COMMUNITY WORKS TO SAVE EXTRACURRICULARS

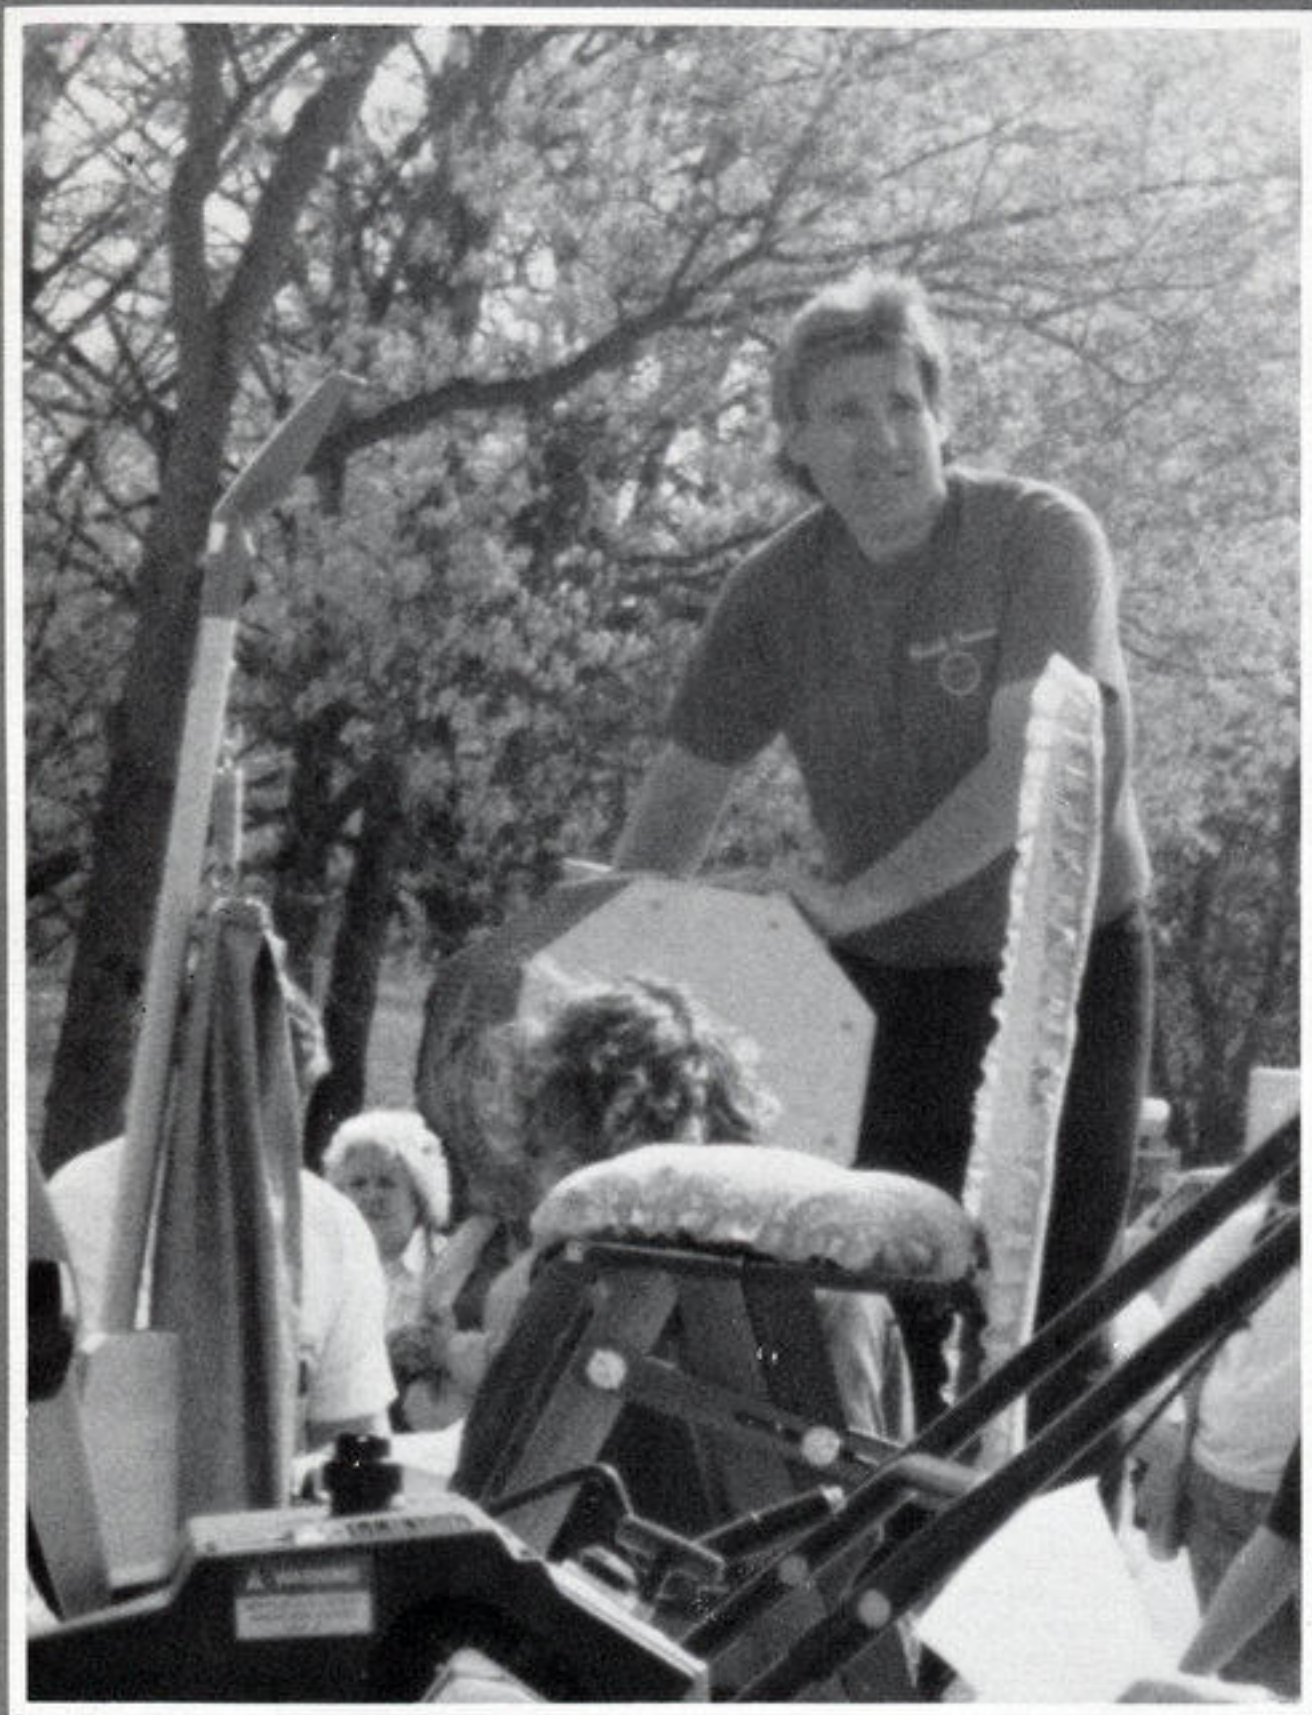

Starting in October, 1991, the Save Plymouth/Shiloh Extracurriculars Committee began an extensive fundraising drive to save extracurriculars for the '92-'93 school year. They did many activities including selling Pepsi, Pizza Hut and Dominos pizza cards, having a spaghetti dinner and a 3 on 3 basketball tournament, and a huge raffle and auction which was held on May 2. Many area businesses, community members, and school groups gave donations and pledges to make these efforts a success. The group raised enough money to have extracurriculars reinstated for 1992-93.

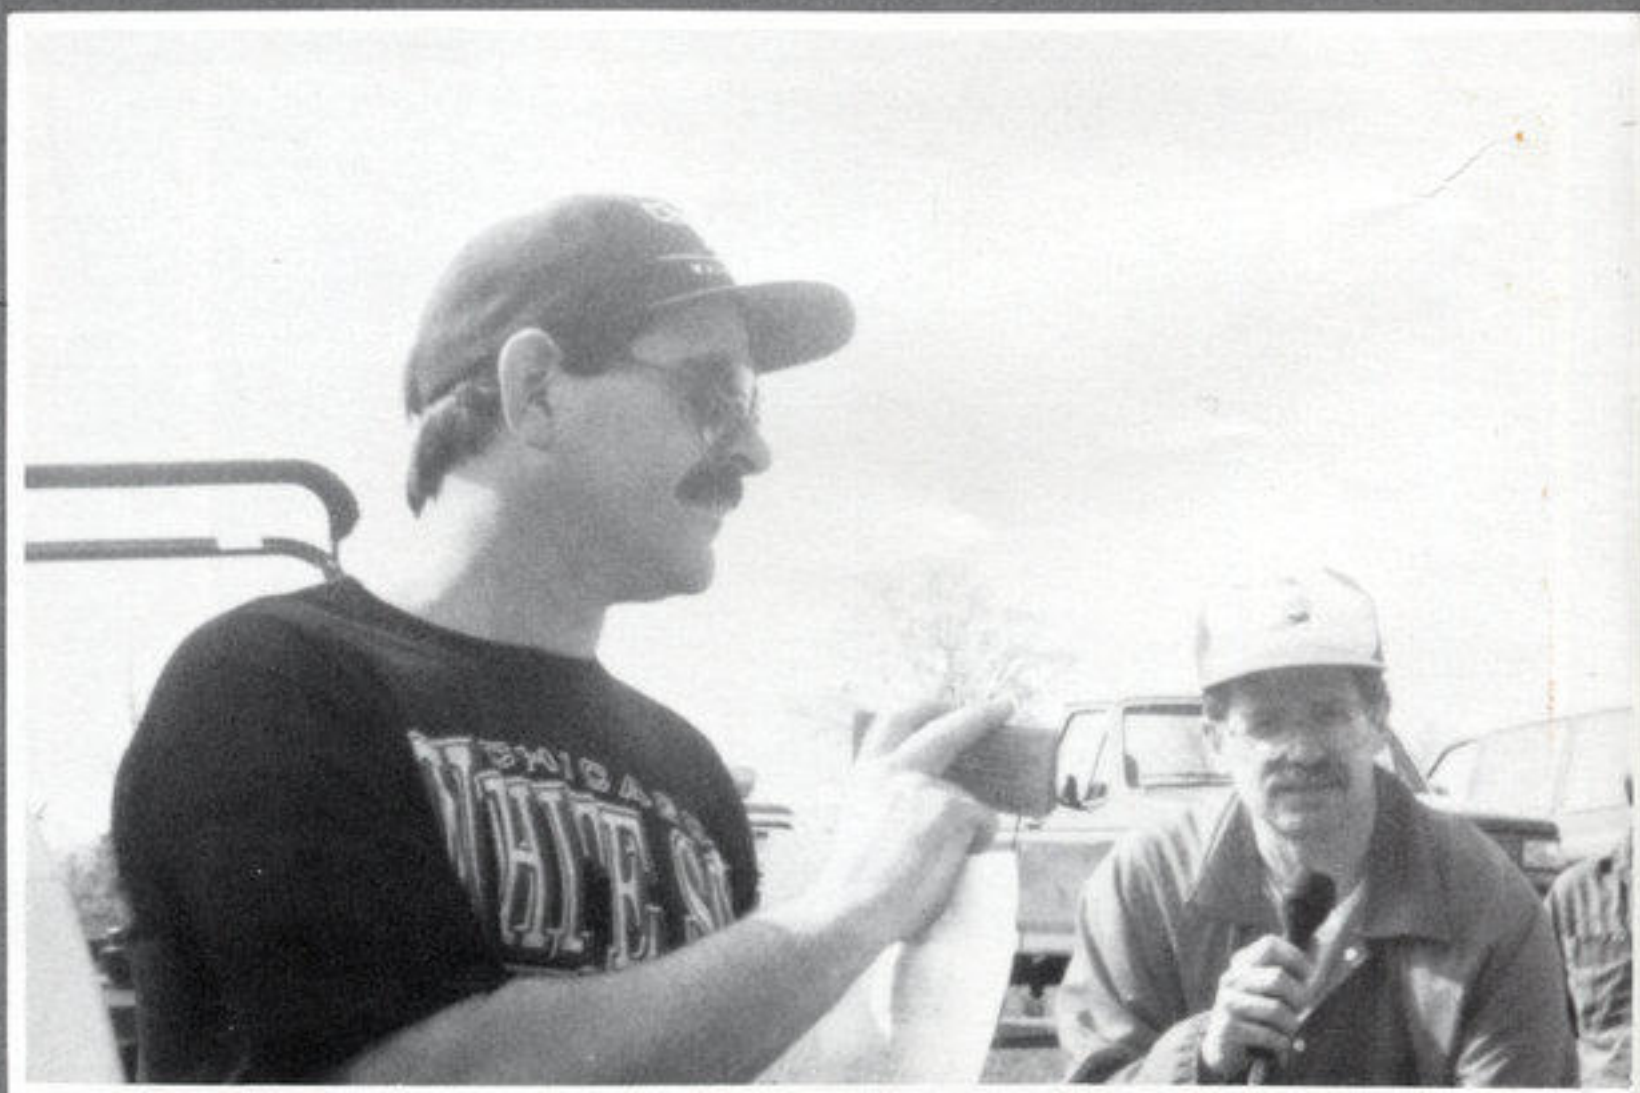

People enjoy looking before the auction gets started.

Charles Miller runs the auction as people wait to bid.

Terry Fenner reaches in the bin to pick another raffle winner.

Randall Hall and Doug Dickson get the raffle drawing started.

FIRST TEACHER RECOGNITION

The Viking Academic Booster Club held its first annual Staff Recognition Dinner on April 25, 1992, at the Celeryville Community Center. Honorees were chosen from letters received by former students, nominating school employees whom they felt had had a particularly positive impact on their lives. The staff members who were recognized and their nominators were: math teacher Edna Albright by Richard Russell (class of '74); retired science teacher Jerry Bishop by Kris Barnthouse ('84); science teacher David Coulter by Leanne Keenan ('89); and social studies teacher Doug Dickson by Richard Russell. The VABC plans to continue this program on a yearly basis.

Mr. Jerry Bishop, Mr. David Coulter, Mrs. Edna Albright, and Mr. Doug Dickson received the original nominator's letter as their award.

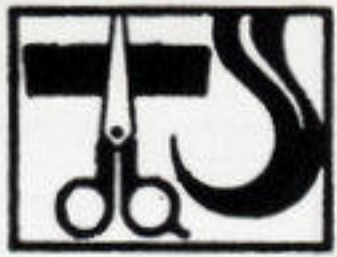

On Feb. 1, 1992, Mrs. Ann Ford was honored at a retirement dinner at the Palmer House in Galion. Mrs. Ford served as treasurer for the district from Sept. 1, 1981 to Dec. 31, 1991.

The Court leads off the first dance of the night.

The night was filled with romance and lots of dancing.

Pam and Brian admire the beautiful decorations!

Ira and Homer enjoy a slow dance.

And yes, even more dancing!

The Junior clasXs really worked hard to make this a night to remember.

Taking a rest before the next song!

1, 2, 3, or is it 3, 2, 1 exclaims Christy and Kiesha.

Michelle and Misty are glad the Prom was a success.

WRESTLERS PIN

The 1991-92 Plymouth wrestling team was plagued with a lack of upperclassmen and senior leadership. They were also forced to use ten Freshmen and Sophomores due to injuries and eligibility problems. Coach Rich Conkle said even with all the problems, the young men showed a lot of stamina and learned many lessons to build a solid wrestling program for next year and hopefully be a challenge for the Firelands Conference.

Highlights of the season were placing eighth at the Hillsdale Invitational, Steve Powers' championship at Hillsdale, and especially Chris Roberts' championships at St. Pete's and the Firelands Conference, which was only the second time in school history that this happened. Chris also earned first place at the North Central Ohio Wrestling Coaches Assoc. All-Star Meet.

CONCERT, PEP, AND JAZZ BANDS

The trombone section huffs and puffs and blows the stand down.

Greg Luckie overpowering the entire band.

The PHS Concert band of '92 consisted of 49 people and was directed by Mr. Jeff Conklin.

The first-ever All Firelands Conference Jazz Band blew the roof off Crestview High School on May 8th. Plymouth's own Michelle Smart tooted on her Tenor Sax and Ira Saarinen tickled the ivories for this special musical event.

Also on May 8th at Crestview, the All Firelands Conference Concert Band was held. Representing Plymouth in the best way they know how were Amy Edler (flute, piccolo), Andy Fenner (trumpet), Greg Mongold (percussion), Amy Root (alto sax), Justin Slauson (trombone), and Montelle Smart (trombone). Two snaps up for these talented musical folk!

The All Richland County Band performed on April 24th at Madison Comprehensive School. The following people performed at this "granddaddy" of musical events: Amy Edler (flute), Neil Schuller (trumpet), Justin Slauson (trombone), and Michelle Smart (tenor sax).

The pep band definitely livened up the PHS boys' and girls' basketball games. The loud and boisterous tunes had the "Bleacher Creatures" and the rest of the crowd shaking their rumps!

Ira plinks out a lovely tune on the xylophone.

Funding the trip through several of their own projects, the students were able to enjoy such experiences as touring the city's historical sites, meeting students from all over the country and performing in front of the Washington Monument. Everyone had an excellent time and agreed that the trip was a great success.
