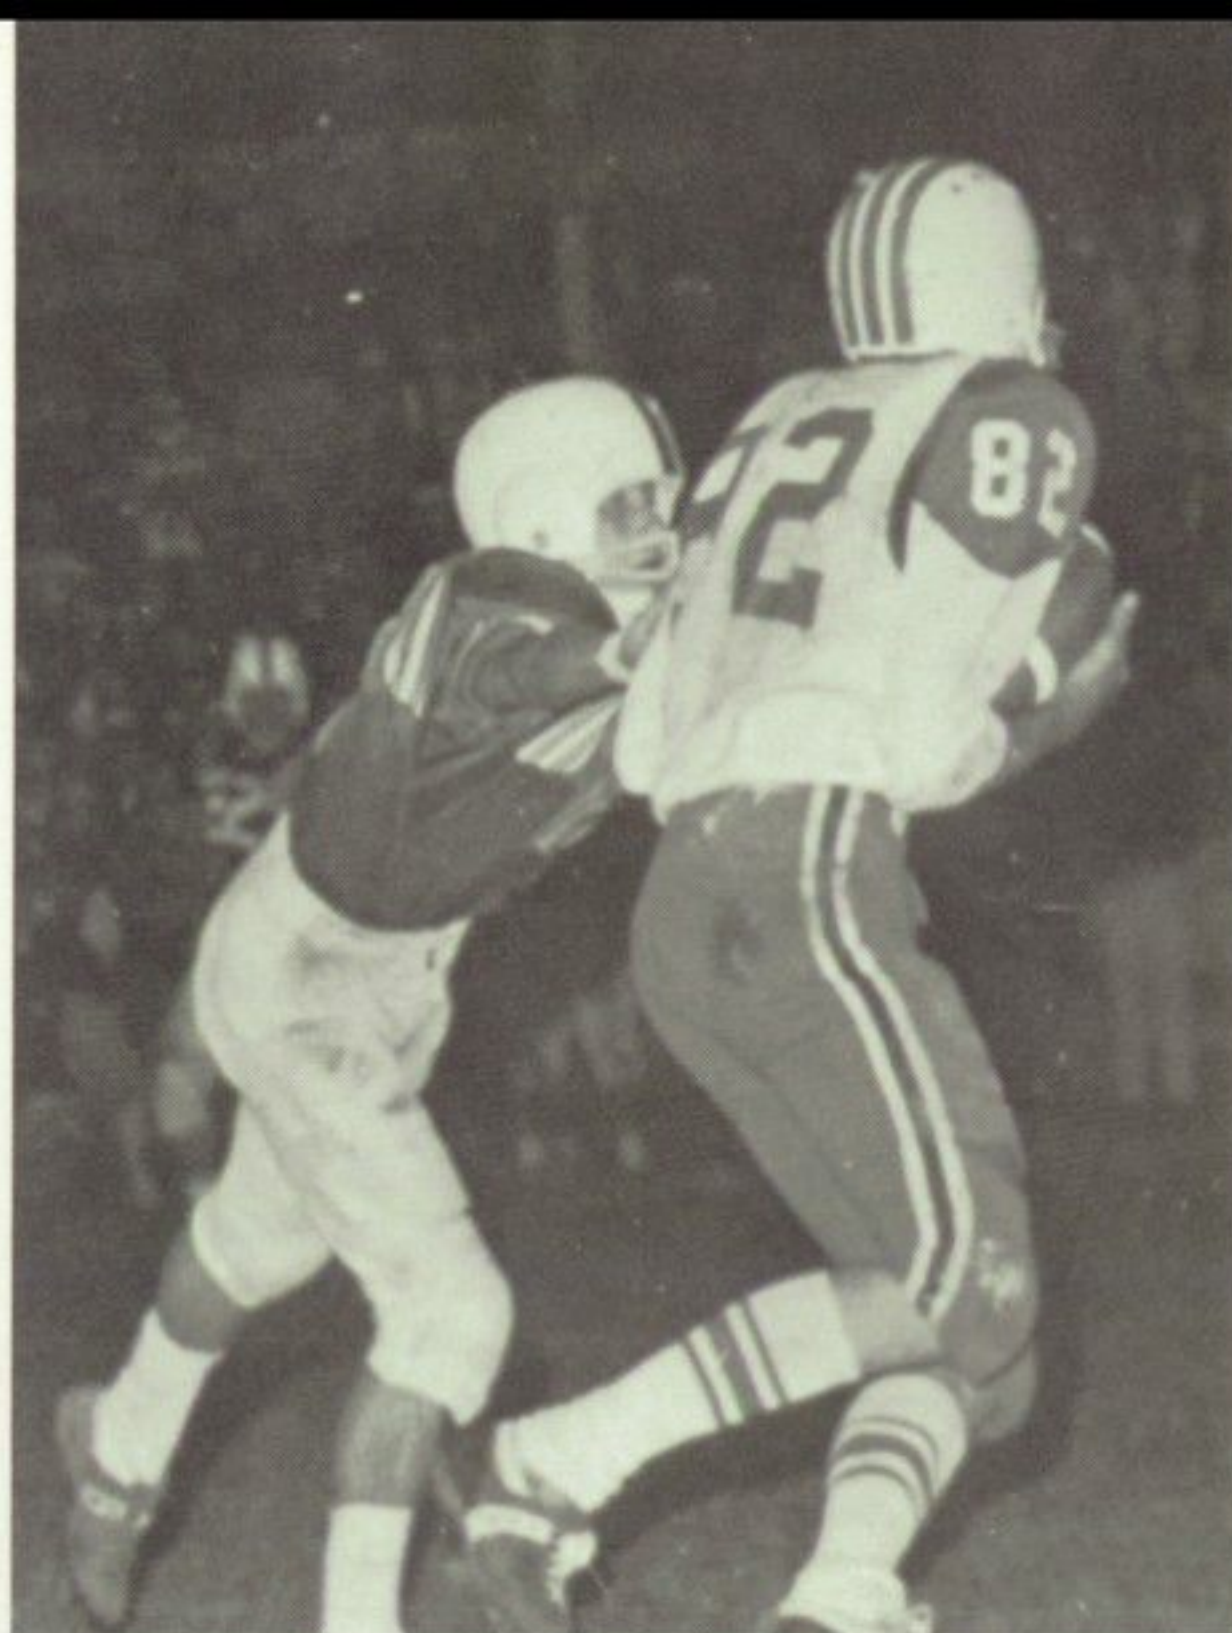

Plymouth High School's reputation as a vigorous contender in sports was maintained this year as Big Red athletic squads once again brought excitement and pride to the many Plymouth fans.

Perhaps the highlight of the sports year was the winning of the Johnny Appleseed Conference Championship in basketball. It was indeed a red-letter day for the Big Red for it marked the first time a Plymouth Basketball team had won the trophy.

Also to be commended are the football, cross-country, track, and baseball squads for keeping the sports enthusiasts on their toes during the entire year, and for giving us a preview of the talented and capable athletes which will be representing Plymouth High on the athletic field in years to come.

The Plymouth Big Red football team enjoyed one of their best seasons ever, winning 6 and losing 4. Much credit is to be given to the fine coaching of Mr. Larry Root. Even though they lost 4 games, the Big Red was in each one of them until the very end. Although the Big Red loses nine seniors, next year should be another very good season.

45	58 Mans. St. Peter's

This year history was made by the Plymouth Big Red basketball team. Guided by the excellent coaching of Mr. Ronald Hostler and assistant coach Mr. Larry Barnd, the Plymouth cage team brought home its first Johnny Appleseed Conference title. No doubt was left in the minds of the worthy opponents; for Plymouth swept the Conference with 10 wins and 0 losses. The only decisive defeat was handed to the Big Red in the tournament games, by the Class "A" state champions, Mansfield St. Peter's.

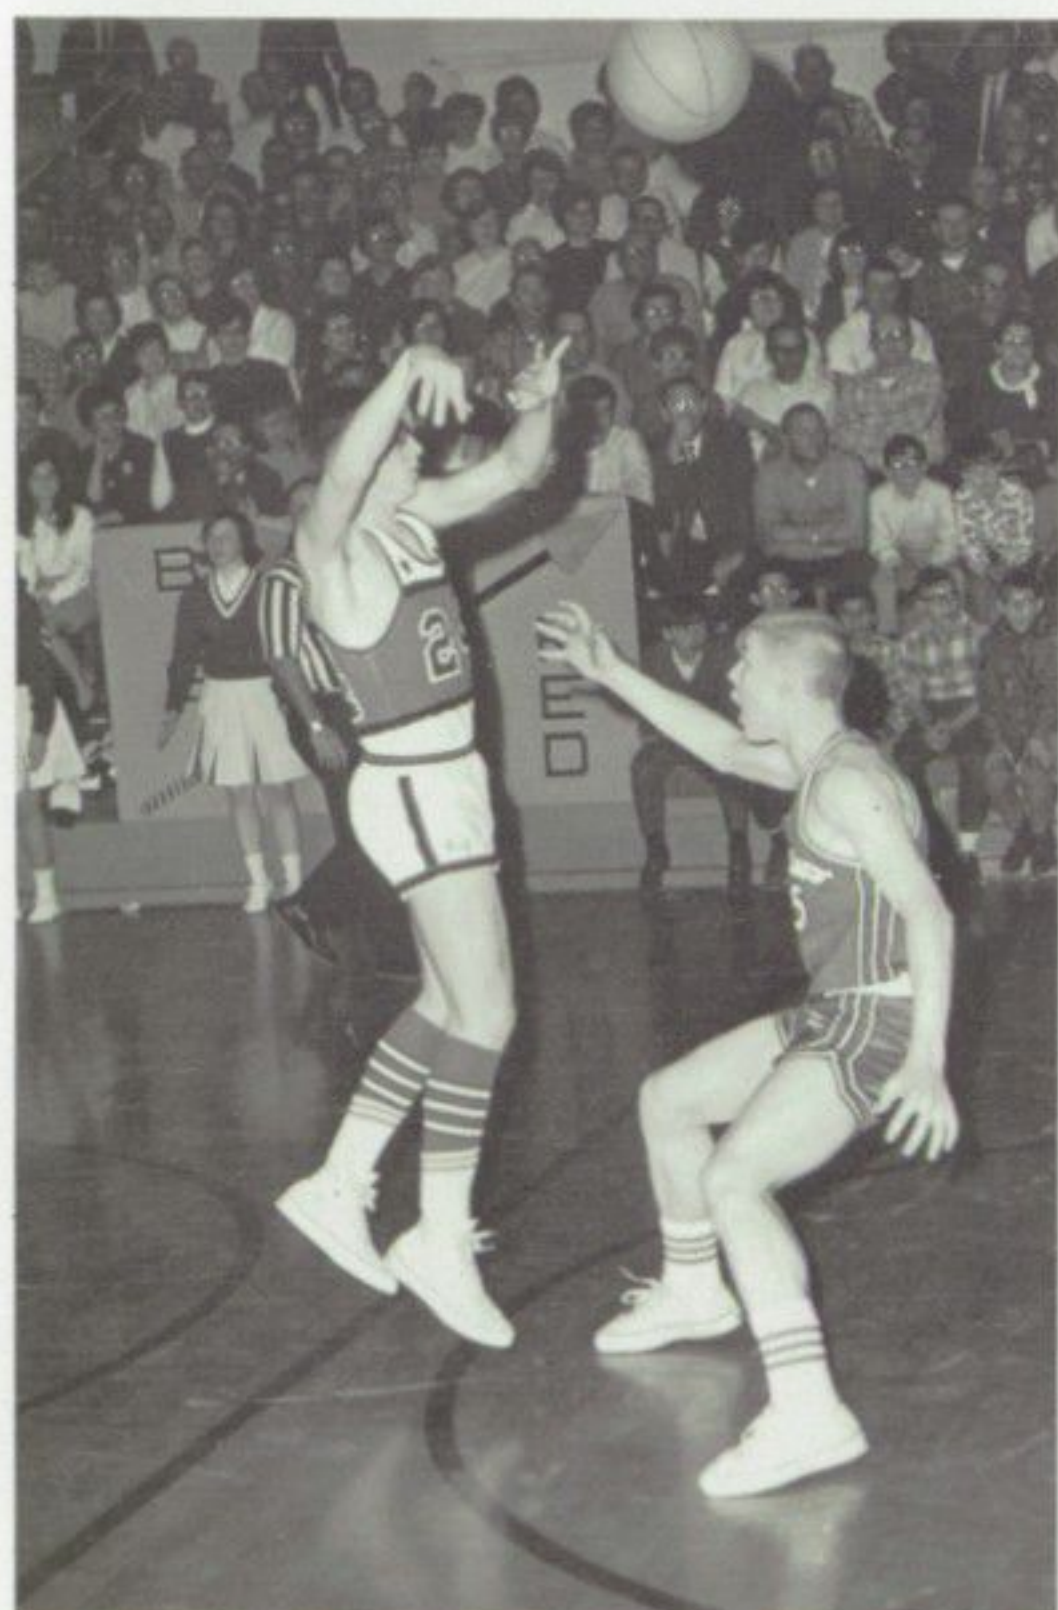

Even though the team loses four of its starting five by graduation, there are competent replacements just waiting for the chance to reveal their abilities. The outlook for the 1968-69 season is very promising.

The drive to win is always present.

Wins J.A.C. Title

Cagey play is a helpful necessity.

Plymouth storms to another victory.

Clark breaks to basket.

Hoffman hits on "bunny" shot.

Team Capitalizes

Dave McKown

Jack Hoffman

Gene Kok

Jon Daup

Kamann scores easy one.

on Senior Experience

Team receives J.A.C. trophy after defeating Fredricktown.

Reserves Look Good

The Reserve Squad finished with an 11-7 record. They had a fine season through hard work. Mr. Barnd deserves much credit for a great job of preparing these boys for future Big Red Varsity Teams.

P.H.S. can't get all the rebounds.

Press pays off.

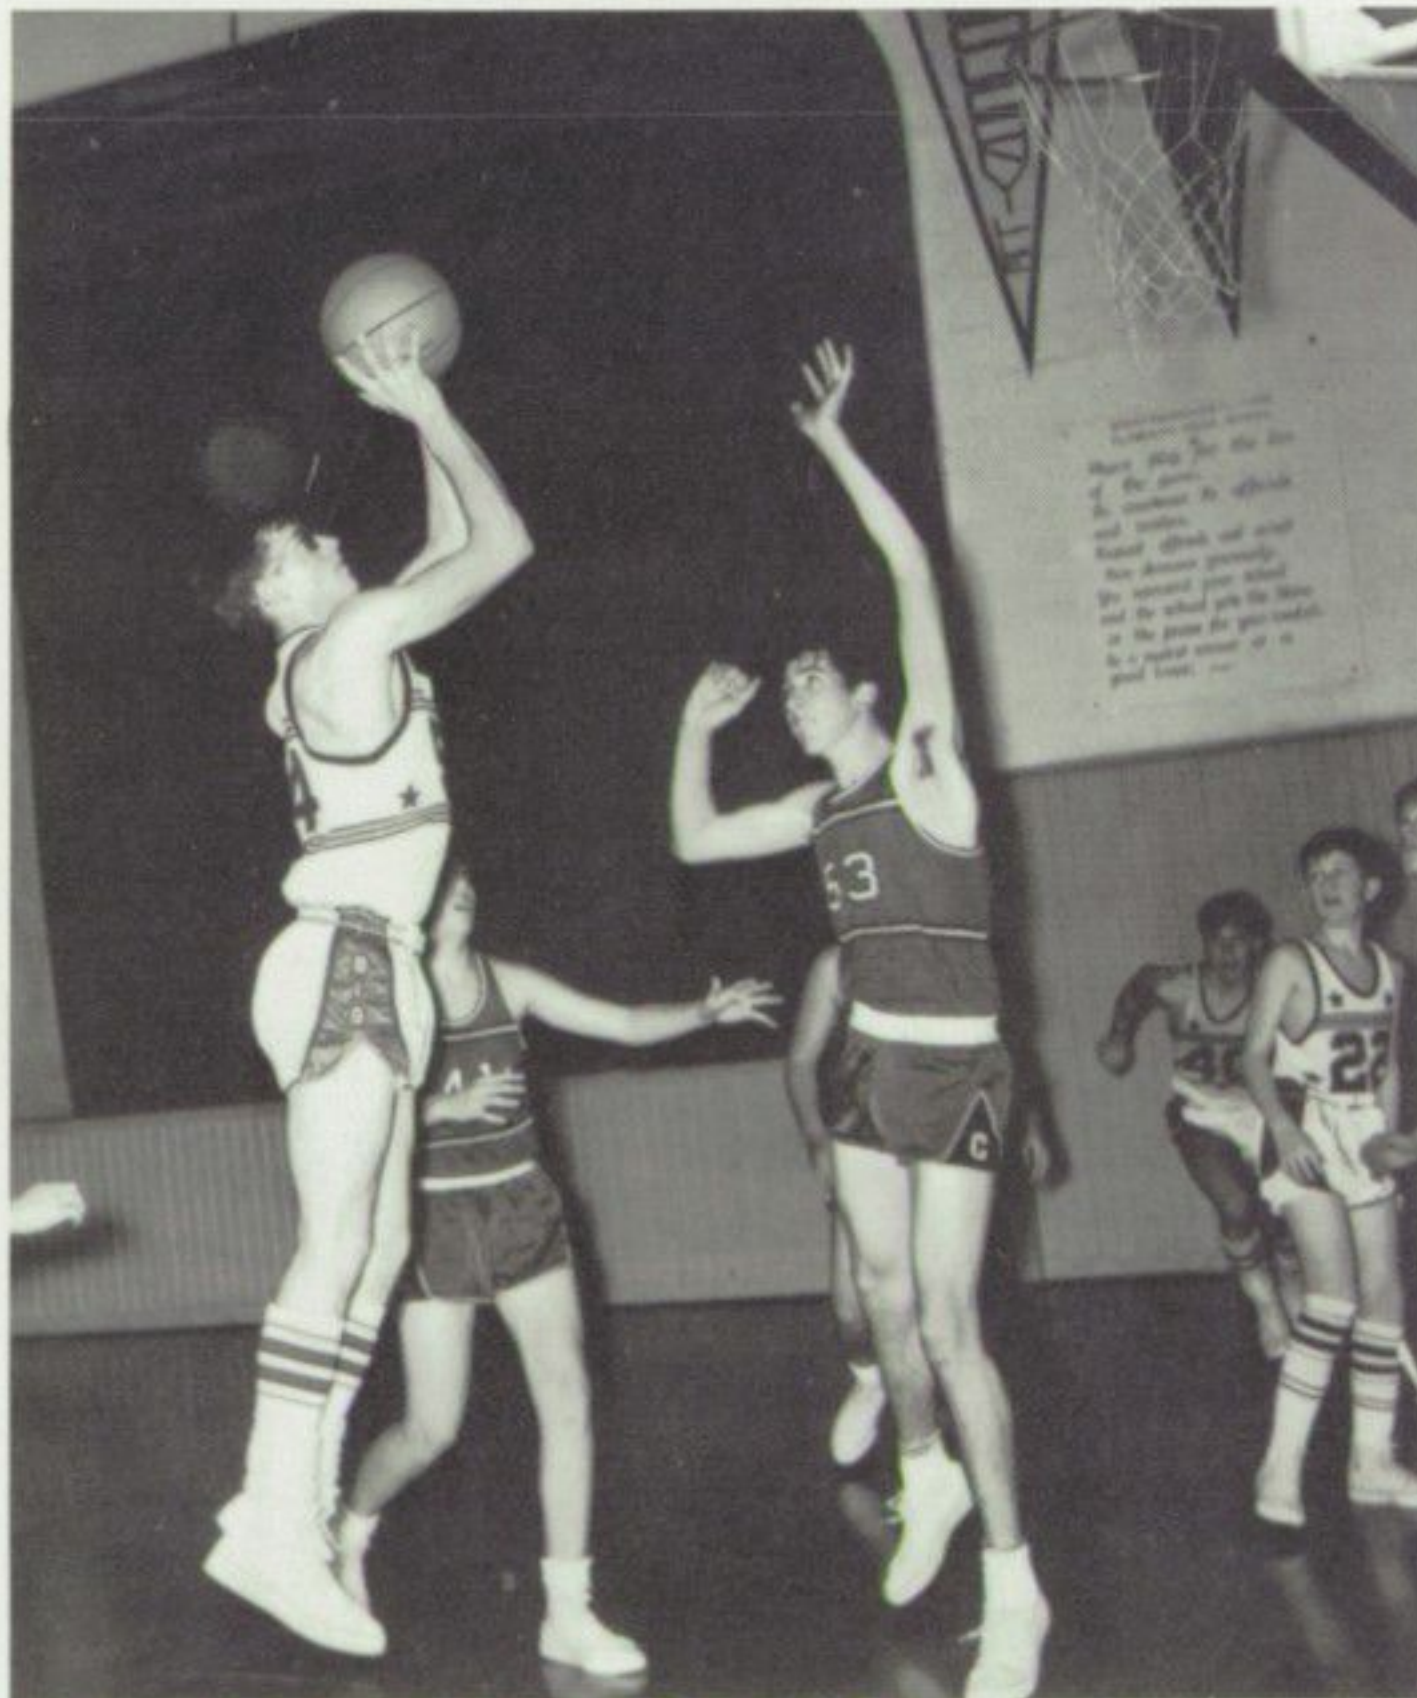

Mike Laser, Gary Farnwalt, Kent Bushey, Kevin Echleberry, Rick Myers, Gene Harris, Pete Haver, Don Foreman, Terry Trauger, Bill Fazio, Richard Gullet, Terry Fenner, Ted Rook, Coach Jim Haney.

Freshmen Gain Experience

The Freshman Basketball team had a very unusual season, winning 4 while losing 11. The bright spot in their season was placing third in the tournament. Coach Haney and the boys should be well credited for their efforts.

Big Gene Harris gets two points.

Ted Rook fights for the rebounds.

KNEELING: T. Rook, M. Beard, S. Coffey, J. Daup, J. Hoffman, T. Buzard, J. Enderby, G. Lesho. STANDING: J. Daup, L. Fenner, T. Rook, D. McKown, L. Kamann, K. Foreman, L. Ernst, Coach Flaherty.

Varsity Reaches District Tournament

Another run heads for home.

The Big Red Varsity Baseball team, under the leadership of Mr. William Flaherty, had a very successful season. The team, for the third straight year, reached the District Tournament before being defeated by Buckeye Central. The Varsity team loses five Seniors due to graduation but should have a very good team next year as six lettermen are returning.

All set for action.

The Reserve Baseball team, also coached by Mr. Flaherty, deserves praise for the fine effort they put forth in each of the games they played. Though they only won one of four contests, they gained experience valuable to their future participation in baseball.

Reserves Work Hard

KNEELING: B. Fazio, B. Fairchild, K. Echelberry, K. Bushey, T. Fenner, M. Phillips. STANDING: T. Dawson, M. Beard, G. Lesho, L. Ernst, T. Rook.

Coach Mike Ocepek led the 1968 track team to an excellent season record of 4 wins and 0 losses in dual meets. Three records were broken and one was tied. The mile relay team, consisting of Jon Daup, Erv Howard, Terry Buzard, and Gene Kok established the most significant record by setting the old mile relay record back 3 seconds, while running in the Regionals at Worthington, Ohio. Gene Kok broke both the shot and discus records, and Tom Henry tied the 220 mark. With many good underclassmen coming up, the Big Red will have another good year next year.

Facial expressions reveal desire to win.

Track Team Has Excellent Record

KNEELING: J. Garrett, M. Beard, T. Buzard, G. Kok, J. Harrington, R. VanWagner, D. Cook, J. Daup, D. Mathews.
STANDING: Coach Ocepek, J. Daup, L. Vanderpool, J. Hamman, J. Adams, P. Haver, D. Spiger, J. Clark, D. Kok, J. Collins, B. Reed, R. Conley.

Team Has Tough Competition

Mile relay team shows winning form.

The cross country team, under the coaching of Mr. Mike Ocepek, proved to show much potential against the stiff competition they faced. The team, losing only one member due to graduation, is looking forward to a successful season next year.

Our Heartiest Congratulations to the Class of '68
