JUNIORS

Raising money for Prom is always a major duty of the Junior class. They had a successful candy sale early in the year selling M & M's and also a car wash at Mack's Market.

Miss Louise Harkins is the new advisor. Helping her are the class officers who are Amy Beverly, President; Robin Burks, Vice President; Shelly Reinhart, Treasurer; and April Pratt, Secretary. Other activities sponsored by the Junior class are the Rock-A-Thon and the fifth and sixth grade basketball tournament.

ORGANIZATIONS

BEHIND THE SCENES

After four years on the yearbook staff, I could fill this page with horror and success stories of the Yearbook, but I really enjoyed being Editor in this, my final year on the staff. The staff all knows what I'm talking about when I say how interesting the three days before a deadline are with Mrs. Buurma, our advisor. But in the end everything always comes together and everyone works as a team to make a great book year after year. A big thanks to Mrs. Buurma and the staff for a lot of hard work. I hope you enjoy the book as much as the staff did putting it together.

This is "my" best friend!

With a membership increase of 75% the Plymouth FHA became a very enthusiastic and active organization. They sponsored a dance at the beginning of the year to support Children's Hospital. At the Regional Rally they received a First for Chapter Manual and a Second for Consumer Decision Making. The Planning Process Team received a First and then went on to the State Convention where they received a Second place award.

Officers for this year were Chris Hixon, Pres.; Angel Sparks, Sec.; Chris Ross, Treas.; Layne Goth, Historian; Michelle Towslee, District Rep.

"This is the best season we have had in the past three years as a result of all the hard work the girls have done," Coach Echelberry commented.

The team played in a tournament at Willard High School where they won two matches and played three games against the #1 seeded team.

Echelberry commented that the girls were "a fine group of young ladies to coach!" They came out with four wins breaking the school record for having more than three wins.

Led by captains Steve Powers, Chris Roberts, Andy Steinmetz, and Jason Bauer, The J.V. football team showed great promise for the future. They ended the season with an overall record of 6-3 and a league record of 6-2. This meant they were 3rd. in the league.

Some unforgettable moments of the season were beating Monroeville 7-6 and Buurma kicking a 37 yd. field goal with 12 seconds left in the game to beat South Central 17-14.

He was pleased with the 55-44 victory over Mapleton and the win in the final game of the year against Crestview to end the season with a record of 11 wins and 9 losses.

DREAMING OF COLUMBUS

Bert Moore

In 1990, the Big Red track squad enjoyed a successful season on the quarter-mile oval. Behind co-captains Micki McQuate, Shane Garrett, Danell Smart, and Todd Smart, the 19-member team encountered success all the way to Columbus.

Two members found themselves competing all the way to regional action. Micki McQuate qualified in the long jump and Susie Adams in the shot-put. The brother-sister duo of Todd and Michelle Smart went even farther ending up in Ohio State Stadium in Columbus. Here, both competed very well, but Todd captured all the glory when he finished second in the 110 mile hurdles. Just .02 seconds behind first place.

NEW COACH TAKES OVER

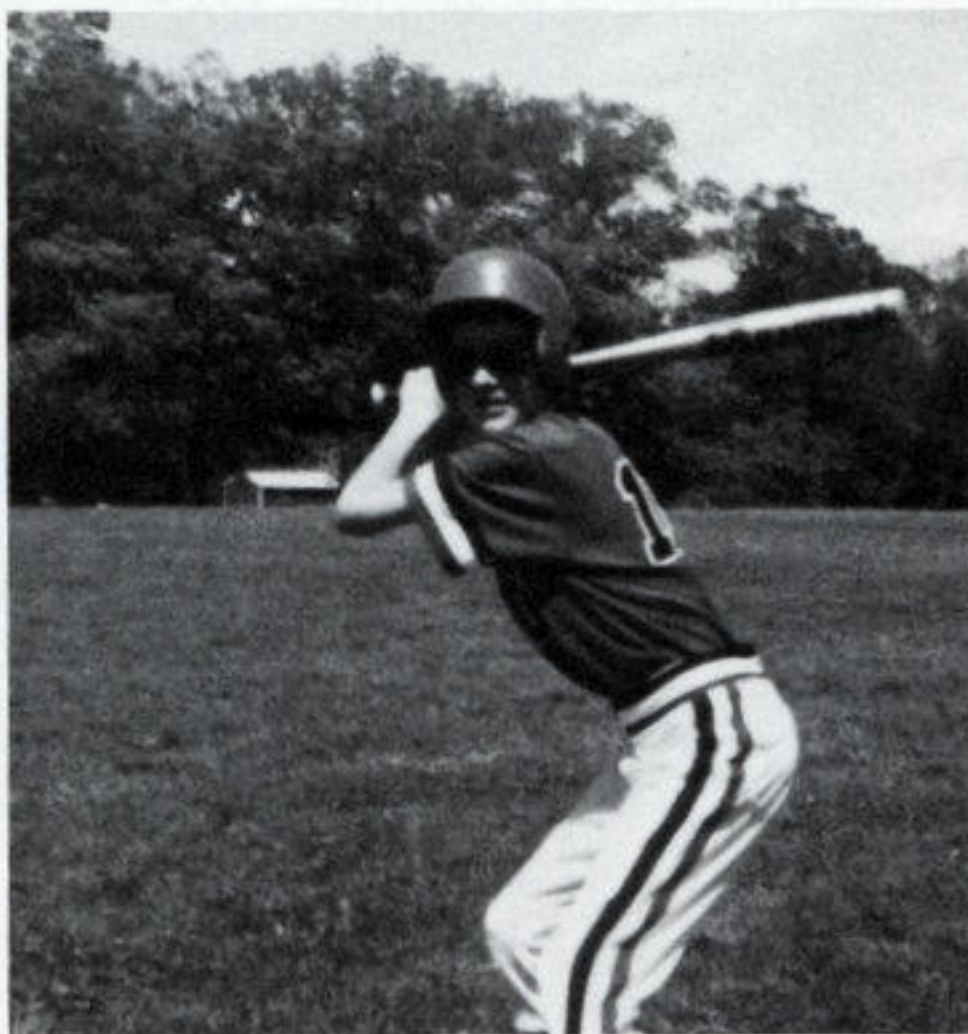

The Reserve team's record was not glamorous at 3-7. There were, however, many bright spots including winning two of the last three games. They lost several one-run ball games and were not blown out of any games all season. Considering eight of these ten players were either freshmen or first-year sophomores, first-year coach Aaron Weltlin feels the team can do nothing but improve for next year.

VARSITY SWINGS INTO ACTION

Even though Coach Dave Hirschy had a very young and inexperienced team, he felt they showed vast improvement through hard work and dedication over the season. Two of the team's highlights were a no-hit victory over St. Pete and a one-run victory over state-ranked South Central. Bryan Combs was selected for Most Valuable Player and Most Improved went to senior Robbie Roberts.

Director Mrs. Burks

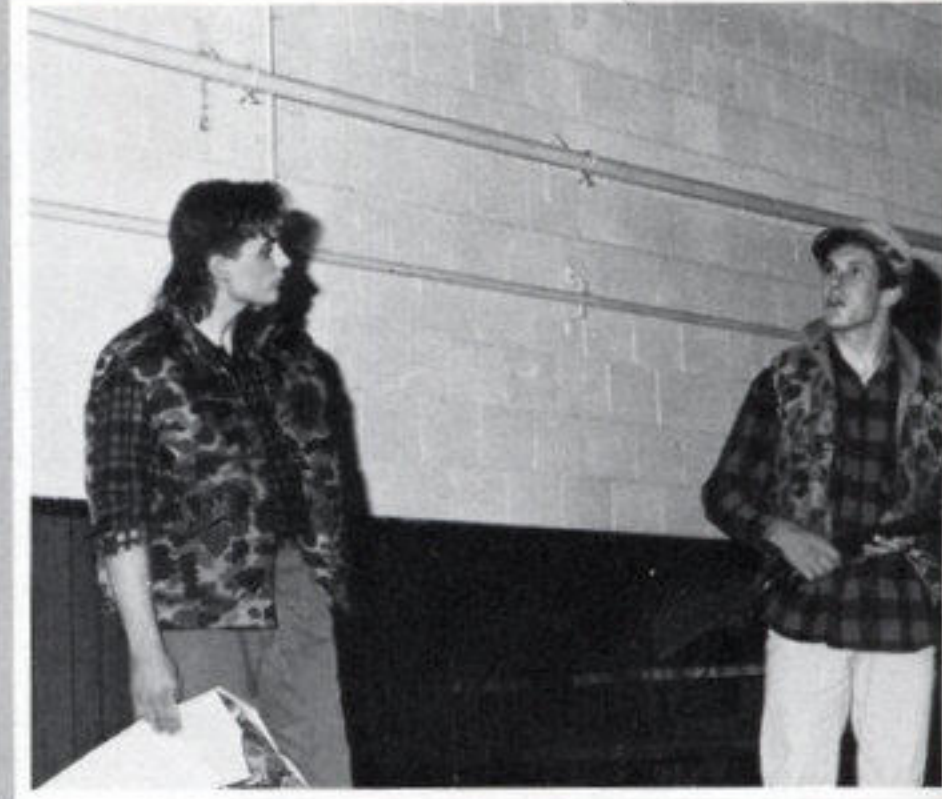

Many "new" things have been happening in the music department. Mrs. Barb Burks is the new choir director and she expressed that the group has been a great one to work with. She appreciated the student's dedication—especially those involved in Night Choir and New Traditions.

The first performance of New Traditions was at the Christmas concert for the mini-musical "Santa's Frosty Follies." The choir put on a Pops concert in the fall and the musical "Brigadoon" in the spring. They also participated in the District Ten Choral Festival and the Firelands Conference Festival. Several members went to the Solo and Ensemble contest in Mansfield where Amy McClure earned a Superior rating in Class A.

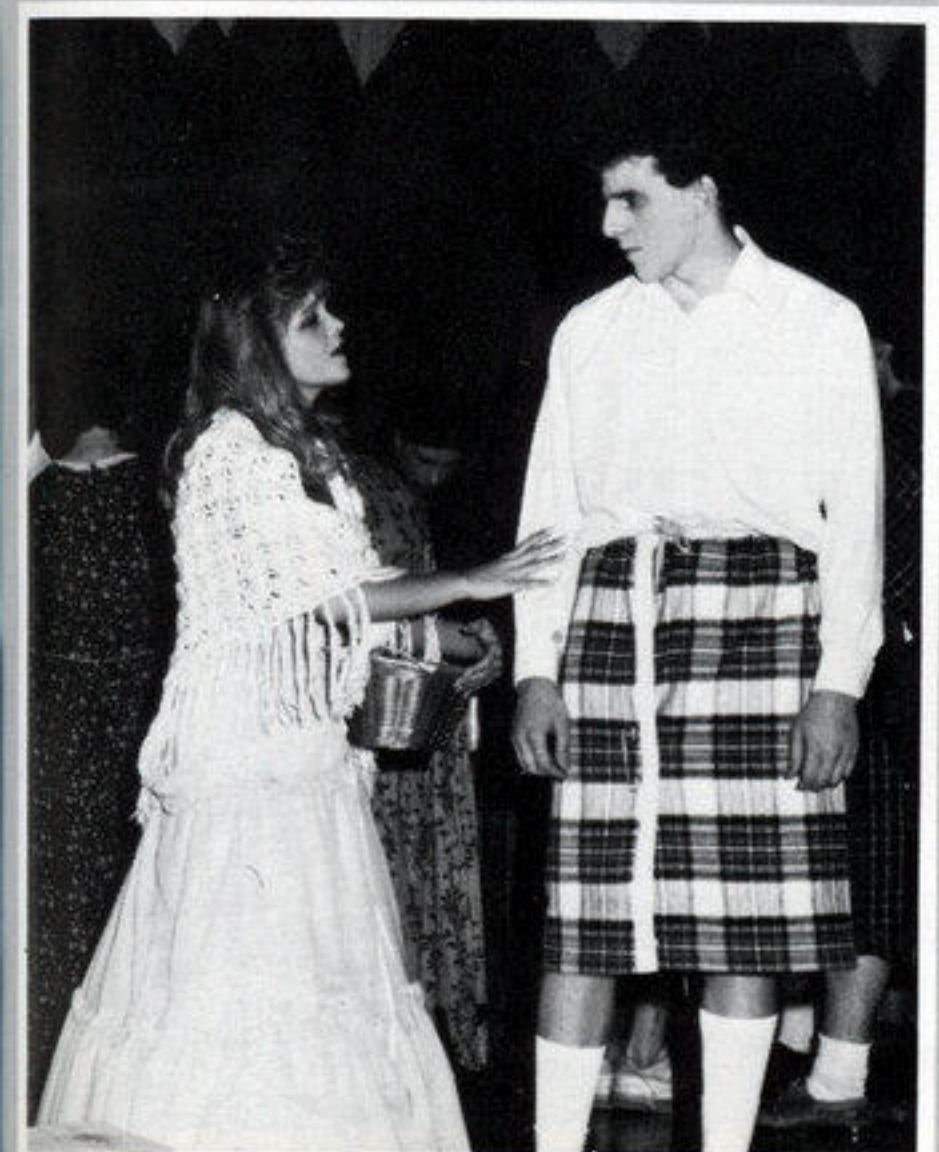

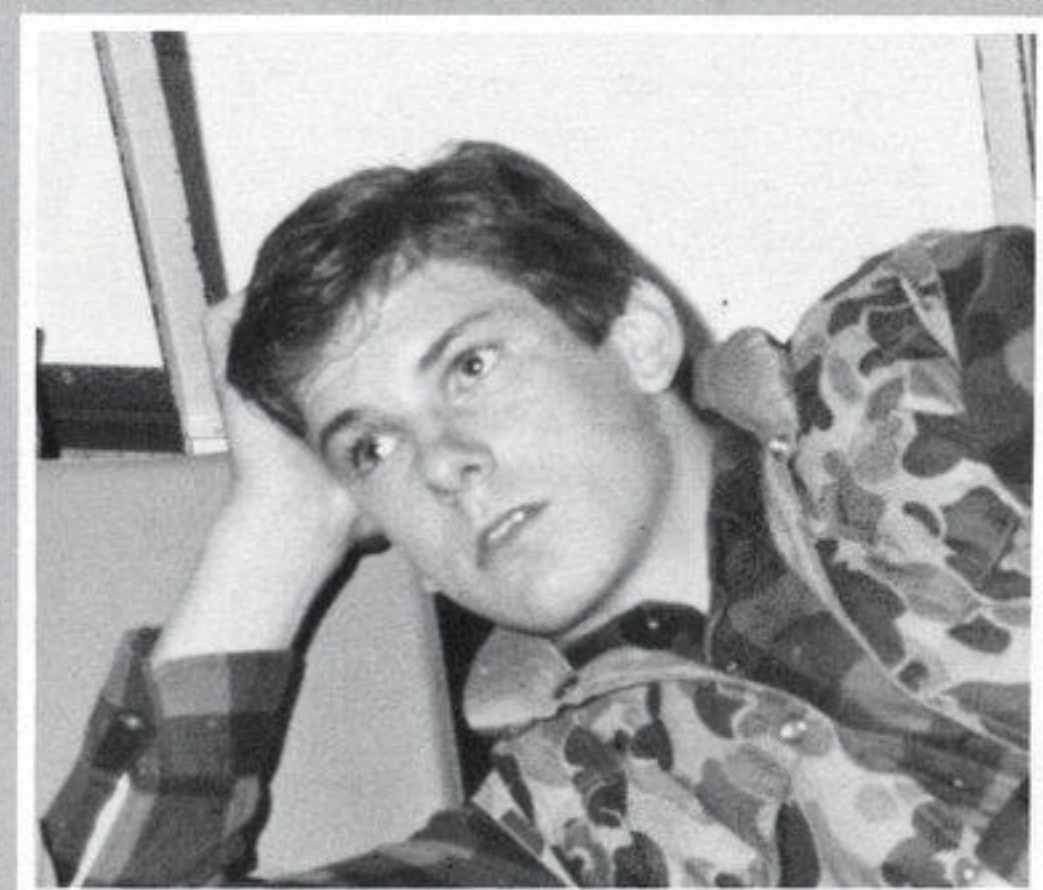

Choir officers are: Amy McClure, Pres.; Andy Steinmetz and Jack Winans, Co-Vice Pres.; Gina Collins, Sec.-Treas.; and John Beverly, Publicity Chairman.

The formation of a parent support group entitled "Music Boosters" was another new activity which has been very helpful to the Music Department.

"BRIGADOON"

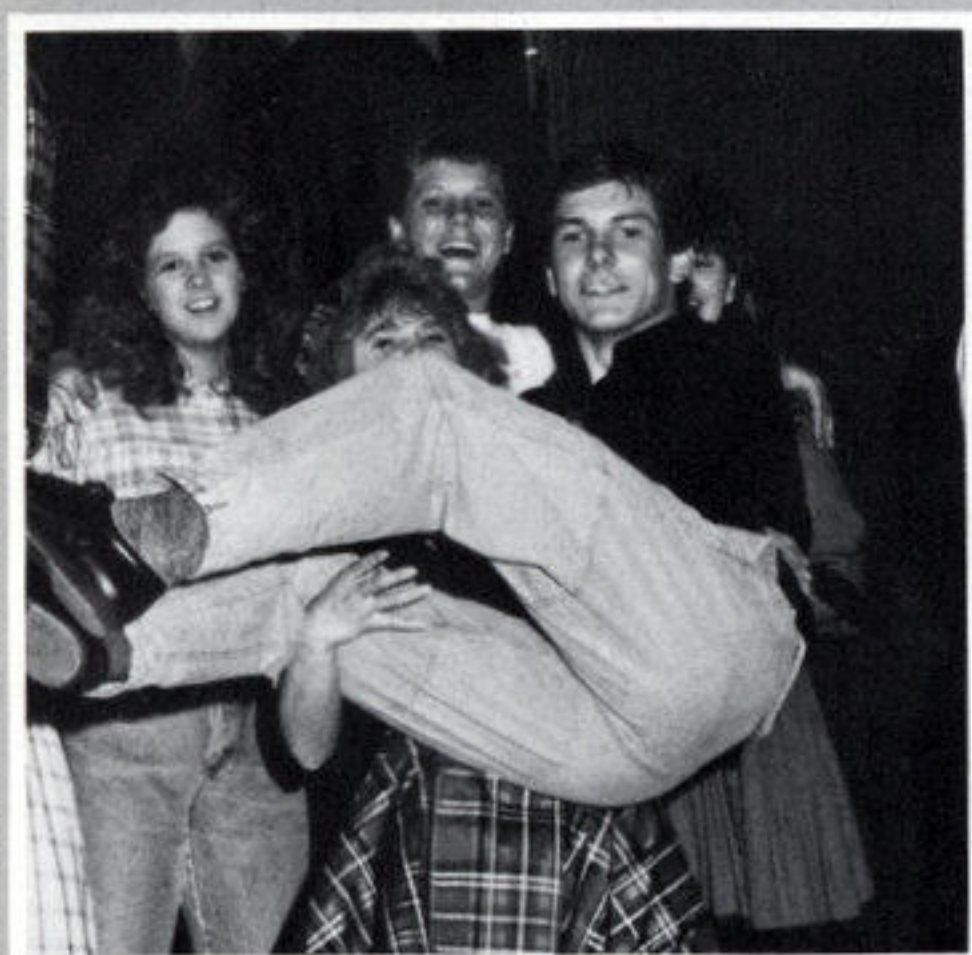

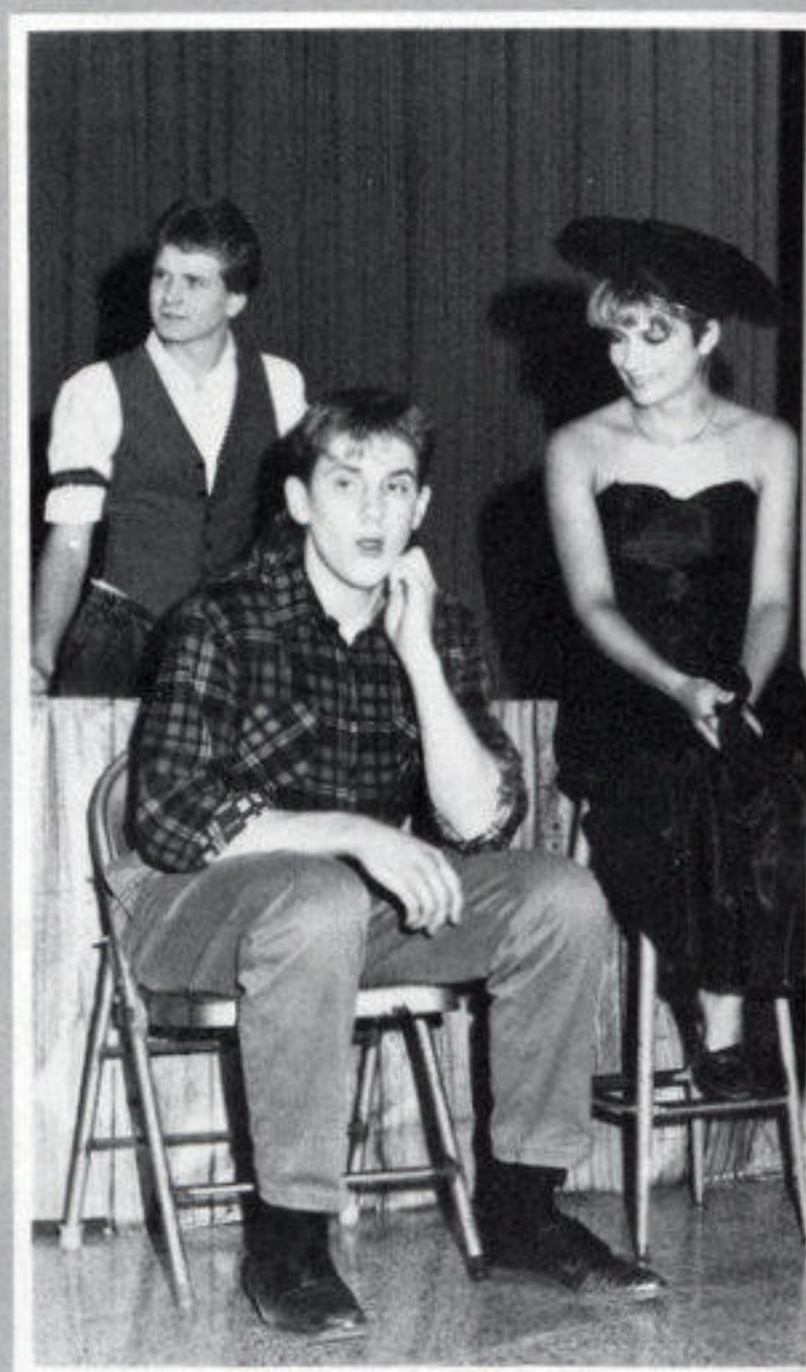

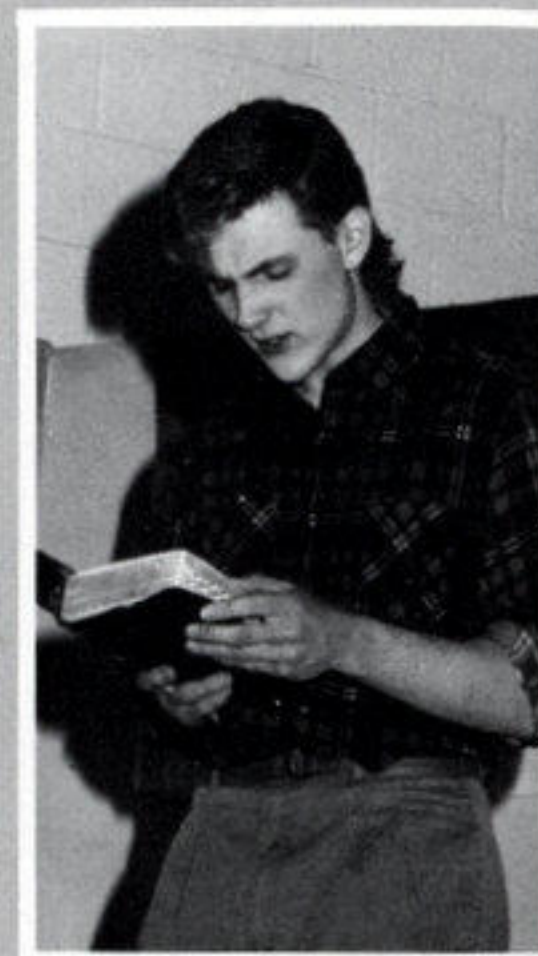

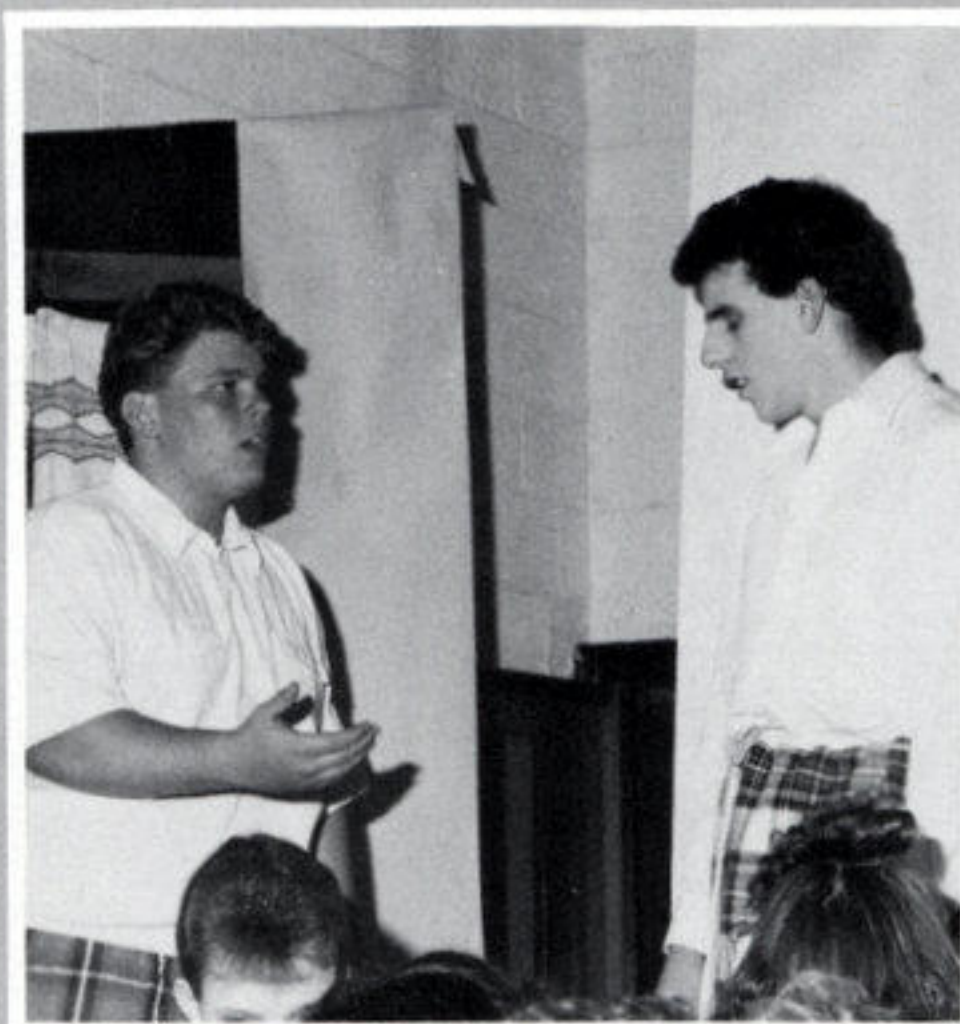

WHERE ANYTHING CAN

In 1990, two hunters from New York accidentally stumble upon a village from the 1790's. The romance that blossoms and the strange events that occur were all part of the quaint little village of Brigadoon. The miracle of Brigadoon was brought to life on the Plymouth stage this spring with it's director Mrs. Burks and a thirty-member cast including Brian Robinson, Duane Adams, Amy McClure, Missy Young, Jack Winans, April Pratt, Andy Steinmetz, David Williams, Corey Vesterman, Todd Smart, Marlo Reiderman, Lisa Rath, Danell Smart, Chris Roberts, Missy Hamilton, John Beverly, Katharina Birus, Diana Nickles, Angel Sparks, Holly Barnhouse, Gina Collins, Steve Powers, Sheila Slone, Pamela Johnson, Susie Adams, Kathy Myers, Amy Root, Julie Redden, Karlo Dubois, and Shari Hixon.
