Havamal

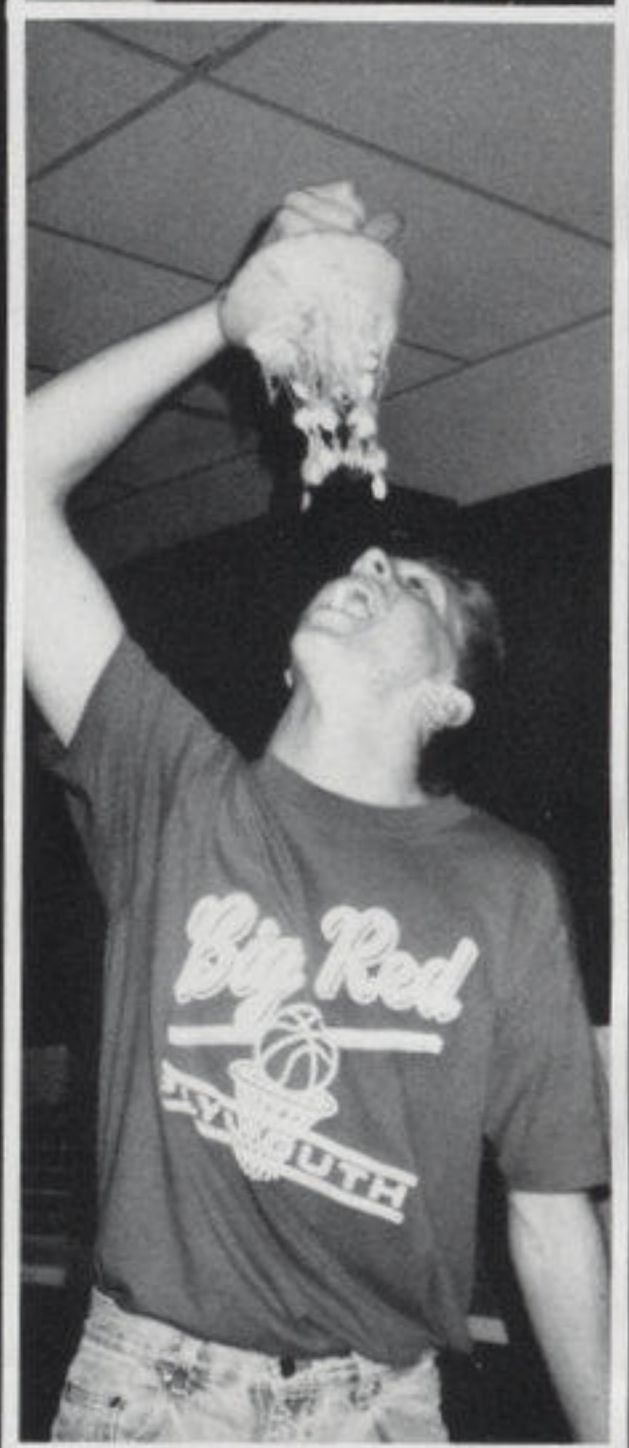

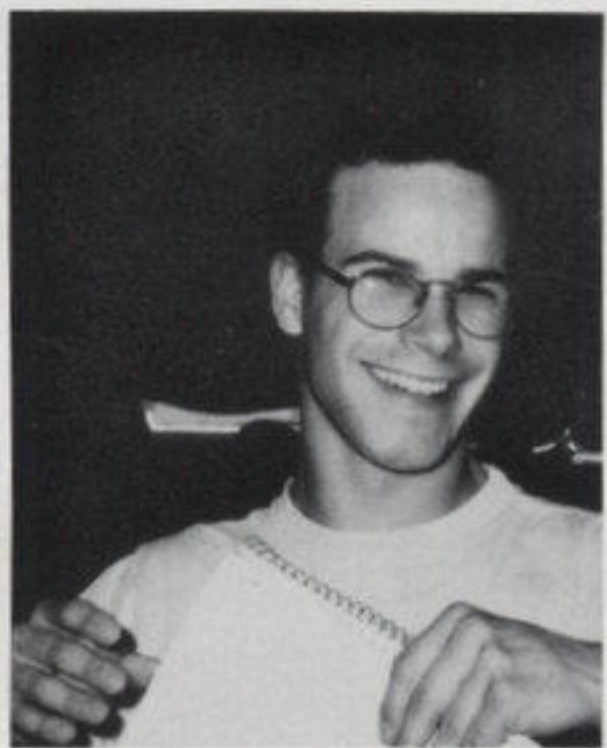

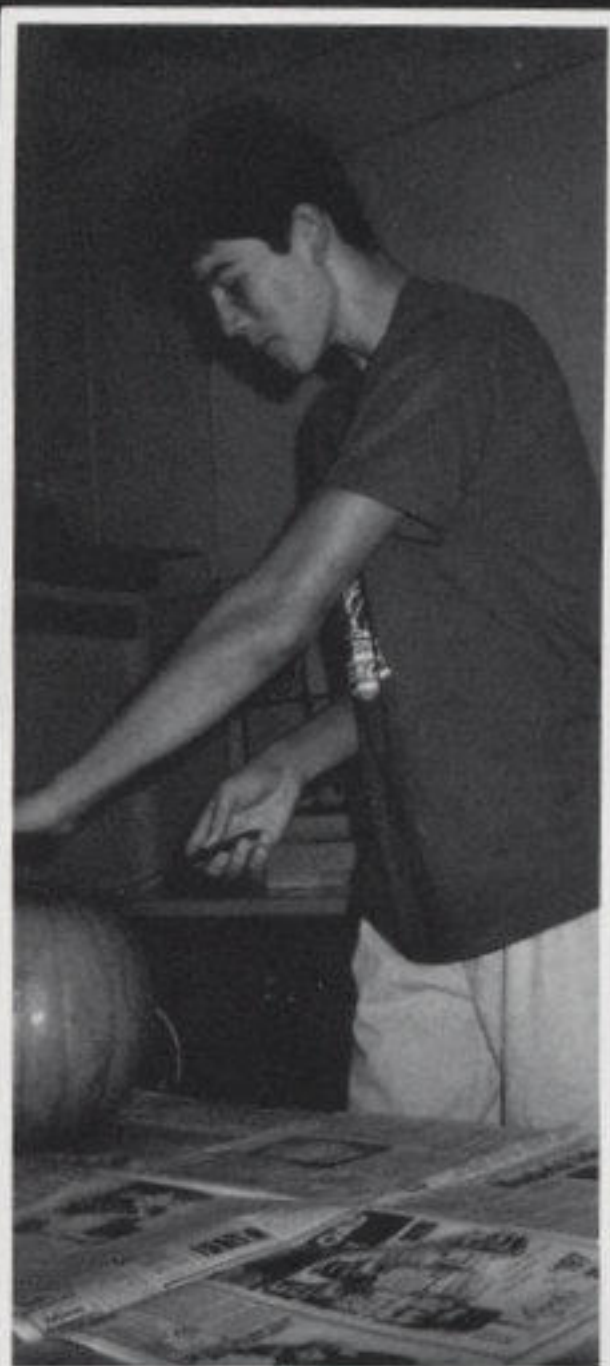

1993 HAVAMAL PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL 184 SANDUSKY STREET PLYMOUTH OHIO, 44865

The meaning of the Havamal is the "Song of the High." It is the Norse code on the conduct of life in a long narrative saga in poetic form which illustrates the Viking rules of life. Expressed in the Havamal are many subjects encountered in everyday life, such as man's happiness, the value of science and the duty of cheerfulness and bravery. Other ideas warn that wealth is the most unstable of friends; that no man is without his faults; and cautions man not to neglect his friends.

In 1963, Havamal was chosen as the theme for the Yearbook and has remained the title because of its historical significance and its application to modern day living.

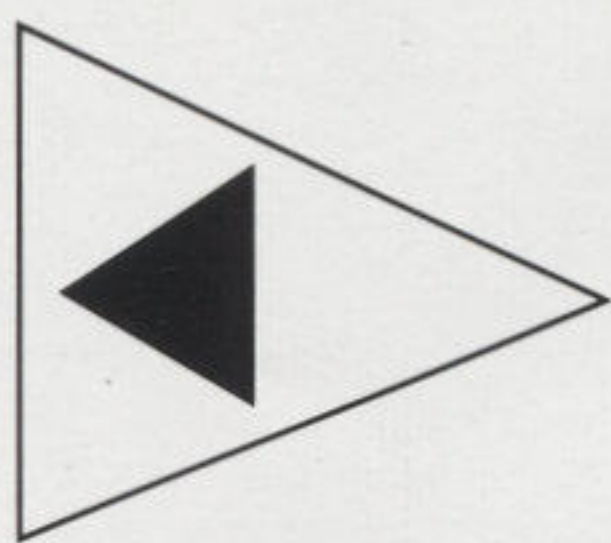

In a small class where everyone's close, a member of the class of 1993 has left us with many lasting memories. She will always have a special place in our hearts.

Elaine Hawk, Jenny Kraft, Carrie Chase, Raina Barber, Michele Delarber, Susie Adams, Shelley Oney, Brian Kennard, Vickie Sergent, Amy Heifner, John Lugo, Kevin Caudill, Jason Hill, Doug Studer.

Jason and Susie

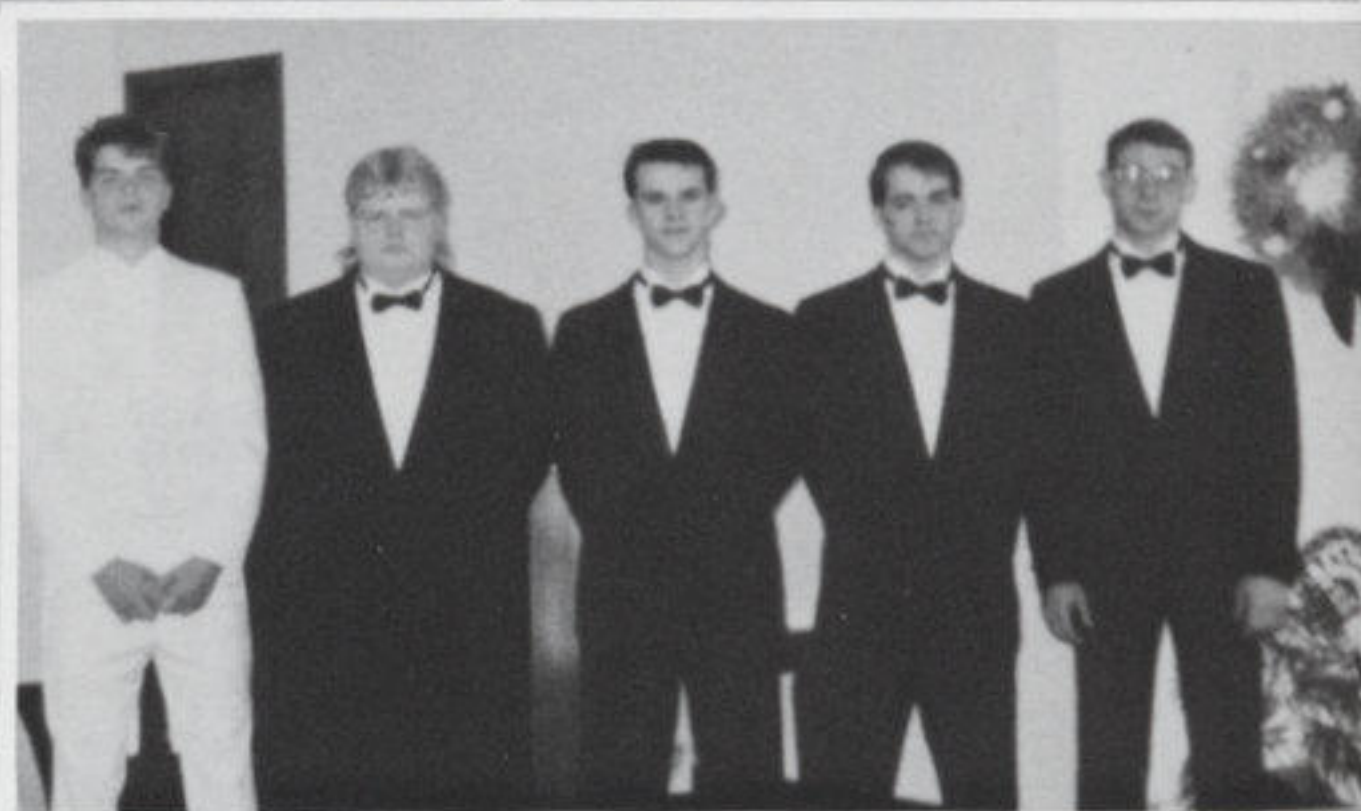

On April 21, Mrs. Felver's Senior Relationships class held their annual mock wedding. John Lugo and Amy Heifner and Brian Kennard and Vickie Sergent were the "lucky" couples. Fathers of the brides were Doug Studer and Terry Stroup. Best men were Kevin Caudill and Jason Hill. Bridesmaids included Elaine Hawk, Carrie Chase, Michele Delarber, Jenny Kraft, and Raina Barber. Lydia Giesige and Kristen Shriver were flower girls and ring bearers were Dustin Barber and A.J. Shepherd. Pianist was Amy Root and Mrs. Linda Buurma was soloist. The ceremony was held at Rainbow Valley Chapel and was officiated by Pastor Dan Humrichouser.

Time to spare.

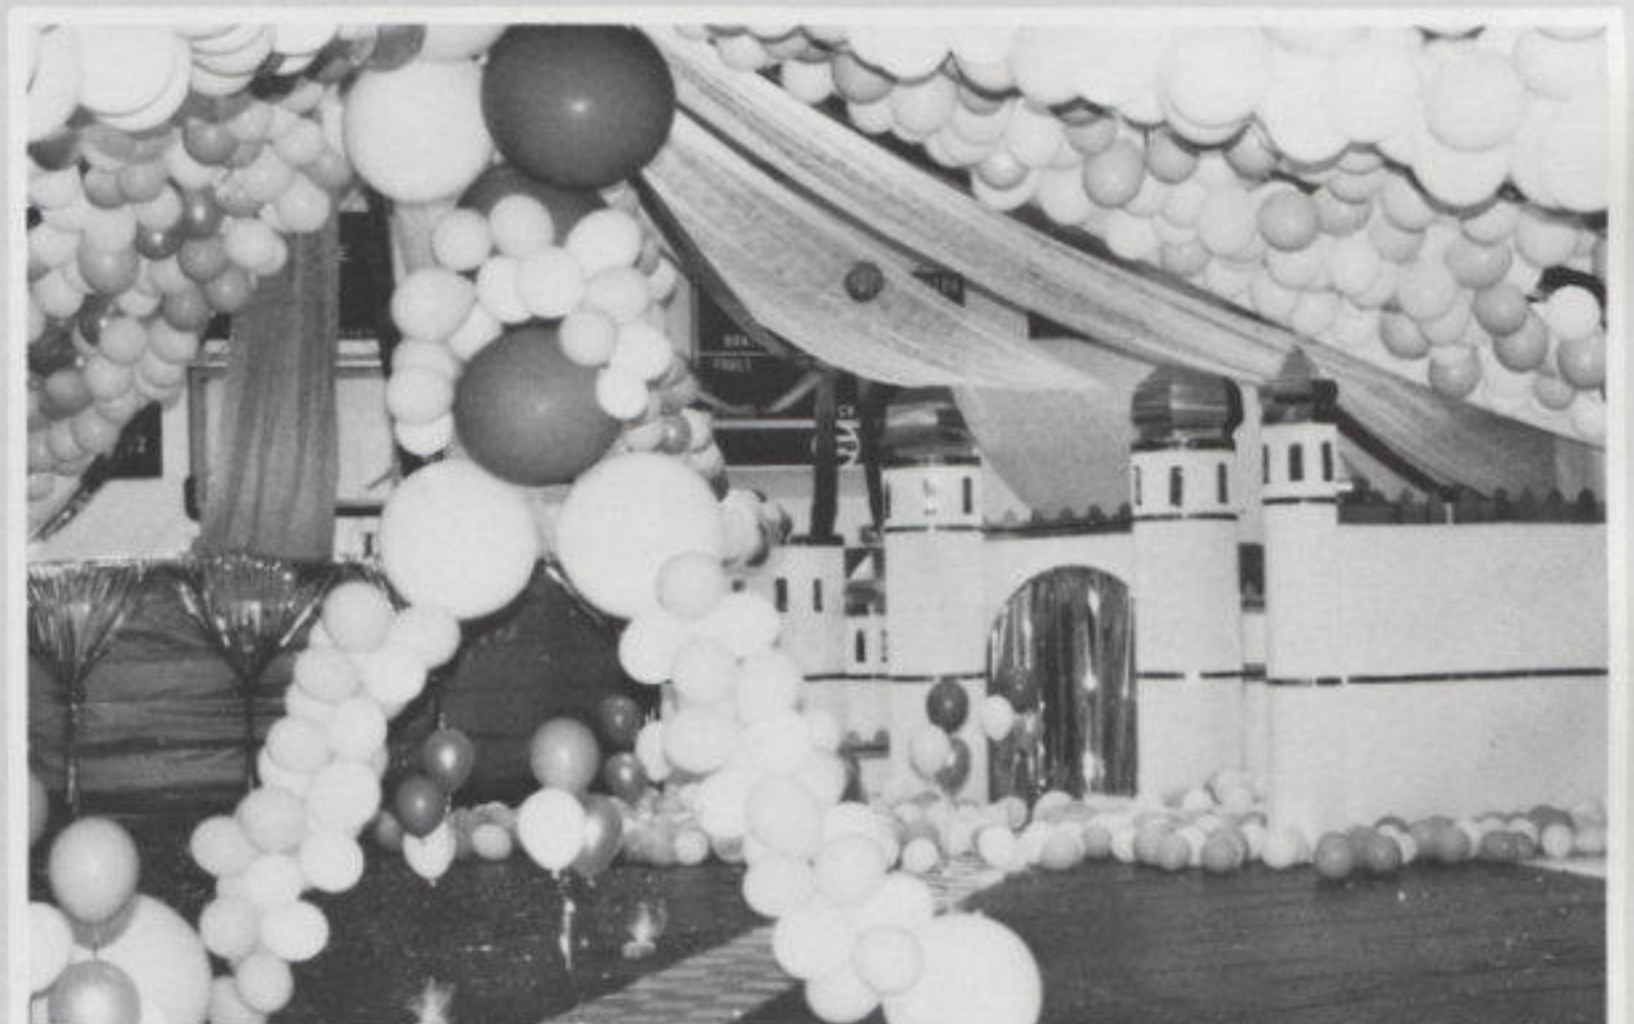

Tell me, Prince Brian.

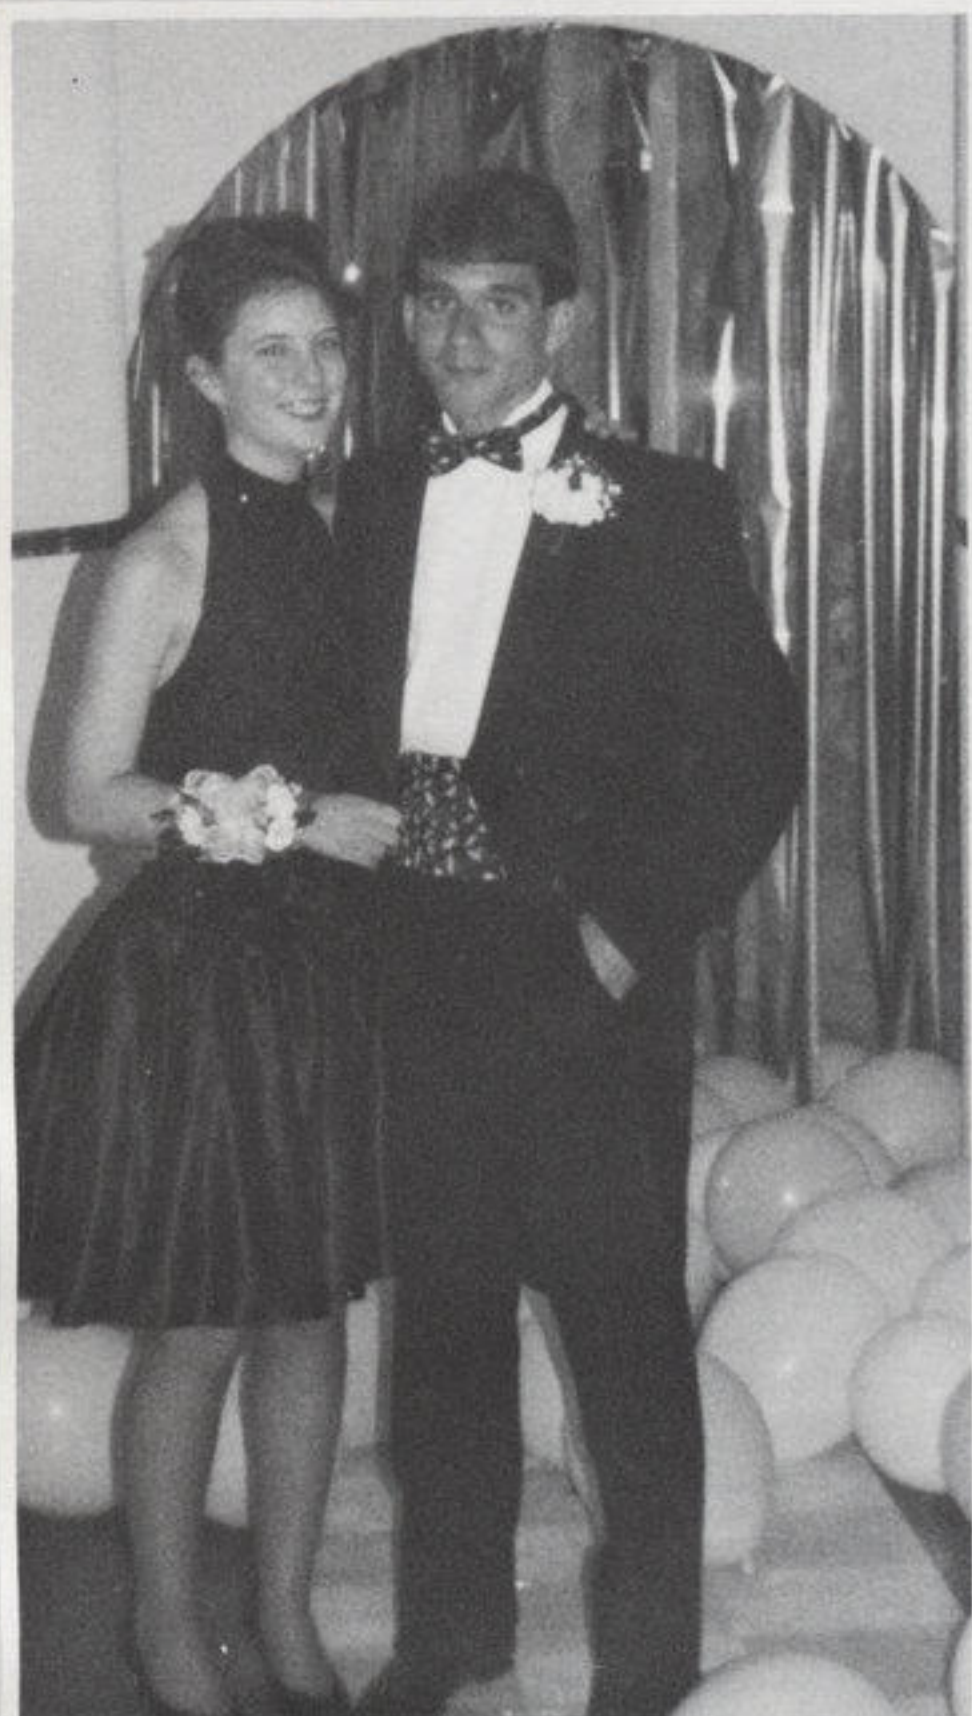

A wondrous place for you and me.

Leeanne, Eddie, and Matt watching the unbelievable sights.

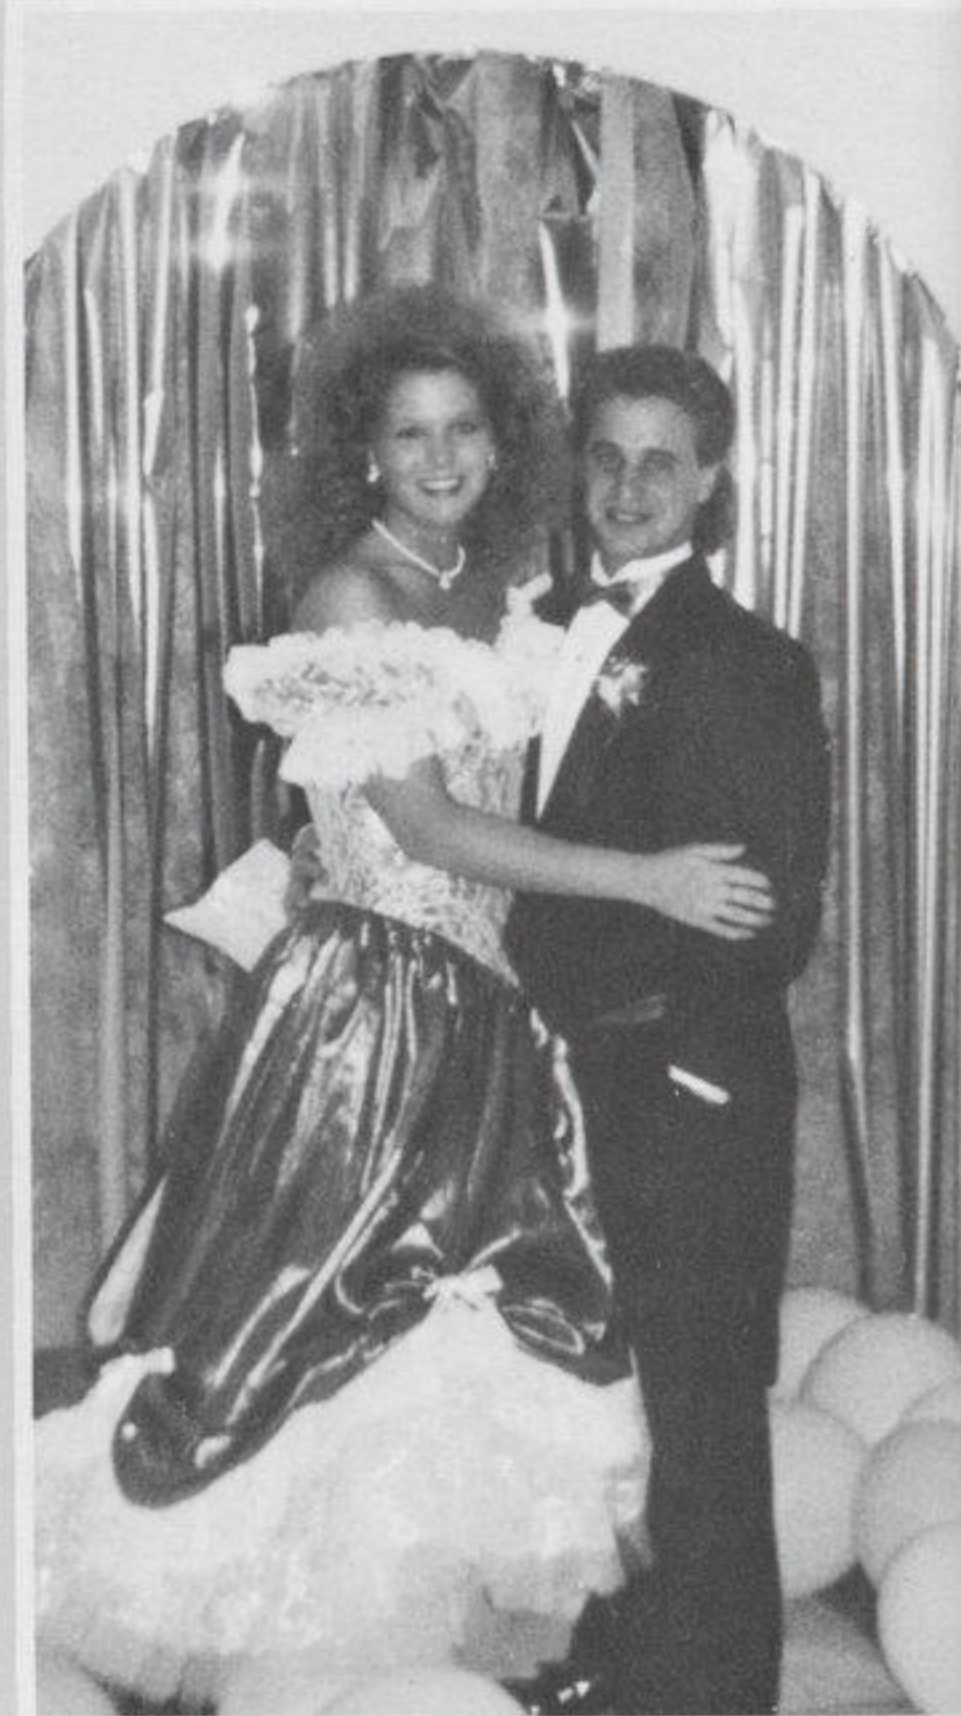

A dazzling place I never knew.

Ann and Tim at their last Prom.

Shelly wondering what Kitt's up to.

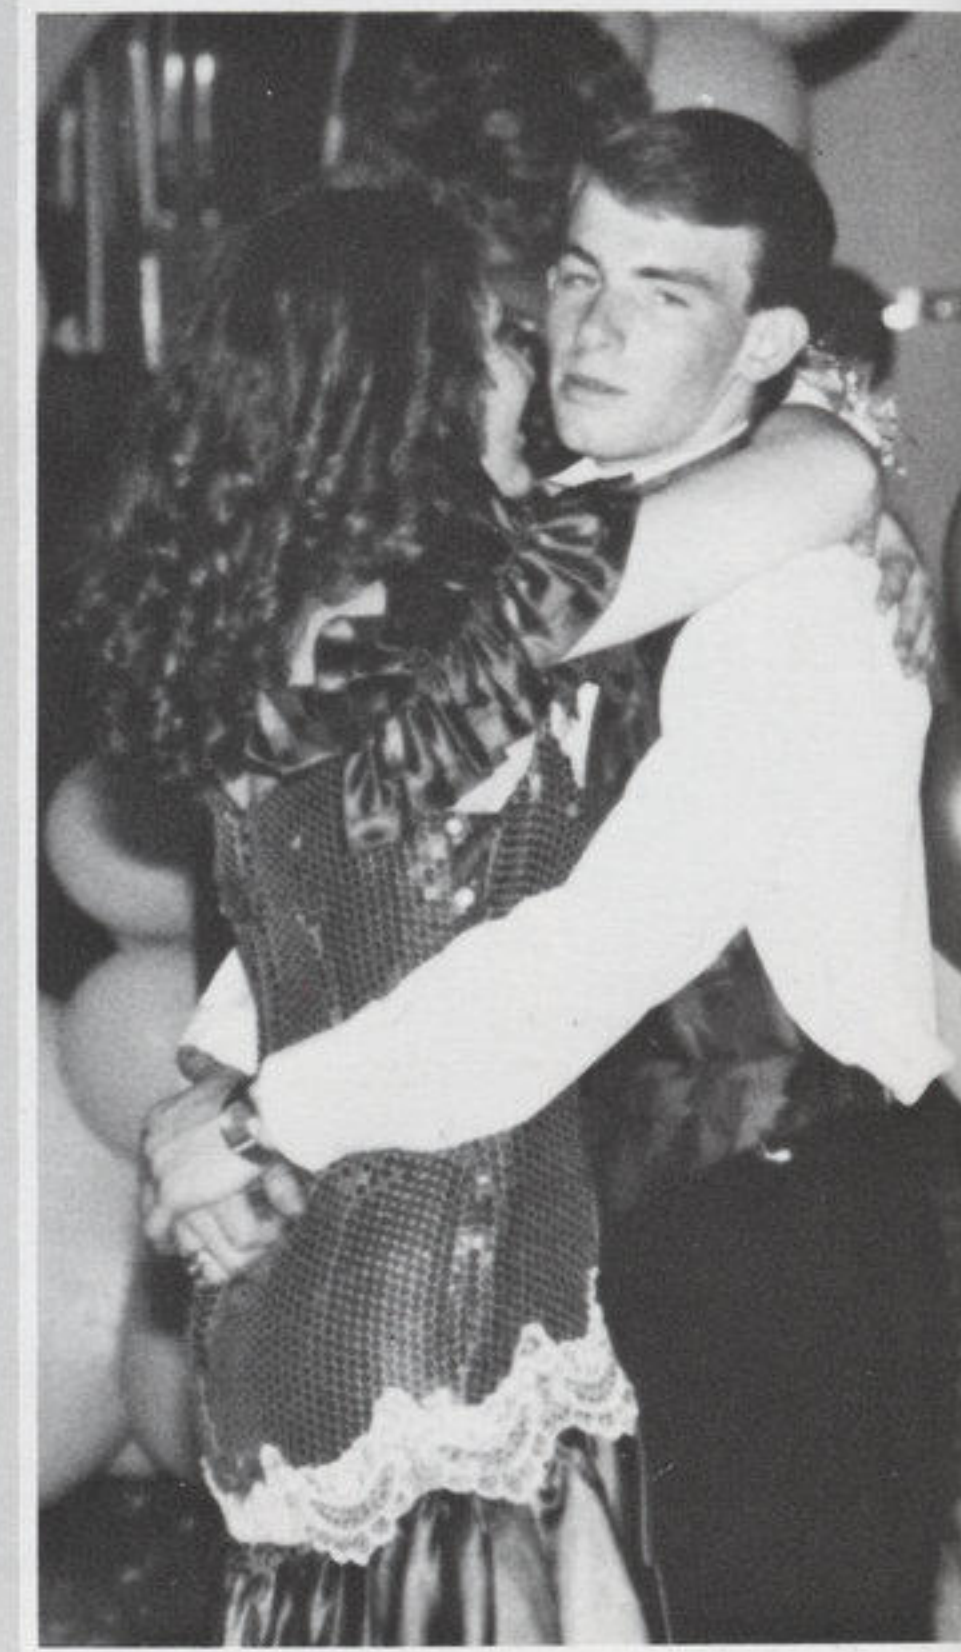

Pam and Brian looking sweet as always.

Devon and Charity enjoying a nice slow dance.

Don't they make a nice couple?

John's thinking "I'm in heaven."

Leni enjoying her first U.S. Prom.

Kara, Stacy, and Raina trying to get the rhythm.

Everyone enjoying a fast dance.

Dance! Dance! Dance!

Say Cheese!

Look at us! Ain't we beautiful!

Hans Wolf Suennemann, Leni Harder, Till Hesse

Till Hesse: Young Punk!

WHAT?!

Two mad scientists.

Three exchanged students from Germany attended Plymouth for the 1992-93 school year. Leni Harder, hosted by Rick & Shirley Reeder, was very active in choir and volleyball.

Benjamin and Miriam Kensinger were the hosts of Till Hesse, who was involved in track and a member of the school newspaper staff.

Hans Suennemann, hosted by Mike and Nancy Follett, was active in band and track.
