Thanks a lot guys! Scott Albright, Andy Beebe, and David Sheeley.

Reserves play a big part in the Varsity game.

The JV learned a lot in their 2-6 season. They came on very strong at the end and played like a good team should . . . together!

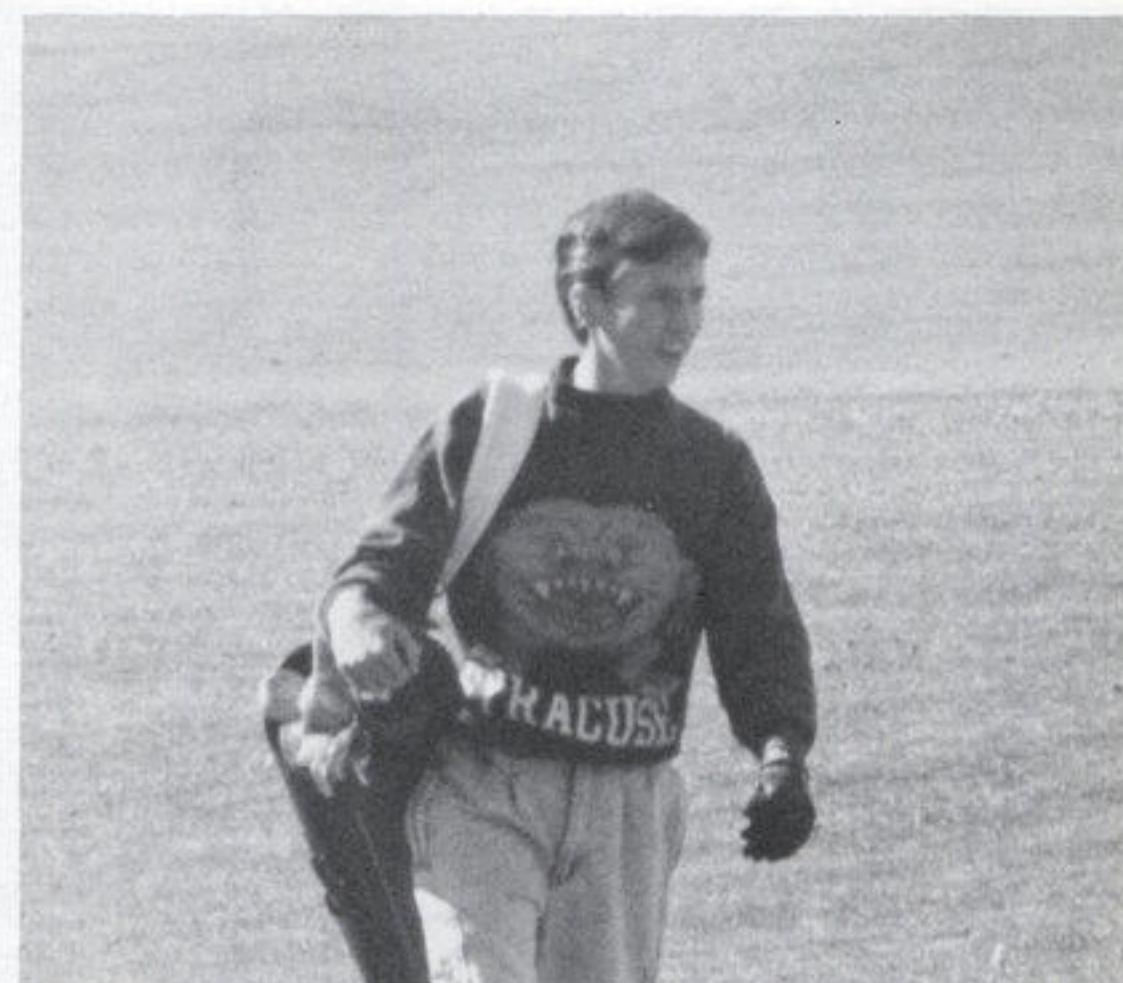

The JV played a key role in the varsity games. No matter what anyone says these guys are the Future Big Red Gridders.

The highlight of the JV season was the last minute victory over St. Paul with 1:38 left and the 6-0 victory over New London.

This year the Harriers were an average team, beating Hillsdale twice and Crestline, and usually finishing in the middle at invitational. Coach Paul Gase says, "This was a team of good friends who worked hard to achieve their goals. I believe it was a worthwhile and enjoyable adventure for them. I know it was for me."

Senior Lynn Cole qualified for Regionals, and the Top Runner awards went to Junior Marlo Reideman and Sophomore Tim Collins.

Although their record of 4-14 didn't prove it, the varsity Volleyball Team made a lot of progress and continually got better at playing as a team and having a winners attitude.

Led by captains Tammy Ward and Missy Young, the team's exciting wins were beating Northmor and Black River twice.

Special awards went to Tammy Ward for MVP and Missy Young got the Coaches Award. Coach Rendina would like to leave this quote for the girls by Bum Phillips, NFL Coach: "Loyalty up and down the line. That's one quality an organization must have to be successful."

The Reserve Volleyball team started out with a bang but ended up with a record of 2-18. Although some of the JV's didn't see a lot of playing time, their hard work during practice will pay off. First year coach, Lisa Faulhaber said they're a dedicated group of girls. Their patience will prove to be their asset when they do earn their starting positions and she also encourages them to keep up the hard work.

Captains Angel Combs and Mandy Deskins led the team and saw action at the varsity level during tournaments due to their great improvement. Connie Ross received the MVP Award.

Brian tries for two.

Jeff goes up, up and away.

New Coach Anthony Decello tried to put together a winning basketball team and experienced a season of ups and downs ending with a record of 7 & 21. The team had only four senior lettermen returning and much of the responsibility fell to sophomores seeing first-year varsity action. One of the highlights of the year for the team was breaking the 100 point barrier against Monroeville.

Brothers Matt and Jeff Smedley received the MVP and Most Improved Player awards respectively.

Coach Simmermacher gives inspiration to the team.

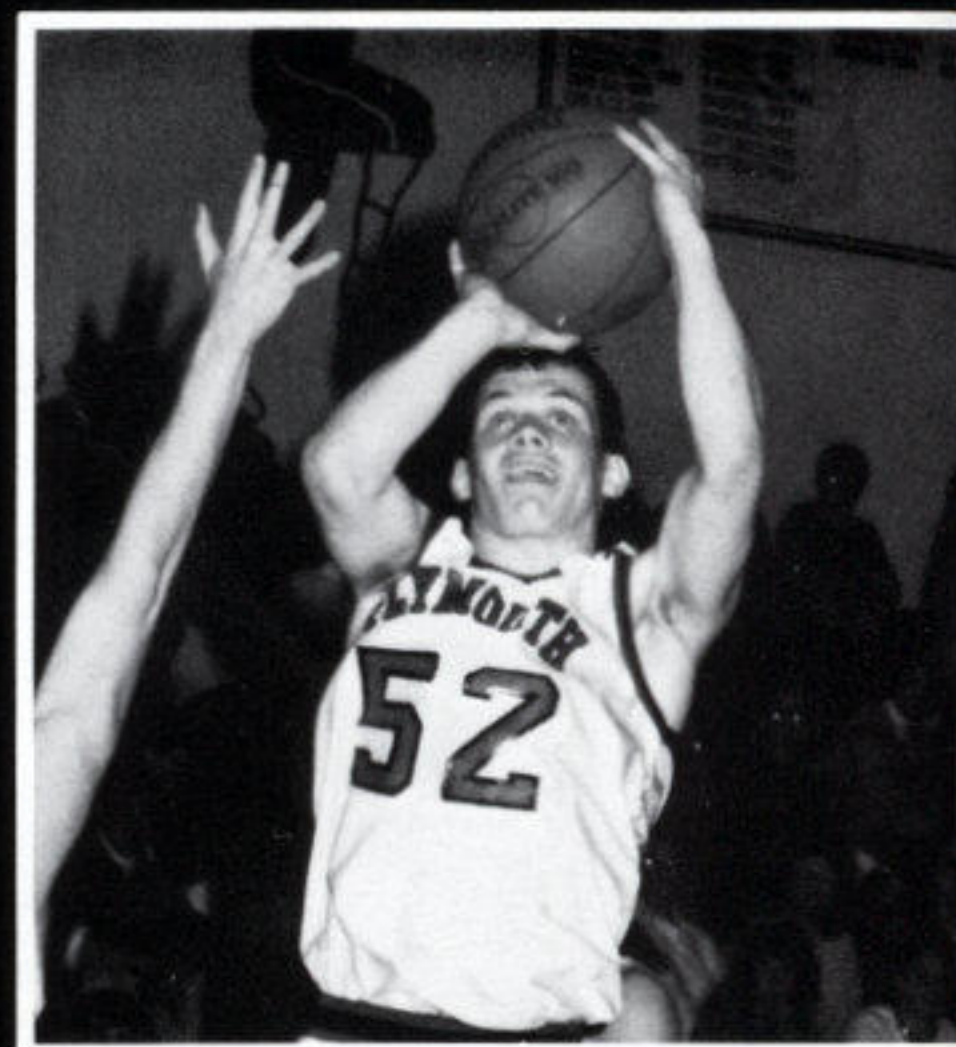

First year coach Brett Simmermacher said he enjoyed working with the JV players because they were a hard working group and put together a nice season ending with a respectable record of 11-9. One of the highlights of the season was beating Mapleton who was 12-2 at the time. Coach Simmermacher hopes they will continue to work hard and improve their basketball skills for next year.

Coach Conkle and Coach Burks prepare Steve for the match.

Plymouth Wrestling took a big step this year, a step toward being a great team. Some highlights of the year were Andy Bowman qualifying for State tournament, Steve Powers being selected to wrestle in the NCOWCA All-Star Match, and Dennis Cunningham and Chris Roberts being Regional qualifiers.

Special awards went to Andy Bowman for Most Valuable Wrestler, and Jack Winans and Dennis Cunningham for Most Improved Wrestlers.

Coach Conkle said If the team continues to progress like they did this year, they should have three State qualifiers and six Regional qualifiers next year, especially since all but three people return.

VARSITY WINS SECTIONAL

First year Coach Paul Gase had good reason to say "this was a great team and a joy to coach." They had the most wins in PHS history with 20, and were ranked 18th. in Ohio ending the season as Sectional Champs.

Several team members received special awards including Bryan Combs for MVP and All State honors. Bryan also was named to District First Team, while Chris Gullett made District Second Team and Steve Kennard received District honorable mention. Making Firelands First Team were Bryan Combs, Doug Cunningham, and Brian Slone.

The National Honor Society had a busy year under second year Advisor Joan Felver. The President was Missy Young, and the Secretary was Theresa Armstrong. The group's major project was to adopt a nursing home. They visited at Halloween and Christmas bringing presents and goodies to the residents. They also decided to help raise money for the Martin family, a local family who lost their home due to a fire.

The officers for Student Council were Pres. Shari Hixon, Vice Pres. Duane Adams, Treas. Homer Hawk, Sec. Justin Slau-son. The groups' biggest project was sending 9 boxes of Christmas "goodies" to area servicemen in the Persian Gulf.

PHS Drama Club

Practice, practice, practice

... and more practice!

Intently directing at dress rehearsal

The '90-'91 Drama Club revitalized the dramatic arts at PHS with their production of Fred Carmichael's "Done To Death." Many felt it was the best the school has seen in years. The Drama Club attended the Findlay University High School Drama Workshop, and also attended various local theatre productions throughout the year. The title of best actor was awarded to Duane Adams, best actress to Missy Young.

WE PUT IT TOGETHER

All tied up Amy?

We're going Ad-hunting?

Hi Mom!

One of the rare times when someone was actually working!

74-YEARBOOK STAFF

This was a year of trying to meet deadlines. "We were having so much fun we sometimes forgot the purpose," said Duane Adams, Editor, who with Mrs. Buurma's help kept the rest of the staff working on their pages.

Putting a yearbook together is a lot more complicated than it looks and every year there are new members who have to learn everything from scratch. However, they were a willing group and managed to come through when the pressure got tough. Hopefully, their efforts will be appreciated.

ART CLUB

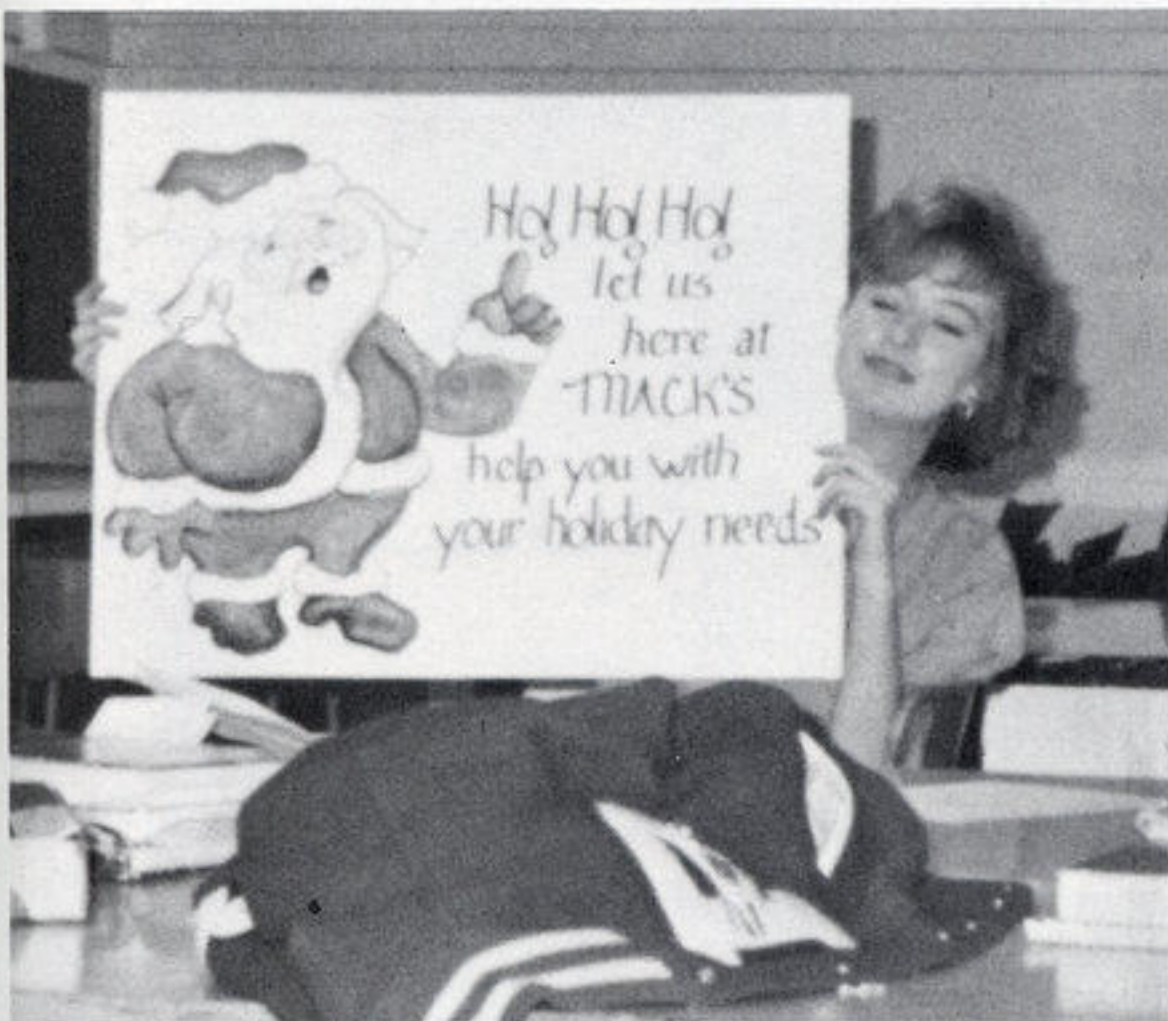

Because there was a renewed interest with numerous art students in doing extra artistic activities, the Art Club was reactivated this year. Erica Bailey was elected President, Brian Amburgey, Vice President, Michelle Krietemeyer, Secretary, and Kathy Champasouk, Treas.

The group sold donuts every Friday morning in the high school cafeteria. They also did several special activities during the year including painting downtown store windows at Christmas and providing special services for groups and teachers. Among these services were making posters, designing bulletin boards, and painting the mural in the upstairs hall.

The group went to the Toledo Museum of Art on April 30 with the money they raised from all their activities.

FHA INCREASES MEMBERSHIP

Mrs. Kirkpatrick

Advisors Mrs. Carole Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Joan Felver were pleased with the enthusiasm of the 1991 FHA. They said that 65% of the members remained active participants all year.

Officers were Heather Carroll, Pres.; Kathy Champasouk, Treas.; Amy Heifner, Historian; Dorothy Blankenship, News Reporter; Layne Goth, Student Representative; and Jenny Wolfenbarger, Program Chairman.

Several members attended Regional Rally Competition where they received a First place in Team Demonstration, Second in Consumer Decision Making, and Third for the Chapter Activity Manual. They received the Champion II Award for increasing their membership by more than 25%.

Several yearly activities included FHA Week, a bake sale, a fund raiser dance for Childrens Hospital, and Christmas Caroling at Quality Care Nursing Home.

WINTER FANTASY DANCE . . .

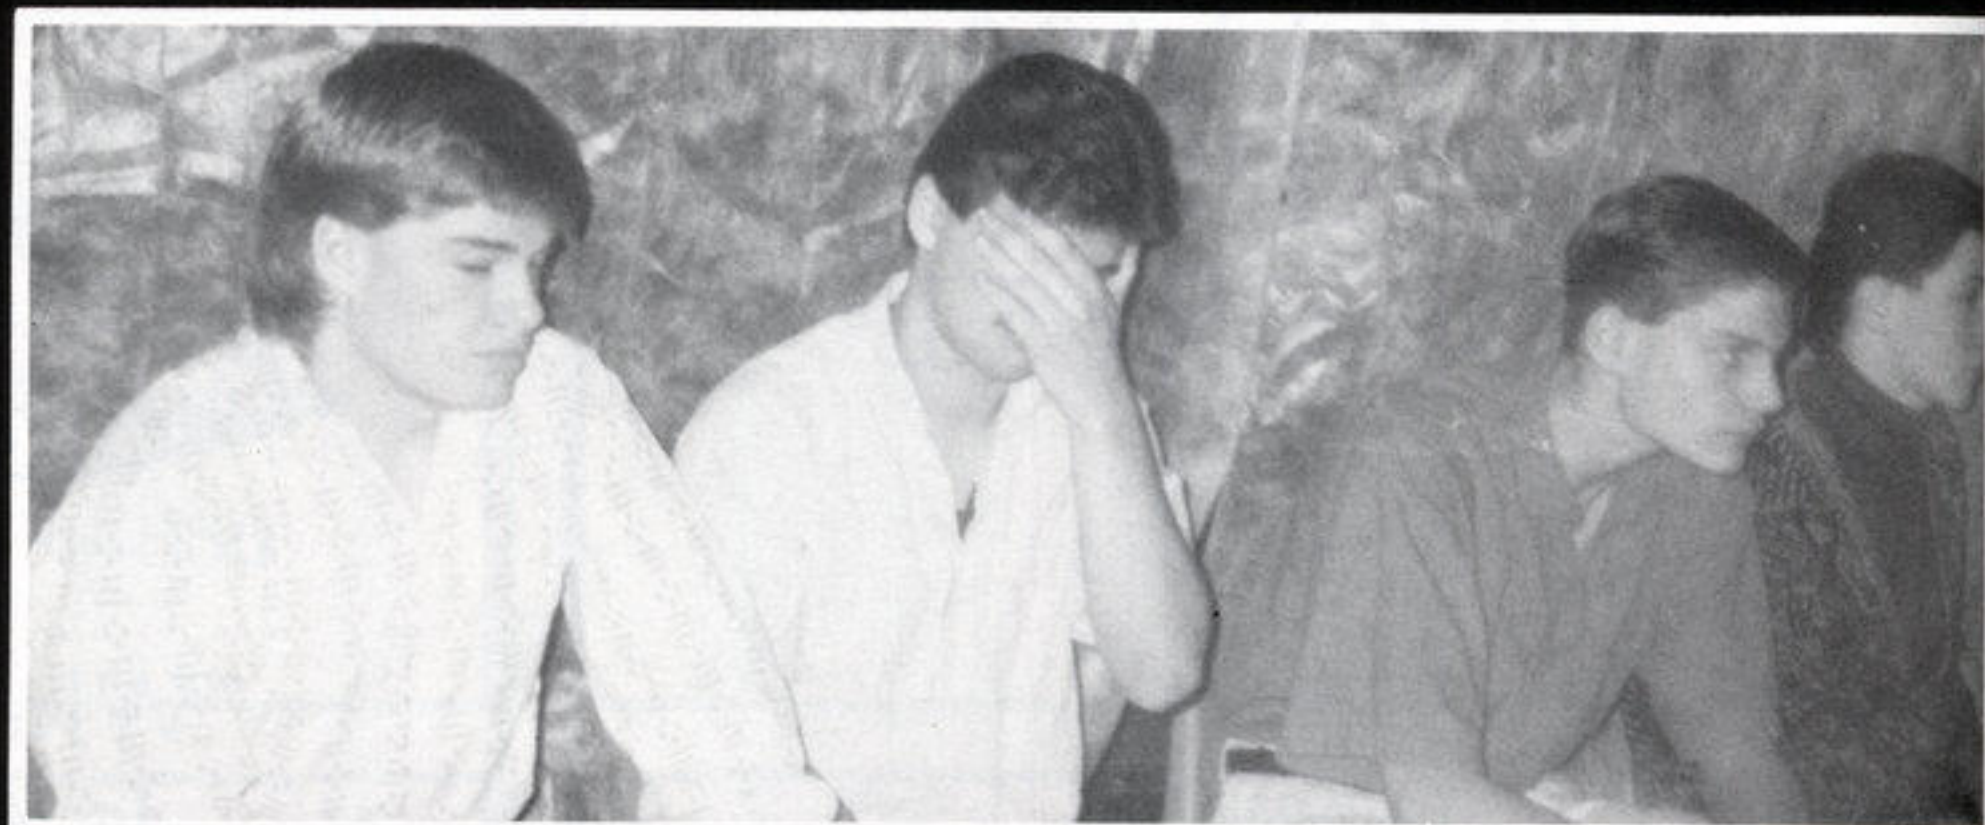

D.J.s Rick Webber and Scott Jennings

It's snowing!

I can't watch this!

The first Winter Fantasy dance was held on Jan. 19 as a fund-raiser for the Yearbook. The staff of twelve students worked all day decorating. They transformed the old gym into a beautiful blue and white wonderland of twinkling lights and silvery stars. Their hard efforts definitely were worth it because the dance was a huge success with over 150 students attending. D.J.s were Rick Webber and Scott Jennings.

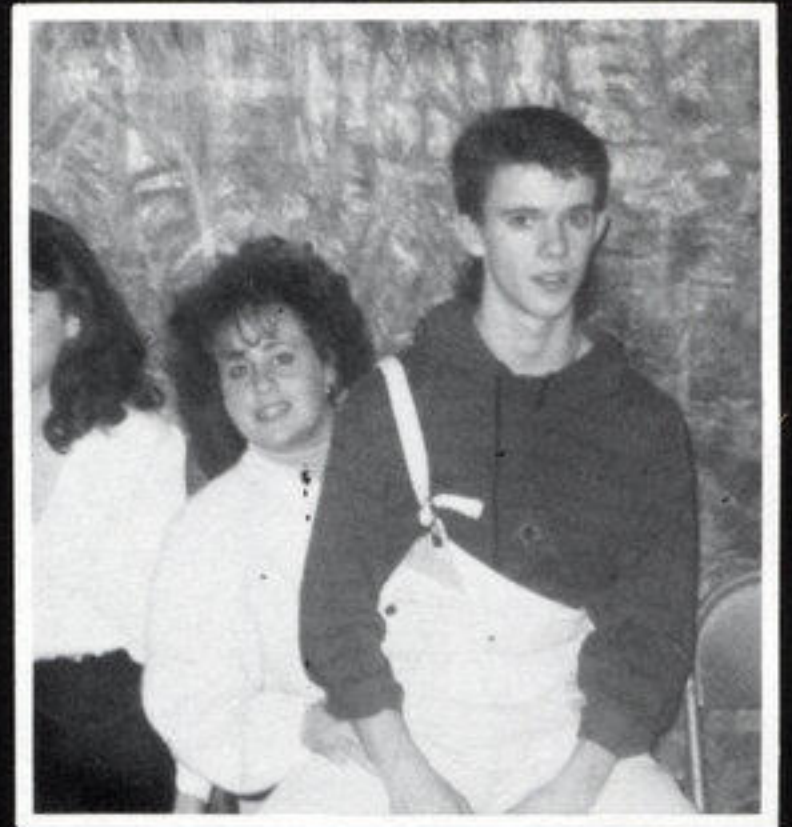

A FANTASY INDEED!!!

The Perfect Couple

Hey, Yuka! Where did you learn to dance like that?

Jason, my legs are falling asleep.

I don't believe this.

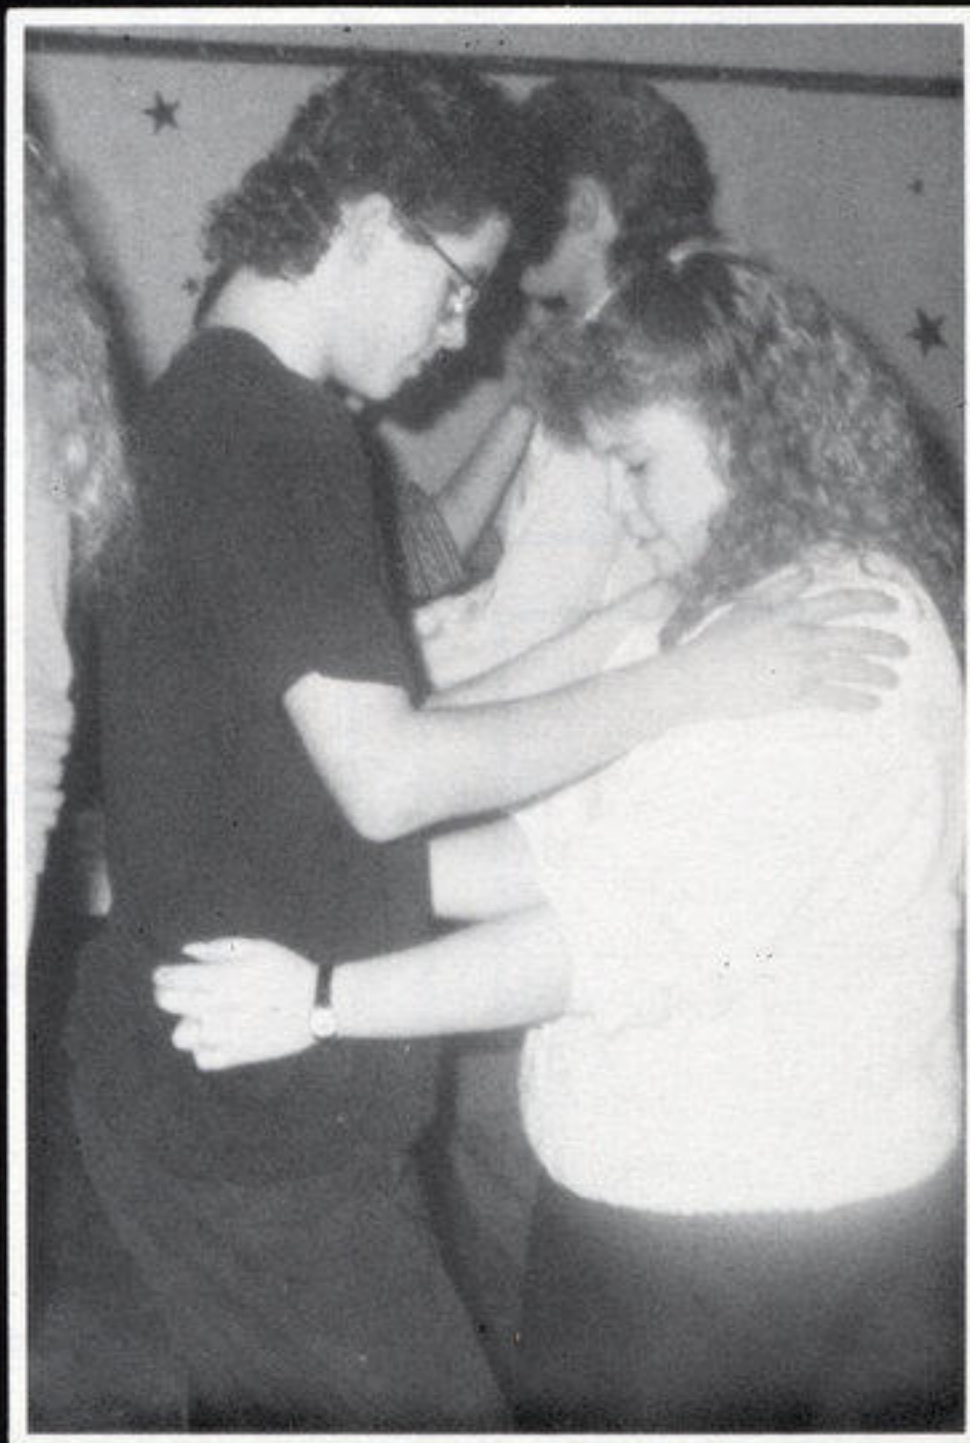

I'm allowed! I'm the Yearbook Editor!

Watch this!

Kiss me, you fool!

It's 1, 2, 3 not 1 . . 3 . . 2!
